Oregon Crop Prospects.

Last week was too wet for farming and garden planting, but was fine growing weather with plenty of sunshine. Grass growing finely. Stock doing well. Pears beginning to bloom also prunes. This week things will be in a rush in planting if weather is favorable.

WILLAMETTE VALLEY.

Last week was one of low temperature with frequent showers which have delayed plowing, seeding and gardening. Fall wheat has a good stand and is stooling well. Prunes and cherries are beginning to blossom on the low lands. Wild flowers are plentiful. Stock is in average condition.

COLUMBIA RIVER VALLEY.

The spring has been very favorable for farm work of all kinds. Farmers are busy now plowing, orchard cultivating, tree planting and gardening. The fruit outlook is good; trees are well set with fruit buds; trees all appear to have clustered well. Grass is getting well started on meadows and range.

SOUTHERN OREGON.

Table Rock, Jackson county, S. M. Seufert.—The past week has been cloudy and cool, with considerable rain, which has interfered with gardening and spraying for scale; seeding for spring grain about finished. Potatoes being planted and corn ground being plowed. Grass on the ranges is short because of cool weather.

Murphy, Josephine county, J. S. McFadden.—Fall grain has made a rapid growth and looks first-class. Spring sowing about done; grain germinating; much of it up and looking fine. Alfalfa making is excellent progress, could not look better; pasture good. But little gardening done, too wet. Heavy frost in the 2nd. Owing to much late rain, the general outlook is that this year will be an excellent one for good crops.

Olalla, Douglas county, W. R. Wells.—Early sown grain is growing nicely, and the weather is fine for the late sown. The prospects are favorable for all crops.

PLATEAU REGION.

The fall-sown grain is in excellent condition, and wheat sown in January is making a better growth than that sown last fall. Farm work is progressing rapidly.

About "Dad."

There is a class of men who are seldom if ever appreciated at their true value. In this enlighted age they are commonly called "Dad." It is dad that hustles himself year in and year out, on the farm, in the office or, workshop, in order that his boy or girl may go away to school, and upon their return, that the boy may have a fine horse and top buggy and the girl a costly piano. It is dad that hustles and cultivates great calloused knots on his hands and becomes stoop-shouldered in order that his offspring may revel in luxury and make fatual fools of themselves. His sons and daughters have learned at his expense to despise his old-fashioned ways. They secretly laugh at the style of his Sunday coat and bellercrowned hat. On Sunday when his daughter has company and he would like to sit in the parlor and listen to the music, he is given in various ways to understand that his presence is not desireable, and the poor man goes out into the kitchen and stays the remainder of the afternoon. God bless the son and daughter who goes back to dad. In the catalogue of low-down cussedness that of ingratitude to one's parents is the most contemptible.
