THE LATEST NEWS.

Told in Side Heads
MISSOURI TOWN BURNED.
ST. JOSEPH, Mo., April 26.—The town of Herculaneum was destroyed by fire today.

STREET-CAR STRIKERS WIN.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—After being on a strike one week, San Francisco street railway employees won a victory and will resume their places today. They secure a 10-hour day, an advance in wages, and, in manner, recognition of their union.

WOMAN'S CLUB OFFICERS.

PORTLAND, April 26.—The State Federation of Woman's Clubs elected Mrs. Wade Pendleton, president; Mrs. Child Roseburg, vice president; Mrs. Elmira Astoria, secretary.

FURNISH AT SALEM.

SALEM, April 29.—W. J. Furnish visited the state capital and was very cordially received by Governor Geer, with whom he held a conference. He was warmly greeted by the other state officials. The reception rendered the republican nominee for governor today and yesterday proved the most enthusiastic in the history of Salem.

ODD FELLOWS DAY.

PORTLAND, April 27.—The Odd Fellows and Daughters of Rebekah yesterday dedicated the L. O. O. F. Home near Keedworth, with appropriate ceremonies. The morning exercises were held on the grounds, and, in spite of a pouring rain, were largely attended by visiting members of the two orders. In the afternoon visiting members were entertained at a reception at the L. O. O. F. Temple. In the evening the exercises celebrating the eighty-third anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship were celebrated at the First Baptist church.

OREGON DAY AT CHARLESTON.

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 26.—This was "Oregon day" at the exposition, and one of the most interesting, thus far, of South Carolina's great fair. The exercises at the Auditorium were well received. Representative Tongue delivered the principal address, speaking on education in general, from an educational standpoint. The address was generally pronounced one of the most logical and interesting delivered on any state day. Captain Wagner, in his welcoming remarks, paid a pleasing tribute to Oregon's exhibit, and the great assistance of the state to the fair in sending such wonderful and interesting attractions.

The other speakers were Rev. Chas. Venable, Commissioner H. E. Doseh and Albert Tozier. The band played "The Second Oregon Volunteers," and the president of the exposition gave a brief speech.
