ATTACKS SOCIETY WOMEN.

Emile Zola, the Famous Frenchman, Makes Severe Charges.

Emile Zola has created a sensation in Paris by his criticism of society women. He was invited to lecture before an aristocratic woman's literary and political club and he shocked his hearers at the outset by telling them that they were not what they pretended to be.

"You pretend to be interested in three questions," Zola said, "but really you are not. Your days are solely devoted to foolish amusement and useless actions, interminable toilet-making seances with dressmakers, luncheons, dinners, pink teas, so-called literary lectures, receptions, balls and theaters. You spend your time in gossip which is stupid when it is not wicked.

"You shirk motherhood, and when you have children they are mostly trusted to mercenary hands. You grovel with astonishing alacrity to gain admittance into social circles above your own, and cannot conceal your absolute contempt for people supposedly below yourselves. You relegate your reluctant duty of charity to paltry offerings for a few famous institutions. This is the sort of rot a society woman leads. What right have you to meddle in philosophy, literature and politics?

"It is a mere accident of birth that you are not factory girls or dry goods saleswomen. And, were you such, can you feel certain that you would have the courage to prefer honest, laborious misery to dishonorably ease?"

Buffalo Bill is Coming.

The announcement is made that the Buffalo Bill - Wild West, led by Col. W. F. Cody himself, will this season, and for the first time in its history, make a complete tour of the American continent—from Ocean to ocean, East to West; from the Zenith City in the North to the Gulf of Mexico on the south. This itinerary will take the great organization through much of the territory where its wild scenes are laid, and for that matter being to their very birthplace the incidents it has so aptly illustrated in other parts of the world. A trip to the Pacific Coast has long been contemplated and now that Messrs. Cody and Salsbury have concluded to go to Europe again this Fall, they have determined to pay a parting salute of respect to America and will, as stated, cover the entire country this season, beginning at Madison Square Garden in the very heart of the Metropolis, and then exhibit at the principal points only. Several points in Oregon will be visited, no doubt including Roseburg.

There is no end of attractions. All the features which have for years made the Wild West famous, are retained, including the bucking broncbos, cowboys, Mexicans, Russian Cossacks, Indians, U. S. Artillery and Calvary, Bedouin Arabs, South American Gauchos, and Johnny Baker in remarkable feats with rifle and shot-gun. Col W. F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) is at the head, and will appear at each performance, rain or shine.
