VITUPERATION VS. ARGUMENT.

There is quite a marked difference in the arguments used in this campaign by the Republicans and those advanced by the Democrats. The Republicans have used mainly the general argument of prosperity and the good results of the Republican policy in national affairs. They have also criticized Mr. Chamberlain in a legitimate way, by picking to pieces some of his flimsy campaign arguments. On the other hand, the Democratic press has conducted a campaign of abuse, general and personal. From the head of the ticket to the foot, the Democratic brethren have abused and libeled the Republican candidates, but saying little about their own. They have advanced no affirmative arguments for their own ticket. They abuse Mr. Furnish because he is a banker and has made some money, depending on a supposed aversion of the people to voting for any man who has made a financial success. Against Mr. Furnish's character for ability and honesty they can show nothing. They will find that the voters will not consider business capacity such a very bad thing in a governor. It is the same with other candidates. In one case, Mr. Crawford's. They are going back to old lawsuits and adopting arguments of opposing counsel as gospel truth. For congressmen, they do not show a strong

SEE HERE, MR. CHAMBERLAIN.

Mr. Chamberlain makes some sort of a claim that the Oregon constitution is being violated in the payment of salary and fees to the State officers over the amounts specified in the Constitution. Now, a number of these acts were passed during the administration of Governor Penneyer, and also while Mr. Chamberlain was Attorney General. Certainly the regular appropriation bills carried the items for all of them. There have been no increases since then.

It is a pertinent question to ask Mr. Chamberlain, if these laws are unconstitutional, why, as Attorney General, the legal advisor of the State of Oregon, he did not take some steps to prevent this money from being drawn out of the Treasury in violation of the Constitution of the State?

There is a vast difference between Mr. Chamberlain, a public official, and Mr. Chamberlain, candidate for public office. It is as great an appeal as the one from "Philip drunk to Philip sober."—Salmon Statesman

A WORD OF WARNING.

The first step in the next panic will be for Oregon to declare to the world that the policies under which the nation has risen to the marvelous prosperity of 1902 are disapproved in Oregon and may be expected to be disapproved in the congressional elections all over the country this fall. If honest money, expansion and regard for the new opportunities of Pacific commerce have lost caste in Oregon, they have lost caste elsewhere. A Democratic Governor and Legislature here means Democratic Congressmen and Legislatures throughout the country. It will be the signal for a change; and nothing will be more reasonable to expect than the repetition of the fear that swept over the country after Cleveland's election in 1892.

VERDICTS WERE FOR CRAWFORD.

Some of the Democrats of this city are endeavoring to cut down the handsome majority Hon. A. M. Crawford to turn its back upon him at the very first time he comes before them in an official capacity for support or rejection?

THOMAS H. TONGUE.

Hon. Thomas H. Tongue is recognized by all parties as one of the ablest men on the floor of the lower House of Congress. He has been thrice elected from this district and will be returned again. He is a man of great ability and has acquired a knowledge of the doings of congress that it would take a new man years to obtain. His committee positions, which are only obtained by long service, adds to his prominence in that body. Tongue should receive a wonderfully increased majority over two years ago.

If there is any man on the republican ticket who is deserving of re-election, it is that level-headed business man and prince of good fellows, County Judge M. D. Thompson. He has always been found at his post of duty during his brief term of office, has manifested great wisdom, care and economy in the administration of county affairs and has come as near giving universal satisfaction in this very responsible office as is possible for a man to do. Voters, you can not do better than to re-elect for county judge the man who has proven a friend to you all as well as to the county's best interests.—M. D. Thompson.

It is always the brightest, best and hardest-working men of the party who come in for the greatest share of opposition and abuse at the hands of the opposition, as the opponents of such men recognize that nothing less than desperate measures will defeat or hold in check such a man—hence the frantic effort of the democrats and sore-heads to injure Hon. A. M. Crawford, but the work of the opposition has been so rank and unscrupulous that all lovers of justice and fair play will walk up to the polls and cast their ballot for Southern Oregon's general candidate for attorney-general, Hon. A. M. Crawford.

at the polls Monday. The labor element of these counties are justly entitled to this recognition and they have named a man who will not only ably represent their interests but the interests of both counties and the state at large, as well.

The republican plank on salaries reads: "We demand that a law be passed by the next legislature placing all public officers of the state on reasonable salaries, which shall not be increased during the incumbent's term of office, and beyond such salaries they shall receive no compensation as fees or otherwise."

Commissioners J. C. Young and A. E. Nichols have proven themselves able assistants to Judge M. D. Thompson in administering the affairs of the county court and they should be given a rousing majority at the polls next Monday. Be sure and place an "X" mark before the names of J. C. Young and A. E. Nichols on the official ballot.

When marking your ballot on election day and while in close communion with your conscience, within the booth ask yourself if you can afford to sanction a scuttling policy as regards the Philippines. Unless you do this you will still owe a large debt to the cause of "humanity" and "justice." Republican principles demand the latter.

Ira B. Riddle and Frank H. Rogers will make a fine energetic and competent team to work for the interests of our county in the Oregon legislature. Vote for these two worthy, bright and energetic young men.

That D. R. Shanbrook will be elected county clerk, there seems to be no doubt. What reason can be advanced why he should not be? He's the best clerk we ever had and is well broken in on the duties of the office.

When you are marking your ballot on election day see that you place an X behind the number and name of C. E. Roberts for surveyor.

OLDEST LIVING PIONEER.

William Abernethy, of Coos County, Claims That Honor.

PORTLAND, May 27.—William Abernethy, of Dora, Coos County, who is in Portland on business, considers himself the oldest living Oregon pioneer, and in accordance with custom, expects to head the procession of Oregon pioneers at the celebration June 18.

"I came here with my parents in 1840," Mr. Abernethy said, at the St. Charles today, "and that was two years before the first emigrant train arrived overland. Our family left Illinois in 1839, traveling by deer-horn wagon and mule-team to New York. We left New York City in October, 1839, on board a full-rigged clipper ship, and rounded Cape Horn, after stopping a couple of days at Rio de Janeiro for provisions. On the Pacific side we stopped at Valparaiso. Then our ship took a westerly course and we dropped anchor at Honolulu, where some of our passengers disembarked.

"There was no San Francisco then, so our ship headed for the mouth of the Columbia river. We arrived at Vancouver in June 1840 and I thought it was the prettiest place I ever saw. I think so yet.

"Our family finally settled down near Oregon City, and my father helped build the first saw mill erected in Oregon. The old house in which we lived still stands. It was built of sun-dried lumber and is in good preservation yet."

Mr. Abernethy, now a well-preserved man of over 70, is running a farm near Dora, adjacent to Coos Bay. He, like the rest of the people over there, feels the necessity of closer connection with Portland, and to that end will concur with parties in this city as to the practicality of constructing an electric road from Eugene City to Roseburg.

case for Mr. Weatherford, but they everlastingly abuse Mr. Tongue. Perhaps Republicans ought not to kick at all this, considering the advantage it gives them. The body of the people must not be set down as paying more attention to personal abuse than to appeals to their good sense. When the ballots are counted it will be found that in a campaign of vituperation vs. argument, the latter will prevail.

MR. STRONG VS. THE GRAND JURY

Mr. Strong, the democratic candidate for county judge, stated at Drain that he did not say that there was $80,000 of the taxpayers' money unaccounted for by the present county court, but $16,000. The grand jury after examining the county records monthly last week reported as follows, which report was published in both the Plaindealer and Review: "We next visited the various county officers and made an inspection of their books of record. We found them neatly and systematically kept and the officers courteous and gentlemanly." Had there been a shortage of $16,000 in the county finances this grand jury would have discovered it and reported the fact, as it was sworn to do, but there being no such shortage the above report was submitted. Will the voters tolerate such flagrant falsehood and deceit on the part of Mr. Strong, the democratic candidate for county judge? Overwhelming defeat at the polls June 24 would only be a just retribution to the gravity of such an offense to public decency.

ROYAL Baking Powder. Makes the bread more healthful. Safeguards the food against alum. Alum baking powders are the greatest menaces to health of the present day.

ford will receive at the polls June 24 for attorney-general by publishing a lot of rot in some little campaign sheets at Portland relative to the Crawford-Willis suit in equity for an accounting and dissolution of partnership. Since the courts have given Mr. Crawford the verdict in every proceeding which Willis has instituted against him, except Judge Hansbrough's decision, which decision, however, was REVERSED upon an appeal to the Supreme Court, therefore we are at a loss to understand what his political enemies expect to make out of rehearsing this case. The unscrupulous and under-handed work of the Democrats to injure Mr. Crawford, is having a reverse effect and is making voters for him every day.

FURNISH THEN AND NOW.

While Mr. Furnish held office as a democrat a few years ago his honesty was never questioned by any member of his party. On the contrary, democrats considered "Billy" Furnish all right in every sense of the term. But now, as Mr. Chamberlain quotes, "a change has come over the spirit of their dreams." Mr. Furnish refused to follow his party into the Bryan camp, and for this reason democratic stump speakers and newspapers can easily see that he is dishonest and has made entirely too much money. They even ridicule Mr. Furnish because he isn't an orator. The logical conclusion is that it is all right for a democrat to be dishonest, and that talkativeness is not necessarily a democratic qualification; but Republican office-seekers must be a little better than the earthly average. Republicans stand true to your principles and vote for W. J. Furnish for governor.

SUSTAIN OUR LOYAL PRESIDENT.

President Roosevelt has taken a decided stand before the country on justice to the dependencies on non-political trusts, on the reputation of the Army. He will feel encouraged and heartened by a Republican victory, and by a Democratic victory he can only feel rebuked and humbled. Are the people of Oregon, who have trusted an honored Taborian Roosevelt for nine and a half years, is the Republican party of Oregon, especially which has always voted for his accession to the presidency, ready for county clerk the voters have their choice of voting for a man of ripe experience, an expert book-keeper, a fine penman, a genial and obliging gentleman who has served one term as clerk and has conducted this most important office to the satisfaction of all, or, on the other hand, the voters may cast their ballots for a young school teacher, inexperienced in practical business and whose only claims for the office seem to be that he has taught a few terms of country school and is a "nice" fellow.

For the past two years the sheriff's office has been conducted on strictly business principles, fewer mistakes have occurred in the records of that office, notwithstanding the greatly increased volume of business, than under any former administration, this official has been found ever on the alert and has proven expert in detecting and running down criminals, in fact, as the prosecuting attorney announced publicly, there is not a more efficient sheriff in this whole district than "Gene" Parrott. Re-elect him.

The Douglas county treasury with Uncle George Dimmick in charge of the records and keys is as safe and secure as the United States Treasury at Washington, D. C., and all of the people are aware of this fact. The voters will therefore be very careful about voting a young and practically unknown man into this very important office. "Uncle George" has well earned and is justly entitled to the great confidence and esteem reposed in him by the people of Douglas county.

Do you favor President Roosevelt?

Do you endorse his hostility to the trusts? If you do, you can only be consistent on election day by voting for Thomas H. Tongue, who is heartily supporting the measures of our chief executive. President Roosevelt wants to be backed up by a Congress composed of men like Tongue, and not by men who favor the abuse of our army and the "scuttling" system as does J. K. Weatherford.

A Bargain in A Little Home.

Two hundred acres, two miles from Myrtle Point, Coos County, Ore., 130 acres cleared, 70 acres good timber; located on road; good orchard; good house and barn and improvements; will keep 25 dairy cows. Convenient to river, steam boat and railroad facilities. For particulars inquire at this office or address Box 63, Myrtle Point, Oregon.

See that the labor candidate for joint representative of Douglas and Jackson counties, Jas. M. Hansbrough, is given a handsome majority of the condition of the country, resulting from Republican policy and measures, good enough? Is better expected from the Democratic party? How was it from 1893 to 1897?

President Roosevelt is still vigorously in favor of the irrigation of our arid lands. He is a true friend of the West.

President Roosevelt, backed by the whole republican party, is going to roost that beef trust till it is well done.

Don't forget the democratic hard times of a few years ago when you cast your vote for governor.

Attorney J. A. Buchanan is worthy and well qualified for the office of justice of peace. Vote for him.

Dr. J. C. Tuttle has made an excellent coroner. Re-elect him.

H. C. Slouma has made a good constable. Vote for him.

ANOTHER CAMPAIGN LIE.

The trumped up charge that Hon. A. M. Crawford 20 years ago induced a Coos county party to deed over some land to him as security for $500 and then after receiving payment of the money refused to return the deed is too malicious and silly to require any attention whatever. It is a campaign lie pure and simple and should be given no credence whatever.

VOTERS, LOOK OUT!

It is observed that the democrats have arranged dates at all of the important places in the county for Saturday evening, at which time judging from their miscellaneous campaign records, they will spring some outrageous campaign rantback, with the expectation of gaining votes on the eve of election, when there is not time for their lies to be refuted. Voters look out for them!

Portland Strike Ended.

PORTLAND, May 17.—Again the firm of building industry is held in Portland, after six days of unbroken quiet. The sympathetic strike of unskilled men in the trades of the Building Trades Council is at an end, while the original cause of the trouble is still present. The order for the men to return to work was issued at a meeting of the Building Trades Council last evening.

Point, but such is evidently not his intention, so Coos county's interests continue to languish.

"The total output of lumber, dairy products and fruit shipped from Coos Bay annually would suffice to feed the people if the correct figures could be obtained, and Portland should get the larger proportion of this if we had rail connection with Roseburg. What I want to do is to find the cost of constructing and operating an electric line and we will then see what Coos county people can do toward assisting outside capital in the enterprise. We have an ample water going to waste along the Coquille river, the cost of impoundment will be light after the dam is once put in operation. Such a road would open up a country rich in varied resources, and add vastly to our population and wealth, as well as to the dividends of the stockholders."

Memorial Services

Memorial services will be held at the opera house tomorrow, (Friday) May 30th, at 10:30 a. m. The following is the program: Invocation by the Adjutant. Music by the band, a dirge. Ritualistic work. Piano medley, Miss Hazel Perry. Recitation, Carlotta's popular poem, "Cover Them Over With Beautiful Flowers," Miss Clara McCoy. Solo, "The Boy in Blue," Miss Hazel Perry, accompanied by Mrs. S. C. Flint. Oration, Rev. W. A. Wood. Song, America, by congregation.

ANOTHER BANNER MONTH

Over half a carload of PIANOS and ORGANS sold in April and Mostly all high grade instruments like Chickering and Kimball

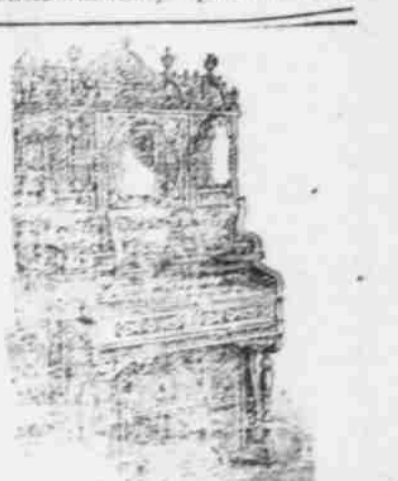

Now that our business is spreading out and increasing, it is impossible for us to load a full carload of instruments at Roseburg at one time. Our last load was distributed, commencing at Portland; some went to Bend, some to Jefferson, some to Roseburg, but the bulk of them we landed at Cottage Grove where we are doing an exceedingly fine business, disposing of eight instruments, including two fine Chickering's, three Kimball's, a fine Whitney and two cheaper makes. Cottage Grove is in a very prosperous condition and the people are using good judgment in buying the very best pianos on the market, knowing that the best is always the cheapest. Our next carload will arrive in about six days. This lot will be distributed here at Roseburg, as we have nearly one-half this lot already engaged at different points; now that the roads are getting in good condition we will be able to make our country deliveries in a short time. K. N. Womack, the popular organ man, is now busy making deliveries and calling on his old friends. Miss Foreman, our sales lady, has been very successful in the sale of pianos, and especially the Whitney, as it is a favorite of hers, and it makes friends wherever it goes. The stock we have on hand will be closed out in a very short time, as we have put the prices way down. We are also representatives of the Eiler's Music House, Portland, Ore. Don't fail to go see Eiler when you go to Portland.

We are daily receiving letters from our many customers in praise of the instruments which they have purchased from us direct or from some of our agents. A good article will always speak for itself and especially a good Piano or Organ, as we carry the best. They sound their own praise and have kept it up for the last twelve years.
