Knocks All the Wind out of the Review's Roarback Against Mr. Crawford.

Now that the election is over we desire to call the attention of the sober-minded voters to the fact that the Review's campaign article, published by the Roarback Review in its most endeavor to win the day for the demagogue, but which signally failed. The following paragraph which is uncorrected below by Judge Beas, appeared in the columns of the Review, May 20:

"That rebuke administered to Mr. Crawford by Judge Beas, in consequence of a number of years ago, is well remembered by many of our citizens. Of course, the local ring organ characterizes the recent published report of the occurrence as a falsehood, but any of the gentlemen mentioned as being present, including Judge Beas, will verify the truthfulness of the occurrence, as will many others who are acquainted with the circumstances of the case."

JUDGE BEAS'S LETTER. SALEM, Ore., May 20, 1902. HON. A. M. CRAWFORD, Roseburg, Oregon.

MY DEAR SIR:—Referring to the case of Aiken against you, a published statement of what purports to be the facts in reference thereto you have just called my attention to. I have to say that I do not remember the facts to have been as stated. As I recall them you were employed by Aiken to negotiate a loan for him, or rather to obtain money with which to redeem his land from a sale under an execution. You procured the money and for security he conveyed the land to you. When he came to redeem from you some conveyance arose between you as to the amount of your fees for negotiating the loan and attending to the business for him. You could not agree and he brought suit to redeem, in which he was the plaintiff, and you were the defendant. You procured the money and for security he conveyed the land to you. Educational Notes.

Annual School Meetings will be held throughout the County Monday Evening, June 24, 1902. The last regular County Board meeting for the year, will be held June 11, 12 and 13.

During the past two weeks our papers intend to have been the Knappton, visiting schools, going as far as Seaside. These schools will be referred to again in the next issue.

The next Annual County Institute will be held at Roseburg in the latter part of August, the exact date being left to the convenience of the State Dept. and will be announced soon.

The Western Division of the Oregon State Teachers Association, will be held at Eugene, June 25-28. A round-trip rate of one and one-third fares has been arranged. Douglas County will be well represented.

A. L. Hester brought the Roseburg election returns to Roseburg Wednesday. While in town he made the following statement: "I am a Democrat and think that a plank need to be wide from Seaside to Drain would be a profitable investment for that part of the county and would so much enhance local interests that by the time it was voted a road to Seaside, the road would build some kind of a bridge over the people night roads. Not less than the standard Mill Co. make the people open there a reasonable plank road proposition—accepting the road, but on a set of the legislature would probably be required to regulate that matter, such a road would be a great blessing in manifold ways to the people of that section of the county."

After publishing much defamatory matter concerning Mr. Crawford, the Review positively refused to publish the above letter before the election even at its regular advertising rates, thus showing no disposition whatever to be fair and truthful. Such a paper should receive the condemnation of every true American citizen.
