JULY 21, 1902.

It is a slow town between Portland and Roseburg these days that cannot lay positive claim to being the outlet for the Coos Bay Salt Lake rail road. Roseburg has some assurances in this respect and is consequently losing no sleep over the matter. There is but two practical Southern Oregon routes over the cascades into Eastern Oregon—by way of the South or North Umpqua rivers and their tributaries, either of which affords a low pass and consequently easy grade over the mountains and either route would bring the road directly through Roseburg.

The papers are turning the Tracy escape into money making schemes of a demoralizing character, says an exchange. They are sowing seeds in the minds of the young that will bear their evil fruits in years to come. More than one has been led to the gallows by reading fiction not to be compared with what is a reality in this case. The great desire for a newspaper scoop is behind this sensational work.

No President save Lincoln has been more popular with the people than President Roosevelt. His official acts are in the interest of the people of the whole country. He is one of the nation's big brainy men who has the courage to do right. Twenty five years hence even the Democrats will recognize, acknowledge and proclaim this fact. They are just that many years behind the times.

Talk about prosperous Republican times, the country has never witnessed the likes of the present, an evidence of which is the following stereotyped local paragraph which we find in the state press: "Hands for hay and harvesting are very scarce and requests are coming in from all over the country for more help and it is not to be had."

Why all this discussion as to whom should receive the reward for Merrill, the dead outlaw? It is plain enough. Harry Tracy is the man. But perhaps the reward should be divided between Tracy and Mrs. Wagner, for while the former out short the career of the desperate outlaw, the latter "delivered the goods to the Oregon officers."

It is now definitely settled that Binger Hermann will retain his position as commissioner of the general land office at Washington. Mr. Hermann is the right man in the right place, and the only objections to him come from men like the editor of the Portland Dispatch.—Shaniko Leader.

Since his late disappearance Tracy has hopped up at intervals all along the line between Olympia, Washington and Ashland, Oregon. Town Talk published at the latter place, has a sensational account of Tracy and his two pals visiting a cigar store while passing through that city, Friday.

Washington County Indian War Veterans, declare in favor of Congressman Thomas H. Tongue for United States Senator. Mr. Tongue expresses appreciation for the compliment but says loyalty to friends forbids his entering the race for the Senate plume.

This is the season of the year when the goodwife packs up everything and hies away to the mountains or coast to cook, wash dishes and take care of the children while her old man has a good time hunting, fishing and taking a rest.

Kansas, Missouri, Pennsylvania and Minnesota have all warmly endorsed President Roosevelt to succeed himself in 1904 and Senator Platt is authority for the statement that New York will do like wise.

A gentleman well posted in regard to political conditions in the state ventures the prediction that Congressman Tongue stands an excellent chance of becoming our next U. S. senator.—Forest Grove Times.

On our last page will be found a table which will interest you and is a good thing to cut out and paste in your Scrap Book for future reference especially about campaign times.

Grover Cleveland would evidently be quite happy if he could see, before he dies, the Democracy supporting a few sound Republican principles.

After all blue beats khaki color. It will be difficult to make anything take the place of the "boys in blue," says an Albany paper.

We have in stock several second hand bicycles which we will sell at very low prices or will trade for wood.

FINE STREET WORK.

A Great Industrial Movement has Been Inaugurated in This County.

Contractor Fred J. Blakely has practically completed his contract for the improvement of Sheridan street and is now putting in the sidewalks. The street just completed presents an admirable appearance. It is nicely graded and rounded and has a concrete gutter on either side so constructed as to drain the water from the street. The street is paved with crushed rock, a heavy coating of fine crushed rock being placed on top, a finish which is not called for in Mr. Blakely's contract, but which he is placing on the streets through his own liberality and public spirit, and which is an evidence of the great interest and pride he has in the city of his newly adopted home. Mr. Blakely is a very enterprising and progressive gentleman and has already been the means of bringing this part of the country to the attention of Eastern capitalists and investors who at once recognizing the many splendid opportunities for investment here are putting their capital into local industries which will tend to hasten the development of our varied resources and the consequent upbuilding of our towns and country. We can heartily congratulate ourselves upon the acquisition of such public spirited men and we should all encourage them in the establishment of their new enterprises. Mr. Blakely has done much for our city and county already and will do much more, regardless of the opposition he may meet with from a few obstructionist and naysayers who sooner or later must give way before the power of a new era of progress and enterprise has been awakened in our country by these enterprising gentlemen which is beyond the power of the naysack element to arrest. The Plaindealer having always stood for progress and prosperity is naturally a champion of every new enterprise and industry which is instituted in this county and will do nothing but every effort to measure to obstruct or discourage any legitimate industry that may be inaugurated in this territory.

MYRTLE CREEK NEWS.

C. O. White Appointed Justice of the Peace. Old Well down 800 feet. Mining News.

Mrs. Mattson of Bible, is visiting a few days with Mrs. B. M. Armitage. Aunt Bonds is also visiting friends here.

Mr. Alex Thompson has taken the position of head cook at the camp of W. P. Johnson on North Myrtle and White rock.

Hardly had Mr. W. J. Johnson secured rights of way for his rail and drive way up North Myrtle and began opening up an industry which will install life and prosperity into the Myrtle district, when a company from the East began paying for ground on which to erect a saw and planing mill.

Mr. J. B. Crippie Creek Col., who is inspecting the Little Chisholm mines, pursuant to buying, feels much interested in the high grade steel district, and is well pleased with as well defined features.

Mr. B. M. Armitage and family, and Miss Bird Rice and Evelyn Johnson, returned Saturday laden with trout and berries, from a two weeks outing under Castle rock on the head of the South Myrtle.

Mr. C. O. White was in Roseburg Saturday transacting business, and received his appointment of Justice of the Peace to succeed J. S. Lane, who has long and satisfactorily filled the office of Justice for this precinct.

The oil well which is over 800 ft. deep and drills are going through the second formation of shale which is the very proper thing, if it is followed by course and rock filled with oil and the way people here are securing stock shows that they have every confidence that oil is certain to follow the present indications.

Tracy on Wheels.
SEATTLE, July 19.—A special to The Times from Chehalis says that three men passed through that town this morning on a back road, riding bicycles. One of them answered the description of Tracy. He had a rifle strapped to his wheel and wore two revolvers in his belt. The men were going in the direction of Centralia.

Codfish is still at the Courthouse this morning, and says there is no news. There are still six depots around Sawyer Lake.

A rioter was current on the streets that Tracy had held up a rancher near Emmelaw last night and eaten a hearty supper.

SEATTLE, July 20.—The three men in question were held up by a deputy and proved to be laborers headed for Oregon's harvest fields.

Geer Issues Requisition.
SALEM, Ore., July 19.—Governor Geer today issued a requisition upon the Governor of Nevada for the extradition of Bert Heaton, who is wanted in Lane County for the murder of Benton Tracy. Sheriff Withers, of Lane County, has the man under arrest at Reno, Nev., and will return him to this state.

Grand Clearance Sale.

A. O. U. W. AND D. OF H.

Officers Chosen and Installed—Amendment to the Constitution.

PORTLAND, July 18.—At the session of the Grand Lodge, A. O. U. W., this morning, the greater portion of the time was consumed in discussing proposed amendments to the constitution. One of them had relation to the contract between an applicant for insurance and the lodge. Another had reference to the changing of the date for the payment of dues from the 28th to the last day of the month. Election and installation of officers was held this afternoon, and the session concluded.

Grand master workman, William Smith, of Baker City.

Grand foreman, G. H. Durham, of Portland.

Grand overseer, Virgil E. Walters, of Corvallis.

Grand recorder, Newton Clark, of Hood River.

Grand receiver, R. L. Durham, of Portland.

Grand guide, W. J. Clark, of Gervais.

Grand inside watchman, Philip Gevartz, of Portland.

Grand outside watchman, J. Warner, of Albany.

Grand trustee, J. P. Dudge, of Astoria.

Supreme representative, C. C. Hogue, of Albany; D. C. Herrin, of Ashland; Ralph Feeney, of Portland.

W. D. Haro, of Hillsboro, member of the A. O. U. W., presented the officers of the D. of H. with beautiful gold badges, gifts from the supreme and superior lodges, which were in session in this city last month. The annual election of officers then followed, resulting as follows:

Grand chief of honor, Laura Smith, of Baker City.

Grand lady of honor, Addie B. Colvig, of Jacksonville.

Grand chief of ceremonies, Sarah Fastaband, of Astoria.

Grand recorder, Ollie F. Stephens, of The Dalles.

Grand receiver, Mary Randall, of Portland.

Grand usher, Hattie E. McCormack, of Marshfield.

Grand inner watch, Harriet B. Davis, of Tillamook.

Representative, Wilda Belknap, Ollie F. Stephens and Maggie A. Barker. Alternates, Mammie W. Briggs, Kate J. Misner and Maggie Houston.

On behalf of the grand lodge, a beautiful set of silverware was presented to the retiring Grand Chief of Honor, Wilda Belknap, as a token of esteem in which she is regarded by her co-workers. Lovely bouquets were presented to each of the grand lodge officers.

J. F. Barker filed his final account as administrator of the estate of Anton Lee, deceased. Accepted, and he and his bondsmen released from any further liability.

Jas. H. Deering filed his final account as executor of the estate of Anton Lee, deceased. Accepted, and he and his bondsmen released from any further liability.

O. P. Coshov was appointed guardian of the person of Otto B. Drain, minor heir of the estate of John C. Drain, deceased.

K. L. Miller was appointed guardian of the person of Milo Atterbury, minor, who has an estate of the probable value of $500.

The University of Oregon.

The University of Oregon will open its 27th session at Eugene, Wednesday, September 17th. The outlook for the year seems at present, very promising. A number of new men have been added to the faculty, all thoroughly fitted both by preparation and by experience, for their work. The university buildings are being repaired and improved during the summer, the dormitory, gymnasium receiving especial attention.

Students intending to enter this fall are invited to correspond with the president relative to their work. Catalogues will cheerfully be sent on application.

A CROOK PRINTER.

Broke into Plaindealer's Safe and Carried off Bank Checks.

On last Tuesday a young, husky looking journeyman printer put in his appearance at the Plaindealer office and after relating the usual tale of woe was given a case in the composing room. He said he was lately from the East, but had worked a few days at Spokane and Walla Walla. He also said he secured a job's work in the Leader office at Cottage Grove. He stopped at Oakland, but secured no work and there treasurer of a great grudge against Brother Vernon of the Owl, for suggesting that he offer his services in some of the lay fields between Oakland and Roseburg where hands are in such great demand. On Wednesday evening we paid the fellow off and informed him that we could dispense with his services. It seems as if he remained about town Thursday watching for a chance to get out on the brakes of a south bound freight or passenger train, but failing to do so, he entered the Plaindealer office Thursday night by prying up a side window and finding the outside safe door unlocked he pried open the inner door and with a chisel broke open the cash drawer, in which (as might have been expected) was no currency, but a few warrants, money orders and small bank checks. Of these he only appropriated two bank checks, one for $3 on the Cottage Grove First National bank drawn in favor of the Plaindealer by the Helena Mining Co., of Helena, Idaho. The other was a $4 check drawn in favor of the Plaindealer by the Roseburg First National bank by G. Gilbertson of Glendale.

On Friday morning the crook presented the $3 check to Wm. Van Buren, of the Southern Union, with the story that he was working in the Plaindealer office and the editor gave him the check to apply on his salary. Mr. Van Buren noting that the check was not endorsed refused to accept it, but thinking little of the matter passed it by without further notice until Saturday when he heard of the burglary, at which time the crook printer was sojourning in some Southern Oregon town, while the editor of this paper up to that time was laboring under the impression that the checks would soon appear locally and would easily be traced up.

This crook printer was aged about 28 years, smooth faced, husky looking fellow, about five feet 11 inches, weight about 165 pounds. He wore black or brownish coat and vest and great pants, soft black hat and black shoes. He was a fairly good looking fellow and his hands showed little manual labor. He is probably the same chap who appropriated $4 from a young lady compositor's purse in the Cottage Grove Leader office last week.

CHASE ENDED IN WASHINGTON.

Pursuit of Tracy Has Cost Eight Counties $10,000.

TACOMA, July 19.—After just 40 days of continual pursuit by men and bloodhounds, all organized effort to capture Tracy, the escaped Oregon convict, has ended. Tracy may now be considered as any other fugitive from justice with a price on his head. Unless he desires to appear and declare himself, no further posse will start after him. To pursue Tracy through Clark, Corvallis, Lewis, Thurston, Pierce, Kitsap, Shoshonah and King counties has cost these counties $10,000.

In this state he has slain three officers desperately wounded one, who may not recover, and assassinated his jail and partner, Merrill. The fact that Oregon declines to pay Mrs. Wagner, of Chehalis, the reward for Merrill's body has done much toward the fat drop of the Tracy hunt.

Camas Valley.

Mr. Walter Ross has been in the valley for a short time past visiting with his sister, Mrs. Dick Standley.

Mrs. Polly Standley has been feeling very poorly for the past week or so but the last weekend she was feeling some better.

Haying is in full bloom in the valley now, but the strong south west wind we had Monday after noon drove some of the hay makers from the field.

Wilfred Down returned last week from his outing. He reports fine fishing in the lakes near the Bay. Wilfred has again resumed his pedagogical duties in the upper district.

Since our last writing our store keeper Mrs. De Groot has sold her stock of goods with store, dwelling house and other building to Messrs. Friend and Snyder. We understand that Mr. and Mrs. De Groot intend leaving for before long.

We are listening patiently for the foot of the first locomotive on the Coos Bay and Salt Lake R. R. but as yet have not heard B. However we are living in anticipation of that which we hope is soon to come. M. B.

Church Notice.

Burg, president of the Western Oregon Conference of Seventh Day Adventists, will hold meetings in the Baptist church in Roseburg, Friday evening July 26th at 8 p. m., Sabbath, Saturday, July 28th at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Bible study at 10 a. m. Sunday 2 p. m. July 27th preaching by Elder Burg. All are cordially invited to these services. Elder R. C. Taylor.

The Plaindealer Circulates.

Ivado, Wash., July 15, 1902.
Editor Roseburg Plaindealer—
I presume you are thinking me old in the Plaindealer as requested some time ago, as I have received numerous inquiries stating that they saw my ad. in your paper, but as yet I have not received your bill for service. Send me statement and oblige.

Yours truly,
T. H. Scantlin.

Milk, Milk, Milk.

The grade Dairy will furnish you bottled milk from July 15, 1902, 30c per quart and in addition to this buttermilk free.

We claim that under our process of straining, purifying and leading (which should be done with milk consumed) you get from twenty-five to fifty per cent more value for less money than any other milk delivery in the city affords. The milk delivered is in quality A 1 and guaranteed to give you entire satisfaction. As published on our former rate cards I allow one week's trial free of charge unless entirely satisfactory. If you think the above is overdrawn, may not give it a trial that we may demonstrate. Why not spend your money where your dollars go the farthest, and patronize a permanent business?
