ERNEST ABBOTT KILLED.

Was Crushed By A Log Rolling Over Him.

ACCIDENT WAS NEAR ANLAUF.

Was Formerly Proprietor of the Cottage Grove Hotel. Wife and One Child Survive Him.

A distressing and fatal accident occurred at Anlauf Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the victim being Ernest Abbott, late of Cottage Grove. It seems he was working in the logging or piling camp at Anlauf, and while engaged in felling trees on a mountain side a log rolled down upon him, crushing him so severely that death came to relieve his suffering two hours after the accident. He resided at Cottage Grove two years ago where he conducted the Cottage Grove Hotel. He was a good blacksmith and mechanic and a man held in high esteem. He was about 30 years old and leaves a wife and one child to mourn their sad loss. Funeral services were conducted at Cottage Grove today and the remains were laid to rest in the local cemetery.

A Pretty Wedding at Cottage Grove.

Cottage Grove was the scene of one of the sunniest of Summer church weddings Sunday, August 3, 1902. Miss L. Hatfield Orford and Harry C. Hart being the high contracting parties. At the conclusion of the evening sermon at the Methodist Episcopal church, the carriage bearing the bridal party arrived and as the chapel organ at which was seated Miss Nova Perkins, pealed forth the melodious strains of Wagner's wedding march, the bridal party was escorted into the chancel by the PLAIN DEALER editor and officiated up the aisle to the chancel rail, the bride leaning on the arm of her sister, Miss Lizzie who acted as bride's maid, while the groom closely followed, escorted by his best man, Attorney Alta H. King. Pretty decorations of ferns and evergreens were in evidence all about the chancel railing and as the bridal party approached Rev. Eugene F. Zimmerman, pastor of the church, stepped forward and conducted the beautiful and impressive ritualistic ceremony. The bride looked charming, attired in white silk organdie trimmed in lace and chiffon and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bridegroom was very becomingly gowned in white and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom and best man appeared in conventional black. At the conclusion of the pretty ceremony the bridal party retired to the church vestibule where they received the congratulations and best wishes of their large assemblage of friends as they retired from the church. With a number of relatives and intimate friends they then proceeded to the home of the bride where a few pleasant hours were spent in social converse and where dainty refreshments were served. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Orford of Cottage Grove and a niece of Mrs. W. C. Conner. She is an attractive young lady, possessed of many womanly graces and accomplishments. The groom is a very exemplary and popular young man, energetic and prosperous, the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hart of Cottage Grove. The bride and groom left this morning with a few relatives of the latter for Bohemia where a brief honeymoon will be spent and the stately and shady shells of this famous mining district. On their return they will be at home to friends in the cottage of the groom at Cottage Grove. The PLAIN DEALER joins with many friends in wishing the happy couple a pleasant and prosperous journey through life.

IN MEMORIAM.

GLENDALE, August 3, 1902.—Riley A. Holmes, the subject of this sketch was born in Howard County Missouri, February 16th 1818. He died at the family residence near Glendale, July 29, 1902. He was one of the first emigrants, having come to Oregon on the first emigrant train in 1843. He spent three years at the trading point at Oregon City. He then went back to the Sweet Water and Green River, where he lived for several years. During those years he was married to Margaret Houston, who was a niece of General Sam Houston, of Texas. The offspring of their marriage was five children, three of whom had preceded him to the better land, two sons, Miles and Simon Holmes, who are respected residents of our valley gave to their father the most devoted and loving attendance during his last long illness. And with that filial affection that is grand to look upon have tenderly cared for the aged father, and the idolized mother who still survives him.

As we gaze upon the aged wife bereft, we feel that she has lost the one love of her life and with a heart filled with human sympathy, we feel that they will not long be separated. And we know need her to him, who "Affect us" may in love. She knows in whom she has trusted. He has said "My strength is sufficient for thee." To the noble sons, who have won our highest esteem, by their tender loving care of their parents, we give a full measure of confidence and approval. As you mourn for the loss of the brave old pioneer, father, who is resting from his labors, you will only the more tenderly care for and cherish the beloved mother, whose whole life has been devoted to faithful toil and generous kindly deeds. May God in his goodness ever be present with this noble pioneer mother, this bereaved wife is our prayer. Appropriate and very impressive services were conducted at the home by the Rev. J. A. Blair after which the interment took place at the Fortuna New Cemetery on Fortuna Branch. A large assemblage of sorrowing friends were present to pay this last tribute of respect to another of our reserved and beloved pioneers. M. G. H. B.

INGRAM LEAVES HOSPITAL.

Convict Who Tried to Prevent the Escape of Tracy and Merrill.

SALEM, Aug. 2.—(Special.)—Frank Ingram, the prisoner who was shot by D. Merrill at the time of the outbreak at the Penitentiary, left the prison hospital today. His left leg was amputated above the knee, and he walks on crutches. As he is unable to make a living at present by working, he is rattling off a splendid set of steel hawthorn utensils made by him while confined in the Penitentiary. When his means will permit he will purchase an artificial limb and engage in some useful occupation. During his ten years' incarceration, Ingram learned the blacksmith's trade, but the loss of his limb will probably prevent him from continuing in that work. Ingram grappled with Merrill while the latter was in the act of firing at a prison guard and the bullet passed through his knee. His heroic act led to his pardon by the Governor, and won him the sympathy of the people. He is receiving temporary aid here from people, who are charitable disposed.
