Edward VII at Last Crowned King Of Great Britain--Tracy the Second Gives Trouble--Other Late News.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—King Edward and Queen Alexandra were crowned in Westminster Abbey, shortly after noon. Though the ceremony was bereft of some of the elaboration and pageantry originally contemplated, it lacked little in the way of spectacular perfection.

Each stage of the ceremony, with its Old World usages, furnished its quota of interest, while the interior of the noble church, filled as it was with officials in various capacities, with Princes and diplomatic officers in gold-laced uniforms, with heralds, pursuivants and other officers of state in medieval costumes, with peers and peeresses in rich robes, with Oriental potentates in many-hued raiment, with men of all types and all shades of complexion from distant points of the new-crowned monarch's empire, with its dazzling display of jewels and wealth of color, presented a picture which, in its combined brilliancy and distinction, has seldom been excelled.

The return journey of their majesties commenced at 1:23 p. m. As their majesties were leaving the Abbey rain commenced to fall and they deferred their departure until the rain ceased. They left at 2:05 p. m. The return journey, which was slow, was marked by scenes of enthusiasm. Their majesties arrived at the palace at 2:55 p. m.

ANOTHER TRACY IN EASTERN WASHINGTON. SPOKANE, Wn., Aug. 9.—Since the death of Outlaw Tracy some individual is imposing on the people of Eastern Washington, passing himself off as the famous bandit. It is said Tracy's double held up two farmers on Wednesday afternoon and at both places secured something to eat. At one place he took a saddle horse. The stranger first appeared on Wednesday evening at the farm of N. B. Gillman, two and a half miles south of Medical Lake, and on demanding it was given supper. He showed that he was a fine marksman by shooting at a target. He claimed to be the original Tracy. He was riding a horse and stayed till a confederate came along who called him by the name of Tracy. Later the same day he appeared near Cheney to get something to eat. There he again stole a saddle horse. It is reported the stranger carries a rifle and two revolvers.

AMERICANS AND JAPS MAY CLASH.

HONOLULU, Aug. 8.—According to the Honolulu men who are interested in the Marcus Island guano expedition, against which Japan has sent a war vessel, as reported by the last advices received here from the States, the vessel which left here for the island carried a complement of Manner rifles, and her captain has instruction from the company to plant the American flag on the island and keep it floating until compelled to haul it down. Captain A. A. Rosehill, the discoverer of the island, who left his claim to it on a coconut tree on Marcus in 1889, is in command of the expedition. The company's claim is based on his title, which is on record with the State Department at Washington. No intimation that the vessel left here with any arms on board was given out until the news was received that the Japanese Government had laid claim to the island, and had dispatched a war vessel there. Colonel Thomas Fitch then made public the instructions given to Captain Rosehill, which, while designed to prevent any conflict, were intended to compel the Japanese to allow the Americans to land, or use force to drive them away.

ATTORNEY GENERAL KNOX ASSAULTED.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Aug. 8.—Attorney General Knox while on his way to confer with the President before sailing for France to investigate the Panama canal route, stopped in a restaurant to dine when three trust magnates entered and began taunting him with vile language. Mr. Knox retired with his family, but immediately returned alone when one of the party, Chas. Schoen, of Pittsburg, attempted to assault him. Mr. Knox easily evaded him and the troublesome parties were taken in charge by the authorities. He said: "I understand that after I left the restaurant, at the conclusion of the difficulty, the waiters suppressed the crowd with some energy."

The Attorney-General evidently was not in the least injured by his assailants, and as he chatted about the trouble, did not seem to regret it very seriously.

Counted Out! Few people can understand the feeling of the pugilist as he is being counted out. He hears the seconds ticked off. He struggles to rise, but struggles in vain. He has lost the fight.

There are some who are making a losing fight for life that can appreciate this; those whose lungs are diseased. With every tick of the watch, they know that they are being counted out.

The great question is how can a quick rally be made to continue the fight against disease? Many who have asked that question have found a satisfactory answer in the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures bronchitis, obstinate, deep-seated coughs, hemorrhage, night-sweats, emaciation, and other conditions which if neglected or unskillfully treated may find a fatal termination in consumption.

When I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, writes Mr. John T. Reed, of Jefferson, Jefferson Co., Ark.: "I was very low with a cough, and could scarcely get up blood. I was not able to do any work at all. I was weak and my heart was filled. The first bottle I took did me so much good that I had faith in it and continued until I had taken a week's supply. Now I feel like a new man. I can do the same work as I was a year ago. People were astonished and said they did not think I could live. I can thankfully say that I can entirely cure of a disease from which many are not cured for your wonderful 'Discovery' I would have died!"
