COMPLIMENT FROM COOS.

Leading Republican Papers Endorses Messrs Bridges and Booth.

The appointment of receiver and register of the Roseburg land office is now occupying the attention of Oregon delegation as well as a half dozen applicants for the position. Messrs Bridges and Booth, the present incumbents, are after re appointment, and should they again be given the positions the appointments would give universal satisfaction. The manner in which the affairs of the offices have been conducted in he past is one of the strongest recommendations that can be brought forward. The past year has been one of unusual activity in the timber business and the pressure of the work at the land office has been great, yet there has been no complaint regarding the way the offices have been conducted.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

President Roosevelt's declaration on trusts and the Monroe Doctrine are both subjects of extensive comments in the London press. Discussion of the former matter centers less upon the intrinsic merits of the trust question than upon the outcome of the President's struggle with the party leaders. All the newspapers express admiration of President Roosevelt's courage and boldness, but hesitate to predict the result. The Daily News says: "Many chances are on Mr. Roosevelt's side. St. George goes out to meet the dragon and the wishes of the whole world will be with him in his fight."

The Sentinel was never an advocate of the special session, except jokingly in the interest of the Salem boarding house keepers. And the stated flat salary proposition it has a very cheap political buncombe. "Flat" salaries would mean a raise of all salaries now paid and there would be no incentive for anyone to collect fees and the state would be the loser in the end.—Salem Sentinel.

Our own Binger Hermann is with us again. It rejoices our souls no less than his that in Oregon rest the pillars of a fame that reach up even to the Nation's high councils. These were humble beginnings, here in Oregon, and we feel all the humbler when he deigns to move among us. It gratifies us also that we can be to him the means of higher greatness. —Portland Oregonian.

Today is labor day and will be observed with appropriate exercises in almost every city and town in the state, which will be the first general observance of the day in this state. Worthy is the brain, brawn and sinew of our land—the American laborer.

Conservative estimates place the attendance at the Wild West Show in Roseburg Saturday at from 6000 to 9000 people. It was the biggest day Roseburg has experienced in a decade.

At Waterville, Maine, last week President Roosevelt displayed much wisdom in an address in which he said: "I feel that the art of successful government is the art of applying, every day, principles of decency, morality and common sense. What we need is the application of everyday principles that a man needs if he is to make his business a success. The only permanent betterment in the conditions of any nation is to raise the standards of individual citizenship throughout that nation

We begin to think our esteemed friend, the editor of the Myrtle Point Enterprise should have been a preacher. He certainly would have been the whole thing at a big revival.

A man will go off on a little toot spend a hundred dollars and think nothing of it; but if he is required to pay four dollars, in taxes, he howls. A man is a queer animal.

Kansas was the first state to declare for Roosevelt for President in 1904, and this action was quickly followed by Pennsylvania, Missouri, Minnesota, Nebraska and Iowa.

The French are going to buy prunes of us this year. We can spare them some, and they will find them the best prunes they ever saw or tasted.

Free traders who say that trusts are the result of a protective tariff have not yet found an explanation for the countless British truses.

Crater Lake National Park.

Ashland, Aug., 29.—The Secretary of the Interior is preparing regulations for the government of the Crater Lake National Park, which will be promulgated within a week. When these regulations are completed steps will be taken looking to appointing a superintendent and such other officials as may be necessary to administer and care for the park. Until such officials are appointed, Forest Superintendent Ormsby will continue in authority as when the park was part of the Cascade reserve. It is not yet determined how many officials will be assigned to the park. W. F. Arant, who has been recommended by the Oregon delegation will no doubt be appointed to the position of the superintendent by the Secretary of the interior.

The Secretary of the Interior having been notified by mail that forest fires are burning along the borders of Crater Lake Park has wired instructions to Forest Superintendent Ormsby to employ such forces as is necessary to stamp out the blaze. Owing to the fact that the maximun price of $3 a day and subsistence has generally been demanded by those employed to put fires, the fund is fast becoming deplet, and disastrous results are feared. The department feels this labor is not worth the price, but that the Government is being "held up" because it will pay.

Mountain Lion Ate Horse

Harrisburg, Ore., Aug. 28.—Pleasure-seekers in the mountains near Belknap Springs had a thrilling adventure recently, according to Julien Ward, a farmer living near Coburg, who has just returned from the Springs. The persons in question, whose names were not learned, went for a watch at a deer lick, and in planning the ambuscade they tethered their pack-horse a short distance from where they lay in wait for the deer. The next morning when they went for their horse his clean-picked bones were found in testimony of a sumptuous feast by a mountain lion. The boldness of the attack, which occurred within 100 yards of where the hunters were lying, shows the desperation of these ferocious beasts when goaded by hunger.

THE WILD WEST SHOW.

Attracted Immense Crowds to Roseburg Saturday.

IT WAS A GRAND EXHIBITION.

Genuine Articles in the Aggregation as Advertised—No Humbugging—A Fine Parade.

Roseburg was in gala attire Saturday, and the residents of the City, together with those of the surrounding towns and those living on the rich farms of the Umpqua valley for miles upon miles in every direction and even from the adjoining counties were in town to view that greatest of all attractions, Buffalo Bill's Wild West and Congress of Rough Riders, billed to appear here in two performances, but owing to the long run from Roseburg to Redding the next stop for the big show, it was decided to cancel the evening exhibition, that six hours might be taken at Ashland in which to feed and give the stock recreation.

Every war since the Civil War—Colonel Cody himself is a veteran of the Civil War; there are survivors of all the Indian wars, and the European and African, Spanish-American and Philippine wars. The only sanguinary struggles of recent years, not represented, is the Chinese-Japanese war of a few years ago.

Among the attractions of interest is the old Deadwood stage, actually used on the Back Hills trail during the golden days of '77 and '78; and the mules and buckboard used by General Shafter in Cuba during the late war.

THE BIG PARADE.

The parade of the Wild West show which was watched by thousands of citizens and visitors Saturday in its course about the streets of Roseburg was a picture of realism—a show of a combination of men, instruments and maneuvers which are not seen but once in a lifetime. The pageant was a panorama of gennine participants in history—making events which are past. Col. Cody himself was here and created a murmur of admiration along the route. The drum corps from the army headed the parade. Real Cubans from the Queen of the Antilles trod the streets, followed by Mexicrn, German, Indian, Arab Russian, English and United States Rough Riders mounted on cavorting steeds and accompanied by three bands of stirring music General Shafter's historic old mule and buckboard, used by him in his famous Santiago campaign were an interesting feature. The detachment from the United States Life Saving marine service also attracted considerable attention. The Indians were also a great feature. The parade was about a half mile long. A free performance was given outside the tents after the parade.

AFTERNOON PERFORMANCE.

The vast crowd made its way to the baseball ground on Pine street early in the afternoon where a sea of canvas greeted them. The enclosure contained about five acres of ground surrounded by tiers of comfortable seats.

The exhibition was given complete and the great throng was perfectly satisfied with the magnificent performance.

The participants of the various thrilling scenes enter into the action with much more enthusiasm than mere stage trained menials would because it has been a part of their rerl life.

During the twenty years of its existence the Wild West has never presented a more thrilling and marvelous spectacle than in this year's program. Rough Riders of every country in the world are in its company, and our own Buffalo Bill, the greatest war scout in history leads them in every exhibition.

Colonel Cody's Wild West is a pictorial history of this country from the days of the savage redman to the present date, and includes in its company all races and nationalities identified with heroic horsemanship. No such practical lesson in this country's progress could be written in a thousand books. Fifteen different races and nations appear in their varied costumes.

During the almost incredible feats of horsemanship are shown Arabs, Indians, Cowboys, Cossacks, Mexicans, English, German, Rooseveltians, and other horsemen from every corner of the world. No circus ever seen compares with it and, best of all, everything offered is genuine, both men and animals. It is a truly awe-inspiring triumph of educational amusement.

The cowboys and vaqueros in the Buffalo Bill's Wild West outfit are as capable of doing as good work as is ever required in actual service on the range with the lariat. But however expertly a man may "rope and tie" a steer, that skill will not necessarily involve the ability to do such surprising things with the flying noose as are accomplished by by Signor Oropeza in the Wild West arena. In the hands of this Mexican artist the rope seems to be a living thing, moved simply by his volition. The great military drills of the foreign bodies of soldiers, the battle scenes, the the bucking horses, Indian war dances, and all the other well known features were seen.

John Baker, an expert marskman, is one of the most skillful fancy shots in this country. His trap shooting, executed in the most difficult positions and with lightning rapidity is truly remarkable, while the fashion in which he shatters flying glass balls shooting ricochet shots at them, or by reflection, or standing on his head, seems almost magical. The vast arena is too large for him to show his skill in shooting at very small objects, still or thrown in the air, but he does enough to prove himself a wonder.

COMPLAINT AGAINST OREGON.

China Takes Notice of Work of Mob in Malheur County Several Months Ago.

Washington, Aug. 30.—The Chinese Government, through its Legation here, has asked the State Department to see that justice is done by the State of Oregon to the Chinese who were attacked by rioters in Baker City, Or., on August 8. On that date about 50 Chinese, who were employed in this city, were attacked by a mob, three of them were shot and the remainder were driven out of the town and forbidden to return. The matter was promptly reported to the Chinese Legation by the nearest Chinese Consul, and the Legation authorities having awaited what they considered a reasonable time for some sign of activity on the part of the local authorities, have now presented the matter to the State Department, pointing out that they do so because the local authorities have shown no disposition to prosecute the offenders and make reparation. The department in following the usual course, forward the complaint to the Governor of Oregon, with the request for an explanation.

HISTORY OF THE ASSAULT.

Baker City, Or., Aug. 30.—The Chinese outrage referred to by the Chinese Government to the State Department occurred August 8, at the Morman Basin placer mine, which was leased by Chinamen. Twenty shacks were burned by robbers, supposed to live in the vicinity, and the Chinamen held up and robbed. Three Chinamen were badly injured. Mormon Basin is 50 miles from here, in Malheur County. The authorities there took no action. The District Attorney here was presented with a complaint at the time, but the matter was out of his jurisdiction. He notified the authorities of Malheur County, but nothing, so far as known, has been done to bring the guilty men to justice.

GEER ORDERS INVESTIGATION.

Salem, Or., Aug. 30.—When Governor T. T. Geer was shown the dispatch from Washington tonight regarding the complaint of the Chinese Minister in connection with the alleged attack of a mob on Chinese in Baker City, he stated he had received notice from the State Deartment at Washington and had at once ordered Captain Samuel White, District Attorney at Baker City, to investigate the charges thoroughly and bring the offenders, if any, to justice.
