U. S. Martin, the enterprising furniture dealer of Cottage Grove, was a Roseburg visitor Saturday. Mr. Martin had been enjoying a little vacation trip to Southern Oregon and stopped off in this city on his way home. He said he had not been able to see much of the country owing to the dense smoke. Roseburg, he says, presents the busiest scene of any of the Southern Oregon towns.

The big automobile in which G. W. Carmack and wife, of Seattle, are touring to San Francisco arrived in this city about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and after replenishing their gasoline tanks went on their way.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Langlois and baby of Fort Canby, Wash., who has been visiting Mrs. Langlois' father, Judge Hilde, at Aralia, arrived in this city Saturday and were the guests of Miss Addie Stewart, leaving Sunday morning for a visit in Coos county.

It is said that a crowd of young people were out walking one evening last week and as they found a grape patch, two of the young men climbed the fence to pick some of the grapes just because the ladies in the party wanted them. The third gentleman refused to pick any of the grapes, because he said, "I picked some watermelons after dark about a year ago and it cost me $$$."

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Labrie, of Douglas county, arrived in town Friday. Mrs. Labrie is a sister of D. G. Beale, and is interested in the large tract of unimproved bottom land opposite town, and they have come to join Mr. Beale in putting this land in cultivation. This will add materially to the productive area of our locality. They will live in the Knollin cottage being varated by Assessor Thrift.—Coquille Herald.

Ed. Wesver was down from Myrtle Creek Friday, and informed us that the prune drying season will open in earnest today. Several driers started up last week, but had to shut down for lack of ripe fruit. This is the latest season in the history of the prune industry for Myrtle Creek. If the fall rains keep off until late all will be well, but if not disaster to the prunes will follow. Pickers will receive 5 cents per bushel box this season. Dryer men will receive from $1.25 to $1.50 per day and board, and trayers, teamsters, graders and tree shakers from $1.00 to $1.25 per day and board.

Last Thursday evening, about ten miles above cow creek, John Gillham and Joe Brown, with their families drove to the old orchard back of the farm, to gather some fruit. Arriving there they found their usually gentle old cow with a young calf, which they proceeded to drive home. Mrs. Gillham who was not in the wagon at the time, and wearing a red apron, was attacked by the cow in a most vicious manner—knocking her down and stamping her body in a fearful manner. Although for a time her injuries were thought to be fatal, we are happy to state that her condition is now quite favorable.—Glenale News.

Mrs. R. E. Menson, of Seattle, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Hoover, in this city. We are sorry to here that Mrs. Hoover health has not improved, and her son, Dr. E. V. Hoover states her recovery is doubtful.

A prominent farmer dropped in the PLAINDEALER office last week to renew his subscription, and during his conversation he said: "It is a shame that a city of this size, with as large a surrounding farming country, does not have at least one public watering trough, to water their tired and thirsty steers when they come to town to trade." It is a good suggestion, now let our enterprising mechanics see that something is done toward it.

Mrs. J. B. Lewis and daughter, Miss Nettie Burdick, of Cottage Grove, were in attendance at the W. C. T. U. convention in Roseburg the latter part of the session. Miss Nettie was one of the four contestants for the grand gold medal and carried off second honors, while a large proportion of the audience were inclined to the opinion that she should have been awarded the medal, in fact the judges found considerable difficulty in rendering the final decision, the points made by the contestants being so nearly equal. This office was favored with a pleasant call by Mrs. Lewis and daughter.

Helen F. Barnett, a Pullman passenger on the California express, had a dressing case containing jewels and diamond valued at $4000, stolen from her berth some time Thursday night, while traveling between Portland and Roseburg. She was enroute to the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, from Portland.

On Friday the ladies dressing case or grip was found hiding in the lumber yard near the Roseburg depot by local officers, where it had been rifled of all its valuable contents, by the parties who stole it. It is likely the parties proceeded on their way South or else took the next train north with their lot.

W. C. T. U. Adjourns

The Convention held at Roseburg well attended and interesting.

The Thursday evening session of the W. C. T. U. convention was held in the opera house with the object of better accommodating the large crowds attending the evening sessions especially.

The feature of the session was the contest for the W. C. T. U. grand gold medal, open only to holders of a gold medal awarded in previous contests. The contestants were Miss Florence Burnett, of Wasco; Miss Nettie Burdick, of Cottage Grove; Miss Daisy Maiden, of Roseburg; Mrs. Amata Bradford, of Roseburg. The judges awarded the grand gold medal to Miss Burdick. The exercises were good and the decision was a close one for the judges. The door receipts amounted to over $35.

Miss Burnett was unfortunate in losing her old gold medal on the street before the opera house and the depot, and the finder will confer a favor by leaving same with Mrs. Marsters. Douglas county was awarded the fine membership banner.

Friday was the last day of the convention and reports of all departments were completed. The convention adopted strong resolutions in favor of total abstinence and prohibition, condemning the dispensary system and pleading renewed allegiance to legislative prohibition. Under the head of purity they resolved in favor of raising the age of protection for girls from 16 to 20 years, against any form of protection of the social evil, and condemning street fairs and the corrupting features of the midway as degenerating in the extreme, and in view of the approaching Lewis & Clark Fair whose highest excess they desire, calling upon all who love morality to aid in educating against these. They also resolved in favor of compulsory arbitration as the only successful means of protection for the general public.

The officers were re-elected. Some changes were made in the board of superintendents. Col. Schickel was at his best at the opera house Friday evening, and his address rounded out one of the most successful conventions of any kind ever held in the city.

Mrs. Urrah left Friday morning for her work in Nevada and Utah, where she is to hold the state convention in both states and hold series of meetings in the larger cities. A meeting is being arranged in the Salt Lake Tabernacle for her.
