LATEST NEWS.

In the Wake of the Flames--Bank Blown Up--An Alaska Gusher--Mrs. Waggoner Elopes

Reports of the great forest fires continue to come in and each successive bit of intelligence but adds to the tale of woe, ruin and disaster that reeks in the wake of the mighty sea of flame that warped miles of settlements and valuable timber in the atmosphere of destruction. Without doubt, reports of loss of life and property will pour in for weeks to come, as exploration of the burned districts continues. Vast areas of land in Clark County are divested of every semblance of human habitation and the shock to the rural districts is appalling. M. L. Smith, who arrived in Vancouver from the burning district Tuesday night reports that the bodies of six people have been found dead in a trail leading through a stretch of country about four miles wide, between the Canyon and Sauson Creeks, eight miles north of Bell's Mountain, and 15 settlers residing in that district are missing, a number of whom, if not all, have perished in the big fire. Mr. Smith says that the whole country in this region is wiped clean by the fire and practically every one living there has been rendered homeless. The 15 settlers referred to have not been accounted for, and the supposition is that they have perished. The report that six people have been found dead on a trail while fleeing from the flames is said to be given on good authority. Subsequent reports serve to show that the loss of life in the Bell's Mountain region is greater than was at first supposed.

BANK BLOWN TO SMITHEREENS.

SEATTLE, Sept. 17.—A special to the Times from Skagway, Alaska, says: At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon an unknown man walked into the Canadian Bank of Commerce, a revolver in one hand and a dynamite bomb in the other, and demanded $20,000 or threatened to blow all to eternity. Cashier Pooley and Teller Wallace were the only two in the bank. Wallace ducked to get his gun and ran quickly to the back of the room, yelling for Pooley to do the same. "No you don't," yelled the man, and dropped the bomb. The two clerks had by this time gotten out of the rear window. The bankroom was wrecked, the unknown had his head smashed and one arm torn off; a hole was torn in the right wall of the bank, the front windows were blown clear across the street, and money was scattered to the four winds.

ALASKA'S FIRST GUSHER.

SEATTLE, Sept. 17.—A special to the Times from Valdez, Alaska, says: The first flow of petroleum in Alaska was struck at Cotella on September 1 at a depth of 200 feet. The gusher took everything away and rose 150 feet before being finally capped. The oil is of good quality, being valued at $4 a barrel at the well.

MRS. WAGGONER ELOPES.

CHEHALIS, Sept. 16.—Chehalis has added another chapter to the famous Merrill-Tracy episode. As a closing chapter to the story of the finding of Dave Merrill's body near here a few weeks ago by Mrs. Mary Waggoner, of Napaevine, this one comes as a stunner. Mrs. Waggoner and Ben Merrill, a brother of the dead outlaw, have eloped from Chehalis together, and it is presumed are in Seattle together. Night Watchman Townsend and others saw them off. Mrs. Waggoner has a husband, David Waggoner, near Napaevine, where he works in a logging camp. She also has three married daughters. The woman does not appear to be over 40 years of age, but Merrill is younger, probably about 30.

REFUSES TO RECONSIDER.

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 17.—Speaker Henderson refused to reconsider his withdrawal from the Congressional race in the Third Iowa District. This morning the following telegraphic reply was received in response to a request to reconsider his action:

"Dubuque Ia., Sept. 16.—Messrs Lafe Young and S. W. Rathbun, Des Moines, Ia.—Your joint telegram sincerely appreciated, but cannot reconsider, for after an age spent in fighting for my country, state and district, I cannot acquiesce in administering free-trade poison to cure the trust evil, which I abhor. "D. B. HENDERSON."

A THOUSAND CHINESE BUTCHERED.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—A News Agency dispatch from Peking says Catholics here understand that from 300 to 1000 converts have been killed by Boxers in the province of See Chuen.

SHOT THROUGH HEART.

Col Griffin in Jail at Grant's Pass Charged With the Willful Murder of Edwin Johnson.

GRANT'S PASS, Sept. 16.—Parties arrived last night from Wabdo, and brought in details of the shooting affray that occurred there the night previous in which Edwin Johnson was killed by Col Griffin. The two men, with several others, had been drinking, and Johnson, being of a quarrelsome nature, tried to find trouble from various members of the crowd. Griffin was the only one who was prepared to accommodate him. Johnson called Griffin a few bad names, and on being told to shut up struck Griffin in the face. Griffin was armed with a revolver. On receiving the blow he drew his weapon and commenced firing. Johnson was unarmed, and attempted to flee. Griffin fired three shots. One of them pierced Johnson's heart, the second entered his side, and the third passed through his neck. Griffin gave himself up and awaited the arrival of the sheriff. A preliminary trial was held at Wabdo yesterday afternoon, and Griffin was bound over to await trial at the coming term of Circuit Court.

From the Glendale News.

Perry Beals visited here last Sunday. M. D. Zwiglit is building a new cottage in North Glendale. James Clemmens, our tenorial artist, is just completing his new residence on North Side. Many carloads of lumber are being continually shipped by the Glendale Lumber Co. to various points in California. David Kyle has just completed his labors as carpenter on the handsome parsonage of the Presbyterian church. C. E. Dougherty, whose ranch is one and one-half miles north of town is building a fine, large two-story dwelling. Miss Nora Miser, daughter of Postmaster Miser of Stereovut, is now attending to the duties of the Glendale postoffice.

Our two hotels are so crowded with guests that to advertise would prove a detriment rather than advantage at this time. What the town needs most is a good restaurant, and a practical person with a little capital could do well here in that line.

The Y flume of the Glendale Lumber Co. is soon to be extended from its present terminus, a quarter of a mile from the depot, to their grounds near the road fronting town. At the present terminus on the north bank of Cow Creek, the flume is about 25 feet above ground. The factory is to be built at the new terminus.

Business is quite lively about the Gold Bog and vicinity. The electric lights at the Gold Bog are quite brilliant. Things are stirring at the Benton mine. Dave Johnson has a flattering prospect on Reuben Creek; he has a small force of men employed and hopes to develop one of the best mines in Southern Oregon.

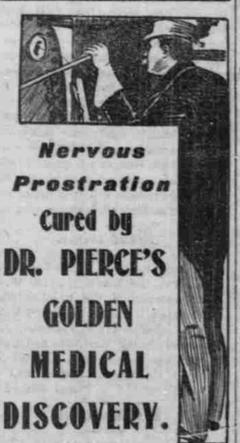

Cholly—May Gabble tells me you said Gussie Gayler and I would never find any girls to marry us because we are too fastidious.
Miss Peppery—There was a slight misunderstanding there. I said you were "two fast idiots."

Nervous Prostration Cured by DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

"I am an engineer by trade and the hard work and worry of running a large engine brought on nervous prostration," writes M. Chas. F. Dixon, of Arbutic, Colusa Co., Calif. "A friend recommended Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to me and I bought one bottle; thought that it helped me so continued the use of it until I had taken six bottles. I feel better than ever in my life. Am not a particle nervous, can work hard all day and sleep sound at night. I not only think so but I know that the Golden Medical Discovery cured me and therefore I will recommend it to others."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate the bowels and stimulate the sluggish liver.
