Church Panic Results in Great Loss of Life—General Miles at Astoria—Hanged Three Times.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 20.—The list of fatalities from the panic in the Shiloh negro Baptist church last night is constantly being added to. It is certain that one hundred were killed in the mad rush for the door when the word "fight" of a speaker was misconstrued for "fire."

Judge J. H. Ballou, of Baltimore, the lawyer who is said to have precipitated the panic by engaging in an altercation with Hicks' choir leader, has been arrested and is in jail charged with disturbing public worship.

Up to 10 o'clock, the number of dead had reached 110, and 60 of these have been identified. This makes an increase of 23 in the death list as given last night. A large majority of victims of the stampede were residents of Birmingham, and as fast as the undertakers can prepare their bodies for inspection they are being identified.
