

We Want to Save You Money

So while you are looking around the town doing your shopping you don't want to overlook the PEOPLES' STORE as we have the largest and most complete line of fall goods that has ever been shown in the town.

Ladies, We have all the latest weaves and colorings in tailor suitings, Long Coats, 3/4 length, Jackets and Capes. Our stock can't be beat for style, quality and prices. Our walking skirts are the most complete line in town ranging in prices from $1.50 and upwards. Taylor suits from $7.50 and upwards.

Gentlemen, Those of you wishing a new suit of clothes don't want to overlook us as our line is the David Adler & Sons goods, and in wear and fit we guarantee satisfaction.

Our Shoes, the noted W. L. Douglas shoes speak for themselves.

Neck Ware, always the latest and most up-to-date line in town.

The People's Store

I. ABRAHAM
Proprietor

One Door South of P. O.

CANNON'S Book and Stationery Store

A FINE LINE OF Leather Goods

Just received to which we would respectfully call your attention.

It embraces everything that is new and stylish in

Wrist Bags Chatelaines Purses, Etc.

in either Plain, Silver-Mounted or Mexican hand-carved work.

They are better than the ordinary kind, and are especially suitable for nice presents.

Call and see them. It's a pleasure to show goods.

BE YOUR OWN JUDGE

OF WHAT YOU BUY

All we ask is that you try our

PURE CANDIES

Ice Cream and Soda

Ice Cream Sandwiches

Latest Thing Out. Try them

WOOD & BELL, Proprietors

Phone Maine 183.

N. A. FOSTER & CO.,

GOVERNMENT LANDS

Of every description. Farms and Mineral Lands. Oregon, Washington and Minnesota.

OAKLAND, OREGON

Of Local Interest.

School books at Marster's Drug Store. Old iron is valuable. Save it, we will buy it.—Sykes & Carroll.

WANTED—A girl to do general house work. H. WOLLENBERG.

Make note of this—Dr. Lowe, the optician will be in Roseburg Oct. 13th, 14th and 15th.

A. Salzman, the jeweler, has just received a large line of elegant Seth Thomas mantle clocks. They are beautiful.

R. F. Swan, of Myrtle Creek, is in Marshfield looking over the field with a view to investing in city real estate.—Marshfield Sun.

C. F. Cathcart, formerly sheriff of this county, was in Roseburg Friday. He has been employed as station agent on the Central Pacific lines in Nevada but will probably be located at Wells hereafter, another point in that state.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Harpster, of Portland, are here for a visit with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Jones. Mr. Harpster is employed in the S. P. shops in East Portland. He will enjoy a few days' hunting during his vacation.

Miss Mary Hefty has been offered and accepted the school near Dixonville, and will begin her duties as teacher at an early date next month. The lady is a graduate of the Normal, and is a decidedly capable and efficient teacher and the Dixonville district is to be congratulated upon its good fortune.—Dixonville Nonpareil.

School books at Marster's Drug Store. Superintendent F. B. Hamlin is sending out to all the teachers of the county a printed circular showing the complete list of studies required in the public schools from the students' first to eighth year in school and the cost of each book to the pupil. It is a very convenient reference.

School supplies at Marster's Drug Store. Douglas County Creamery wants your cream and will pay highest cash prices or butter fat. Write for cream cans. Will furnish you Cream Separators that are second to none in Quality and Price on most any condition you may desire. The Sharpley Tubular Cream Separator leads. Douglas county creamery references, First National Bank and Douglas County Bank, Roseburg Oregon.

Farmers are rejoicing in the recent rains and hope that they may continue. Grass is starting and feed will soon help the price of butter to consumers. The farmers will make more, even if it sells for less per pound. One farmer said that he would make 100 pounds more butter per week, as measured in the cream and milk he sells, if we had a good week of rain.

Beach & Bowers' minstrels, as the aggregation of comedians is designated, certainly give a better show than any minstrel troupe which has been here this year and every one does his best to make the entertainment a success.—Portland Telegram. At Roseburg Oct. 1, under canvas on vacant lot just South of the Opera House.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cleveland, of Grants Pass arrived in this city Friday evening, from Tacoma, where they have been attending the Northwest Photographers' Convention. Mr. Cleveland was elected vice-president of the organization for Oregon, and also had the distinction of having several of his photographs selected to exhibit at the National Convention.

L. J. Sprengle of the real estate firm of Sprengle & Spaulding, of Seattle, Wash., was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday while in this city on business before the U. S. land office. Mr. Sprengle seems much interested in Roseburg and Douglas county, and says he will visit this city quite often in the future and expects to induce many people to locate here. He says he can do that conscientiously as he knows Roseburg will have a bright future. In order to keep posted on the progress of Roseburg, he added his name to the PLAINDEALER list.

See Hildebrand's fine big ad. A visit to this up-to-date store will convince you that it is the place to find the goods you want at prices to please you. A visit to this store Saturday evening revealed the fact that for neatness, systematic arrangement and effective display of goods Messrs. Hildebrand and Lawson are surely experts in the art.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cleveland, of Grants Pass arrived in this city Friday evening, from Tacoma, where they have been attending the Northwest Photographers' Convention. Mr. Cleveland was elected vice-president of the organization for Oregon, and also had the distinction of having several of his photographs selected to exhibit at the National Convention.

L. J. Sprengle of the real estate firm of Sprengle & Spaulding, of Seattle, Wash., was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday while in this city on business before the U. S. land office. Mr. Sprengle seems much interested in Roseburg and Douglas county, and says he will visit this city quite often in the future and expects to induce many people to locate here. He says he can do that conscientiously as he knows Roseburg will have a bright future. In order to keep posted on the progress of Roseburg, he added his name to the PLAINDEALER list.

School books at Marster's Drug Store. We buy old iron and pay the highest prices for the same.—Sykes & Carroll. Fred Laugh is re-shingling and repainting his residence on north Jackson street.

Marriage license has been issued to Henry Schmeisser and Cora Fuston of Roseburg.

Mrs. Dave Blake, who has been visiting Mrs. S. K. Sykes, rubber heels—in fact all the little shoe findings and requisites may be found in our stock, at Flints Shoe Store.

Mrs. H. Langhary left for her home in Portland Saturday morning after an extended visit with relatives in Looking Glass.

Shoe Findings—blackings, laces, button hooks, shoe-horns, rubber heels—in fact all the little shoe findings and requisites may be found in our stock, at Flints Shoe Store.

Mrs. Daisy Abraham and little daughter left for their home in Portland Saturday after a visit of several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Frater, of this city.

Miss Maudie Gintcheck, who has been spending the past summer with her cousin, Miss Mattie Daniels, of this city, returned to her home in Portland Sunday.

W. A. Burr has just received a fine new electric piano. The public is cordially invited to call at The Popular Music House in the Taylor & Wilson block and inspect it.

Mrs. L. Z. Hendricks has been released as administratrix of the estate of Samuel B. Hendricks, deceased, and her business exonerated from any further liability, the estate having been settled.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Deyos and baby, of Myrtle Point, are in Roseburg on their way to Albany and Portland to visit with relatives. Mr. Deyos is a prosperous young business man of Myrtle Point.

Roseburg Lodge No. 326, B. P. O. E., enlarged its membership roll last week by initiating five S. P. engineers into the order. They are R. H. McCale of Hornbrook, Calif., and J. J. O'Neill, J. G. Applegate, T. E. Luster and D. J. Gawler, of Astland.

A. E. Fisher, of Cleveland, accidentally shot himself through the left forefinger while cleaning a .38 caliber revolver Friday evening. The ball also passed through the clothing of a boy standing by, but no further damage was done. He came to town and Dr. Honck dressed the injury.

See Hildebrand's fine big ad. A visit to this up-to-date store will convince you that it is the place to find the goods you want at prices to please you. A visit to this store Saturday evening revealed the fact that for neatness, systematic arrangement and effective display of goods Messrs. Hildebrand and Lawson are surely experts in the art.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cleveland, of Grants Pass arrived in this city Friday evening, from Tacoma, where they have been attending the Northwest Photographers' Convention. Mr. Cleveland was elected vice-president of the organization for Oregon, and also had the distinction of having several of his photographs selected to exhibit at the National Convention.

L. J. Sprengle of the real estate firm of Sprengle & Spaulding, of Seattle, Wash., was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday while in this city on business before the U. S. land office. Mr. Sprengle seems much interested in Roseburg and Douglas county, and says he will visit this city quite often in the future and expects to induce many people to locate here. He says he can do that conscientiously as he knows Roseburg will have a bright future. In order to keep posted on the progress of Roseburg, he added his name to the PLAINDEALER list.

See Hildebrand's fine big ad. A visit to this up-to-date store will convince you that it is the place to find the goods you want at prices to please you. A visit to this store Saturday evening revealed the fact that for neatness, systematic arrangement and effective display of goods Messrs. Hildebrand and Lawson are surely experts in the art.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cleveland, of Grants Pass arrived in this city Friday evening, from Tacoma, where they have been attending the Northwest Photographers' Convention. Mr. Cleveland was elected vice-president of the organization for Oregon, and also had the distinction of having several of his photographs selected to exhibit at the National Convention.

L. J. Sprengle of the real estate firm of Sprengle & Spaulding, of Seattle, Wash., was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday while in this city on business before the U. S. land office. Mr. Sprengle seems much interested in Roseburg and Douglas county, and says he will visit this city quite often in the future and expects to induce many people to locate here. He says he can do that conscientiously as he knows Roseburg will have a bright future. In order to keep posted on the progress of Roseburg, he added his name to the PLAINDEALER list.

See Hildebrand's fine big ad. A visit to this up-to-date store will convince you that it is the place to find the goods you want at prices to please you. A visit to this store Saturday evening revealed the fact that for neatness, systematic arrangement and effective display of goods Messrs. Hildebrand and Lawson are surely experts in the art.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cleveland, of Grants Pass arrived in this city Friday evening, from Tacoma, where they have been attending the Northwest Photographers' Convention. Mr. Cleveland was elected vice-president of the organization for Oregon, and also had the distinction of having several of his photographs selected to exhibit at the National Convention.

L. J. Sprengle of the real estate firm of Sprengle & Spaulding, of Seattle, Wash., was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday while in this city on business before the U. S. land office. Mr. Sprengle seems much interested in Roseburg and Douglas county, and says he will visit this city quite often in the future and expects to induce many people to locate here. He says he can do that conscientiously as he knows Roseburg will have a bright future. In order to keep posted on the progress of Roseburg, he added his name to the PLAINDEALER list.

See Hildebrand's fine big ad. A visit to this up-to-date store will convince you that it is the place to find the goods you want at prices to please you. A visit to this store Saturday evening revealed the fact that for neatness, systematic arrangement and effective display of goods Messrs. Hildebrand and Lawson are surely experts in the art.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cleveland, of Grants Pass arrived in this city Friday evening, from Tacoma, where they have been attending the Northwest Photographers' Convention. Mr. Cleveland was elected vice-president of the organization for Oregon, and also had the distinction of having several of his photographs selected to exhibit at the National Convention.

L. J. Sprengle of the real estate firm of Sprengle & Spaulding, of Seattle, Wash., was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday while in this city on business before the U. S. land office. Mr. Sprengle seems much interested in Roseburg and Douglas county, and says he will visit this city quite often in the future and expects to induce many people to locate here. He says he can do that conscientiously as he knows Roseburg will have a bright future. In order to keep posted on the progress of Roseburg, he added his name to the PLAINDEALER list.

See Hildebrand's fine big ad. A visit to this up-to-date store will convince you that it is the place to find the goods you want at prices to please you. A visit to this store Saturday evening revealed the fact that for neatness, systematic arrangement and effective display of goods Messrs. Hildebrand and Lawson are surely experts in the art.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cleveland, of Grants Pass arrived in this city Friday evening, from Tacoma, where they have been attending the Northwest Photographers' Convention. Mr. Cleveland was elected vice-president of the organization for Oregon, and also had the distinction of having several of his photographs selected to exhibit at the National Convention.

L. J. Sprengle of the real estate firm of Sprengle & Spaulding, of Seattle, Wash., was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday while in this city on business before the U. S. land office. Mr. Sprengle seems much interested in Roseburg and Douglas county, and says he will visit this city quite often in the future and expects to induce many people to locate here. He says he can do that conscientiously as he knows Roseburg will have a bright future. In order to keep posted on the progress of Roseburg, he added his name to the PLAINDEALER list.

See Hildebrand's fine big ad. A visit to this up-to-date store will convince you that it is the place to find the goods you want at prices to please you. A visit to this store Saturday evening revealed the fact that for neatness, systematic arrangement and effective display of goods Messrs. Hildebrand and Lawson are surely experts in the art.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cleveland, of Grants Pass arrived in this city Friday evening, from Tacoma, where they have been attending the Northwest Photographers' Convention. Mr. Cleveland was elected vice-president of the organization for Oregon, and also had the distinction of having several of his photographs selected to exhibit at the National Convention.

L. J. Sprengle of the real estate firm of Sprengle & Spaulding, of Seattle, Wash., was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday while in this city on business before the U. S. land office. Mr. Sprengle seems much interested in Roseburg and Douglas county, and says he will visit this city quite often in the future and expects to induce many people to locate here. He says he can do that conscientiously as he knows Roseburg will have a bright future. In order to keep posted on the progress of Roseburg, he added his name to the PLAINDEALER list.

See Hildebrand's fine big ad. A visit to this up-to-date store will convince you that it is the place to find the goods you want at prices to please you. A visit to this store Saturday evening revealed the fact that for neatness, systematic arrangement and effective display of goods Messrs. Hildebrand and Lawson are surely experts in the art.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cleveland, of Grants Pass arrived in this city Friday evening, from Tacoma, where they have been attending the Northwest Photographers' Convention. Mr. Cleveland was elected vice-president of the organization for Oregon, and also had the distinction of having several of his photographs selected to exhibit at the National Convention.

L. J. Sprengle of the real estate firm of Sprengle & Spaulding, of Seattle, Wash., was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday while in this city on business before the U. S. land office. Mr. Sprengle seems much interested in Roseburg and Douglas county, and says he will visit this city quite often in the future and expects to induce many people to locate here. He says he can do that conscientiously as he knows Roseburg will have a bright future. In order to keep posted on the progress of Roseburg, he added his name to the PLAINDEALER list.

See Hildebrand's fine big ad. A visit to this up-to-date store will convince you that it is the place to find the goods you want at prices to please you. A visit to this store Saturday evening revealed the fact that for neatness, systematic arrangement and effective display of goods Messrs. Hildebrand and Lawson are surely experts in the art.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cleveland, of Grants Pass arrived in this city Friday evening, from Tacoma, where they have been attending the Northwest Photographers' Convention. Mr. Cleveland was elected vice-president of the organization for Oregon, and also had the distinction of having several of his photographs selected to exhibit at the National Convention.

L. J. Sprengle of the real estate firm of Sprengle & Spaulding, of Seattle, Wash., was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday while in this city on business before the U. S. land office. Mr. Sprengle seems much interested in Roseburg and Douglas county, and says he will visit this city quite often in the future and expects to induce many people to locate here. He says he can do that conscientiously as he knows Roseburg will have a bright future. In order to keep posted on the progress of Roseburg, he added his name to the PLAINDEALER list.

See Hildebrand's fine big ad. A visit to this up-to-date store will convince you that it is the place to find the goods you want at prices to please you. A visit to this store Saturday evening revealed the fact that for neatness, systematic arrangement and effective display of goods Messrs. Hildebrand and Lawson are surely experts in the art.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cleveland, of Grants Pass arrived in this city Friday evening, from Tacoma, where they have been attending the Northwest Photographers' Convention. Mr. Cleveland was elected vice-president of the organization for Oregon, and also had the distinction of having several of his photographs selected to exhibit at the National Convention.

L. J. Sprengle of the real estate firm of Sprengle & Spaulding, of Seattle, Wash., was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday while in this city on business before the U. S. land office. Mr. Sprengle seems much interested in Roseburg and Douglas county, and says he will visit this city quite often in the future and expects to induce many people to locate here. He says he can do that conscientiously as he knows Roseburg will have a bright future. In order to keep posted on the progress of Roseburg, he added his name to the PLAINDEALER list.

See Hildebrand's fine big ad. A visit to this up-to-date store will convince you that it is the place to find the goods you want at prices to please you. A visit to this store Saturday evening revealed the fact that for neatness, systematic arrangement and effective display of goods Messrs. Hildebrand and Lawson are surely experts in the art.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cleveland, of Grants Pass arrived in this city Friday evening, from Tacoma, where they have been attending the Northwest Photographers' Convention. Mr. Cleveland was elected vice-president of the organization for Oregon, and also had the distinction of having several of his photographs selected to exhibit at the National Convention.

L. J. Sprengle of the real estate firm of Sprengle & Spaulding, of Seattle, Wash., was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday while in this city on business before the U. S. land office. Mr. Sprengle seems much interested in Roseburg and Douglas county, and says he will visit this city quite often in the future and expects to induce many people to locate here. He says he can do that conscientiously as he knows Roseburg will have a bright future. In order to keep posted on the progress of Roseburg, he added his name to the PLAINDEALER list.

See Hildebrand's fine big ad. A visit to this up-to-date store will convince you that it is the place to find the goods you want at prices to please you. A visit to this store Saturday evening revealed the fact that for neatness, systematic arrangement and effective display of goods Messrs. Hildebrand and Lawson are surely experts in the art.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cleveland, of Grants Pass arrived in this city Friday evening, from Tacoma, where they have been attending the Northwest Photographers' Convention. Mr. Cleveland was elected vice-president of the organization for Oregon, and also had the distinction of having several of his photographs selected to exhibit at the National Convention.

L. J. Sprengle of the real estate firm of Sprengle & Spaulding, of Seattle, Wash., was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday while in this city on business before the U. S. land office. Mr. Sprengle seems much interested in Roseburg and Douglas county, and says he will visit this city quite often in the future and expects to induce many people to locate here. He says he can do that conscientiously as he knows Roseburg will have a bright future. In order to keep posted on the progress of Roseburg, he added his name to the PLAINDEALER list.

See Hildebrand's fine big ad. A visit to this up-to-date store will convince you that it is the place to find the goods you want at prices to please you. A visit to this store Saturday evening revealed the fact that for neatness, systematic arrangement and effective display of goods Messrs. Hildebrand and Lawson are surely experts in the art.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cleveland, of Grants Pass arrived in this city Friday evening, from Tacoma, where they have been attending the Northwest Photographers' Convention. Mr. Cleveland was elected vice-president of the organization for Oregon, and also had the distinction of having several of his photographs selected to exhibit at the National Convention.

L. J. Sprengle of the real estate firm of Sprengle & Spaulding, of Seattle, Wash., was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday while in this city on business before the U. S. land office. Mr. Sprengle seems much interested in Roseburg and Douglas county, and says he will visit this city quite often in the future and expects to induce many people to locate here. He says he can do that conscientiously as he knows Roseburg will have a bright future. In order to keep posted on the progress of Roseburg, he added his name to the PLAINDEALER list.

School books at Marster's Drug Store. Miss Margie McDougal has returned from a visit to Portland.

Hon. A. M. Matson, of Kiddle, is in Roseburg today.

Miss Elva Wimberly, has returned from Grants Pass.

Emer Wimberly, has returned from a "Bying" trip to Eugene.

Mrs. Wm. Van Buren, is reported ill at her home in this city.

Jas. Dixon, who has been spending the summer at Alberta, Canada, has returned home.

Jas. Ross, of the Oregon Soldiers home, has returned from a visit to Gold Hill.

Miss Emma Smith and Mae Fisher have returned from a short visit at Dillard.

Mrs. W. C. Conner and little son, Clare, returned home last evening after a two weeks enjoyable visit at Cottage Grove and Saginaw.

J. A. and S. C. Endicott, of Myrtle Point, passed through Roseburg Saturday, on their way to Portland to attend the Oregon University. W. H. Brock brought them out here returning the next day.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. West spent Sunday and part of today at the old home farm down the Umpqua. Dave tried his hand at fishing and brought home a very long string of prevarications, also nine salmon trout—one 17 inches in length. We were not informed as to what he paid for them.

Geo. Lee, of Cottage Grove, owner of the rock crusher used in preparing the dressing for Roseburg's street improvement, spent Friday and Saturday in Roseburg, negotiating the sale of his crusher to the county court. It would not doubt be a good investment for the county. Lane county has two fine crushers which it furnishes free to the farmers to work out their road assessments with. Eugene and the other towns of the county are required to pay $9 per day for the use of either crusher.

School books at Marster's Drug Store.

J. F. Marsters, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who a few months ago, purchased the old Flourney farm of 680 acres in Flourney valley, arrived here Thursday with his family to take possession. His son, James Marsters, Jr., also arrived with his family. They have two cars of registered Durham or Short horn cattle and some fine hogs which are expected to arrive very soon. Both the father and son are active and experienced business men and command considerable means. We join in welcoming the family to our county and their coming will doubtless prove a valuable acquisition to the fine livestock interests of the county.

Hon. D. S. K. Buick was instrumental in locating the Messers Marsters here, and in company with these gentlemen made the PLAINDEALER a very pleasant call Saturday.

The editor, accompanied by Henry Richardson, called on "Farmer" Brown, more familiarly known as District Attorney Geo. M. Brown, at his beautiful, productive farm near the Soldiers Home Sunday. We found the attorney-farmer, out in his fine little vineyard, comprising about one-half acre, and were invited to partake of the luscious fruit hanging in great clusters from the thrifty young vines. The fine water and musk melon patch was our next objective point and a rare treat was here enjoyed. Next we viewed Mr. Brown's fine peach, prune and winter apple orchards which are very thrifty and well kept and we were informed that he will make a 10 acre addition to his winter apple orchard before the close of another season. On this ideal little farm could also be seen some fine registered short horn and Jersey cattle and a stroll about the place soon convinces one that Mr. Brown is fully as well up in agricultural and horticultural parlance as in the legal profession.

School books at Marster's Drug Store.

J. F. Marsters, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who a few months ago, purchased the old Flourney farm of 680 acres in Flourney valley, arrived here Thursday with his family to take possession. His son, James Marsters, Jr., also arrived with his family. They have two cars of registered Durham or Short horn cattle and some fine hogs which are expected to arrive very soon. Both the father and son are active and experienced business men and command considerable means. We join in welcoming the family to our county and their coming will doubtless prove a valuable acquisition to the fine livestock interests of the county.

Hon. D. S. K. Buick was instrumental in locating the Messers Marsters here, and in company with these gentlemen made the PLAINDEALER a very pleasant call Saturday.

The editor, accompanied by Henry Richardson, called on "Farmer" Brown, more familiarly known as District Attorney Geo. M. Brown, at his beautiful, productive farm near the Soldiers Home Sunday. We found the attorney-farmer, out in his fine little vineyard, comprising about one-half acre, and were invited to partake of the luscious fruit hanging in great clusters from the thrifty young vines. The fine water and musk melon patch was our next objective point and a rare treat was here enjoyed. Next we viewed Mr. Brown's fine peach, prune and winter apple orchards which are very thrifty and well kept and we were informed that he will make a 10 acre addition to his winter apple orchard before the close of another season. On this ideal little farm could also be seen some fine registered short horn and Jersey cattle and a stroll about the place soon convinces one that Mr. Brown is fully as well up in agricultural and horticultural parlance as in the legal profession.

School books at Marster's Drug Store.

J. F. Marsters, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who a few months ago, purchased the old Flourney farm of 680 acres in Flourney valley, arrived here Thursday with his family to take possession. His son, James Marsters, Jr., also arrived with his family. They have two cars of registered Durham or Short horn cattle and some fine hogs which are expected to arrive very soon. Both the father and son are active and experienced business men and command considerable means. We join in welcoming the family to our county and their coming will doubtless prove a valuable acquisition to the fine livestock interests of the county.

Hon. D. S. K. Buick was instrumental in locating the Messers Marsters here, and in company with these gentlemen made the PLAINDEALER a very pleasant call Saturday.

The editor, accompanied by Henry Richardson, called on "Farmer" Brown, more familiarly known as District Attorney Geo. M. Brown, at his beautiful, productive farm near the Soldiers Home Sunday. We found the attorney-farmer, out in his fine little vineyard, comprising about one-half acre, and were invited to partake of the luscious fruit hanging in great clusters from the thrifty young vines. The fine water and musk melon patch was our next objective point and a rare treat was here enjoyed. Next we viewed Mr. Brown's fine peach, prune and winter apple orchards which are very thrifty and well kept and we were informed that he will make a 10 acre addition to his winter apple orchard before the close of another season. On this ideal little farm could also be seen some fine registered short horn and Jersey cattle and a stroll about the place soon convinces one that Mr. Brown is fully as well up in agricultural and horticultural parlance as in the legal profession.

School books at Marster's Drug Store.

J. F. Marsters, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who a few months ago, purchased the old Flourney farm of 680 acres in Flourney valley, arrived here Thursday with his family to take possession. His son, James Marsters, Jr., also arrived with his family. They have two cars of registered Durham or Short horn cattle and some fine hogs which are expected to arrive very soon. Both the father and son are active and experienced business men and command considerable means. We join in welcoming the family to our county and their coming will doubtless prove a valuable acquisition to the fine livestock interests of the county.

Hon. D. S. K. Buick was instrumental in locating the Messers Marsters here, and in company with these gentlemen made the PLAINDEALER a very pleasant call Saturday.

The editor, accompanied by Henry Richardson, called on "Farmer" Brown, more familiarly known as District Attorney Geo. M. Brown, at his beautiful, productive farm near the Soldiers Home Sunday. We found the attorney-farmer, out in his fine little vineyard, comprising about one-half acre, and were invited to partake of the luscious fruit hanging in great clusters from the thrifty young vines. The fine water and musk melon patch was our next objective point and a rare treat was here enjoyed. Next we viewed Mr. Brown's fine peach, prune and winter apple orchards which are very thrifty and well kept and we were informed that he will make a 10 acre addition to his winter apple orchard before the close of another season. On this ideal little farm could also be seen some fine registered short horn and Jersey cattle and a stroll about the place soon convinces one that Mr. Brown is fully as well up in agricultural and horticultural parlance as in the legal profession.

School books at Marster's Drug Store.

J. F. Marsters, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who a few months ago, purchased the old Flourney farm of 680 acres in Flourney valley, arrived here Thursday with his family to take possession. His son, James Marsters, Jr., also arrived with his family. They have two cars of registered Durham or Short horn cattle and some fine hogs which are expected to arrive very soon. Both the father and son are active and experienced business men and command considerable means. We join in welcoming the family to our county and their coming will doubtless prove a valuable acquisition to the fine livestock interests of the county.

Hon. D. S. K. Buick was instrumental in locating the Messers Marsters here, and in company with these gentlemen made the PLAINDEALER a very pleasant call Saturday.

The editor, accompanied by Henry Richardson, called on "Farmer" Brown, more familiarly known as District Attorney Geo. M. Brown, at his beautiful, productive farm near the Soldiers Home Sunday. We found the attorney-farmer, out in his fine little vineyard, comprising about one-half acre, and were invited to partake of the luscious fruit hanging in great clusters from the thrifty young vines. The fine water and musk melon patch was our next objective point and a rare treat was here enjoyed. Next we viewed Mr. Brown's fine peach, prune and winter apple orchards which are very thrifty and well kept and we were informed that he will make a 10 acre addition to his winter apple orchard before the close of another season. On this ideal little farm could also be seen some fine registered short horn and Jersey cattle and a stroll about the place soon convinces one that Mr. Brown is fully as well up in agricultural and horticultural parlance as in the legal profession.

School books at Marster's Drug Store.

J. F. Marsters, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who a few months ago, purchased the old Flourney farm of 680 acres in Flourney valley, arrived here Thursday with his family to take possession. His son, James Marsters, Jr., also arrived with his family. They have two cars of registered Durham or Short horn cattle and some fine hogs which are expected to arrive very soon. Both the father and son are active and experienced business men and