TO OUR PATRONS AND FRIENDS.
With this issue of the PLAINDEALER, Mr. H. H. Brookes, a veteran newspaper man and editor, of Amarillo, Texas, becomes associated with us in the publication of the paper and the business of the office. The new partnership or firm will be styled, The PLAINDEALER Publishing Co., Brookes & Conner, Editors and Proprietors. Mr. Brookes, under this new order of things, will become editor in chief of the PLAINDEALER, while the writer will act in the capacity of associate editor and business manager. All debts contracted by the old management prior to Oct. 1, 1902, are assumed by the writer and will be paid by him upon presentation of bill, while all old outstanding accounts are now due and payable at this office in order that the old books may be closed and a complete new set opened at once.

A comparison of the paper, business and office equipment today with what it was when the writer assumed its management three years ago, will show remarkable strides forward and marked improvements in every department of the office and business. Much new and valuable type and machinery has been added to the plant, our subscription list has been increased 23 per cent and the job printing and advertising patronage of the office and paper has more than doubled. Where one man was employed in our mechanical department three years ago, three job printers can barely handle the business today. This condition is most gratifying to the writer, who, however, feels assured that by far greater improvements and progress will be noted in the paper, plant and business in a few months under the new and during the entire three years under the old management.

In conclusion we wish to say that Mr. Brookes' identity with the firm and paper will be noted at once by our many readers, and he will be glad to meet and make the acquaintance of the PLAINDEALER's many old, as well as newly acquired friends and patrons.
Thanking our host of staunch friends and patrons who have stood by us so loyally in the past and soliciting a continuance of their good will and patronage as well as a liberal share of the patronage of the many energetic and wide-awake business people who are rapidly filling our town and county, we remain as ever,
Yours Respectfully,
W. C. CONNER.

TO OUR NEW FRIENDS.
In assuming charge of the editorial columns of this paper, we do so with a great deal of diffidence, because we are a stranger in a strange land, but never was a stranger more kindly received than we have been, for which we return our heartfelt thanks. As to the future policy of the PLAINDEALER under our administration, it will be unfinching and truly a republican newspaper with opinions of its own to express regarding men and measures; and our effort will be to build it up so that it shall by merit be regarded the leading republican paper of Southern Oregon. At the same time special attention will be given to building up and fostering every legitimate enterprise and in every question of moment before the public, the PLAINDEALER will speak out in no uncertain sound. In dealing with every subject of interest we shall endeavor to give facts, or what we honestly believe to be facts; and should we make a mistake we will most willingly correct the same and give no great prominence to the correction as had been given to the article calling for correction. Regarding news items or affairs belonging to the public, please do not ask us to refrain from "mentioning it" in the columns of the paper, for we cannot do so, for that is what our readers pay for, and to a great extent it is our stock in trade, and it is about what or sinner, night-millionaire or beggar, if it is a good news item we will publish it if it brought to our attention, for nine times out of ten the paper that does not publish a news item is scooped by the "bad newspaper man across the street."

Regarding the office equipment and so forth, it is the intention of the new partnership to put in entirely new presses of modern make that will do the work for a city five times as large as Roseburg. In fact, we are going to anticipate, in the office equipment, what Roseburg will be in a short time.
Then there is a little matter we want to explain, and that is, please remember that we are a stranger, that every citizen can know and remember our name and face at first sight, but we have a failure of eyesight, so that to remember the faces and names of hundreds of citizens will take us some time to accomplish. Now, if we fail to remember you please remember that it is our affliction and do not fail to speak to us time and time again until we thoroughly know your names; and again thanking you for many favors since coming among you

I am sincerely
H. H. BROOKES.

Councilman Fred Merrill's resolution fell flat in Portland, but has aroused the citizens of the Metropolitan area. The powerful machinery of municipal government is in action. All the departments are in hearty co-operation, and are of one sentiment in relation to the vexatious gambling problem. The ordinance must be enforced and the evil wiped out. Judge Hogue has put himself on record as being in favor of using the most drastic measures possible to discourage the vice. The Public Prosecutor's office is in favor of the most vigorous action. The police will exercise all possible vigilance in the future. The Grand Jury is in session and from information secured from persons in a position to know will make a thorough investigation of the charges of graft made by Councilman Merrill. The law abiding citizens and prominent business men of the city are aroused. They want the matter sifted to the bottom and, if evidence of corruption is brought out, want the guilty punished. What they demand is vindication of past charges, and surety that the law will be enforced in the future.

The various railroads entering and doing business in Washington, it is announced have decided not to issue any more passes to spellbinders or campaign managers. This is a step in the right direction and if carried a little further and order that no pass be issued to any legislator state official, judge or any man in an office of public emolument or trusts there would be a better feeling in favor of railroads. The PLAINDEALER would make it an offense against the law of the state for any state official, legislator, senator or judge of a court of record to solicit accept or ride on a pass over any railroad in Oregon. If all the dead heads or dead beats riding over the railroads paid fare, then the railroads could pay their tax proportion to taxation and have money to spare, and the tax payers burdens would be made lighter. Every man traveling on a railroad should pay in some way or other a just and equitable fare.

The PLAINDEALER, as announced elsewhere will put in new presses, type and material and will equip the office to such an extent that it will be a credit to a city of 10,000 people. This is one time that the PLAINDEALER will lead and force others to keep up in the procession. This is done because we know that such an office will be needed in the near future. Bah for Roseburg.

A Republican policy has let light of civilization in upon the benighted Philippines and already the improved condition of the Filipinos causes them to raise up and call us blessed. Even Aguinaldo has had the scales of Bravism brushed from his eyes and now sees in American dominion the salvation of his people.

The stock men and farmers are ready for the rains, but the prairie growers and District Fair directors are not and for their sake we will request the weather clerk to hold off the gentle mists just a little while longer.

HOMESTEAD LANDS IN DOUGLAS

Room for 5,000 Sturdy Farmers and Land to Locate Them On.

During the next few months there will be a tremendous rush to secure government lands in Coos, Douglas and Klamath counties. In these counties there is the choicest agricultural and timber lands to be found unoccupied and free to locate upon in the State of Oregon; and while Eastern, Northern and the Central western parts of the state have had their booms and millions of acres of land has been located and thousands of happy, peaceful, prosperous homes established, the great, grand and glorious southwest has been like the wine at the marriage feast at Cana, of which it was said that the best had been kept to the last; and this statement if applied to the lands tributary to the Southern Pacific railroad is literally true. To the east and west of this em- terring road can be found thousands of quarter sections of land where any man with a small amount of means could make a home for himself and family. It is true that it will require work and lots of hard work in many places to transform the land from its present state into farming land, but when once the land is cleared the crop returns are enormous. There are many claims, yes hundreds of them, where the land alternates between heavy timbered land to an almost treeless prairie, but this land is ten to thirty miles away from the railroad. On such land just as soon as a man has built a home to shelter his family he can go to work and break up the land and plant crops. This land is as fertile and productive as the valley land of the Nile and will produce abundantly many semi-tropical and all the crops known to grow in the temperate zone. But we always get off the track when we have a chance to write about homes for the homeless and set before men facts which if grasped will make them the backbone of American civiliza-

NEW RAILROAD DEVELOPMENTS

The Coos Bay, Roseburg & Eastern Absorbed by Great Central.

It is now reported upon good authority that the transfer of the Coos Bay, Roseburg & Eastern Railroad, now in operation from Coos Bay to Myrtle Point, has been effected to the Great Central Railroad Company and that orders have been sent out to the surveying party in the field for the settling of permanent stakes between Myrtle Point and Roseburg. H. D. Jerritt, the assistant general engineer of the party, is in charge of operations. The work is progressing at a satisfactory pace, and it is stated that the settling of stakes will proceed without interruption through the mountains until a surveying party from the Salt Lake end of the line is met.
A gang of surveyors left Marshfield, Friday, for Myrtle Point to join those already in the field. They will work on the projected Great Central railroad survey between Roseburg and Myrtle Point, beginning at the latter place and making permanent surveys and staking the roadbed until they meet with a gang from the East end.
Since depot grounds were secured at Roseburg for the Great Central railway from Salt Lake to Coos Bay, developments have been progressing much more rapidly. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Linsley arrived here from Portland Saturday, Mr. Linsley coming as a representative of Chief Engineer Kinney to secure quarters and open offices here, and he will remain in charge of a resident engineer. Mr. Linsley states that Major Kinney will come to Roseburg early this week, and as soon as the necessary details and preliminaries can be arranged engineers will be put into the field locating the line of the new road, both east and west of Roseburg.
This is certainly very gratifying information, as it indicates that the time is not far distant when the long wished for direct railway communication with coast there, within a reasonable time after the accomplishment of this much desired object, the road is to be completed through to an eastern connection, thus making Roseburg the junction of two transcontinental railway lines and fixing permanently its position as the metropolitan business center of Southern Oregon.
Our people gladly welcome the building of the new railroad as its advent will doubtless bring to our city and county a large increase of population and business as well as the establishment of many new enterprises, manufacturers, etc., and bring about a speedy development of our great and varied resources.

OIL STRUCK AT MYRTLE CREEK

Umpqua Valley Oil Co. Striks Oil at a Depth of 1600 Feet.

(SPECIAL TO PLAINDEALER.)
MYRTLE CREEK, Oct. 6.—Great excitement has prevailed here the last two days, parties having been engaged in gathering up the crude oil of the prairie and burning it, greasing shoes, harness, etc. The oil runs down from the pumping plant of the Umpqua Valley Oil Company. The flow is increasing every day. The depth now is over 1600 feet and oil in abundance is expected before a very much greater depth is reached.
In addition to the above we are in a position to state that Secretary Marsh-ter, of the Oil Company, received a large bottle of crude oil from the well at Myrtle Creek Saturday, which he exhibited at this office, and which seems to be of a fine quality. It was not expected that oil would be struck at this well under 2000 feet, hence this fine showing at only 1600 feet is very encouraging, and great developments seem practically assured when a depth of a few more hundred feet is reached. It is also an assured fact that with a paying oil well at Myrtle Creek, other localities in this county in which a like formation is found will surely produce oil in paying quantities. This is the first Oregon oil well in reality as well as name.

Carrie Nation at Yale.
NEW HAVEN, Sept. 30.—Mrs. Carrie Nation was on the program for an address to Yale University students here today. The students laughed her down at every attempt to proceed till she finally left the platform in despair.

His Life in Peril.
"I just seemed to have gone all to pieces," writes Alfred Bee, of Wellfare, Tex., "illnesses and a lame back had made life a burden. I couldn't eat or sleep and felt almost too worn out to work when I began to use Electric Bitters, but they worked wonders. Now I sleep like a top, can eat anything, have gained in strength and enjoy hard work." They give vigorous health and new life to weak, sickly, run-down people. Try them. Only 50c at A C Marsters drug store.

He Learned a Great Truth.
It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Miss Wesley: "Why do you tell that the something over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for the same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by A C Marsters druggist.

For Sale.

The value of vetches to the Douglas county farmer cannot be over-estimated. Leave your orders for seed at the Douglas county Creamery, and they will be promptly filled large or small. ti.

Mac Circle, Attention.
All members of Mac Circle No. 49, W. of W., are requested to be at the regular meeting, Tuesday evening, Oct. 2, at 7:30 o'clock. Circle will be called to order at this time.

Do Good—It Pays.
A Chicago man has observed that "Good deeds are better than real estate deeds—some of the latter are worthless. Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lend a helping hand. You cannot possibly lose by it." Most men appreciate a kind word and encouragement more than substantial help. There are persons in this community who might truthfully say: "My good friend, cheer up. A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will rid you of your cold, and there is no danger whatever from pneumonia when you use that medicine. It always cures. I know it for it has helped me on many a time." Sold by A C Marsters, druggists.

A TERRIBLE TUMBLE.

At Burr's Music Store Cor. Taylor & Wilson Block, Roseburg.

SOME VERY STARTLING PRICES.

Boxes of New Pianos and Organs and Some Used Ones at Less Than Wholesale Price Great Sale has Commenced—Special Easy Terms of Payment.

A great special sale of the very choicest high grade pianos has commenced at W. A. Burr's salerooms as per agreement completed with Eiler's Piano House recently. For the purpose of closing out the stock of fine pianos and organs possessed by them from T. K. Richardson, and for the further purpose of introducing 15 or more of our finest pianos in the best houses of Roseburg and vicinity, which can be used by those future reference, we inaugurate a great sacrifice sale of every piano and organ in stock, including the very finest and most costly high grade instruments ever seen in Roseburg, together with a number of slightly used and second hand upright pianos and organs, all of which are to be disposed of at once.

Pianos that were heretofore sold for $650 and $700 by other dealers can now be obtained at Burr's closing out sale of the Richardson stock for $550, $418 and $385. There are no finer or better pianos here, in Portland or in San Francisco; nor is it necessary to pay all cash down. No additional charge, except simple interest, is made when easy monthly payments are desired.

It is Well to Remember That

The fancy upright Neelham piano that we offer now for $256 has never been sold heretofore for less than $450, and a fine little Hinz piano, which is absolutely as good as new although the case shows some slight wear and a few scratches, which we are offering for $184, could never be obtained for less than $275, and will never be sold again for less. This indicates that here you can save enough money in the purchase of a piano to fairly educate the entire family in music.

Don't fail to see these very latest style, strictly dependable and fully warranted regular $500 pianos that are now being offered for $356; $260 down and $29 a month buys them. Several second hand pianos, also in good condition, for $125 and $152. We want these out of our way at once.

Organs

Parlor and church organs. Remember we are headquarters for everything pertaining to read and pipe organs, chapel organs large and small, large two manual pipe organs for churches and cathedrals, tiny folding organs for missionaries and camping parties. Beautiful walnut and oak cases Kimball, Berdett, Crown and other makes of parlor organs. See the fine new solid walnut case Neelham parlor organ that we are now selling for $38; $8 down and $1 a month. This same instrument has never been sold for less than $100 heretofore. Other instruments also being sold now, for $40 to $60 up to $118 for the fanciest exhibition style, very massive and heavily carved parlor organ ever shown in the city.

Mail orders will receive prompt and careful attention. Send for large illustrated catalogues, free for the asking. Remember the city and I place.

Ren a Ten Penny Nail Through His Hand.

While opening a box, J. C. Mont, of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of all the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale by A C Marsters, druggist.

P. T. BARNUM

Always said that if you could get the other fellow to talk about you it was the best kind of advertising and I believe it from the amount of business we have done since our competitor has been trying to sell these three meanly pianos which he got a month ago. "Keep it up brother for it is doing us good, but I must contradict some figures which are outrageous. They say that figures won't lie but the lie is out and we must correct it, for we never sold pianos at such prices mentioned." We sold a style F. Chickering to Dr. Hamilton for $450, one to Judge Jordan for $450, one to Mrs. Mary Campbell for $475, one to J. F. Barker for $480, and a style E. to Frank Jordan, of Cottage Grove, for $450, and the very largest and finest Style X, to Prof. Fred Applehoff for $600. Kimballs have sold at all kinds of prices. We understand that Dr. Barrows paid $400 at Eilers for a Style 5 Kimball, and Eilers representative while working for me sold Mr. Devaney a style 5 for $350. We also sold Dr. Honck a style 6 for $300, and Miss Blanche Riddle a style 5 for less than $300, a style 8 to the Drain Normal School for $300, a style 8 to John R. Southerland for $303, a style 6 to Stonewall Southerland for $400, and one style 5 to Mrs. J. B. Lewis for $375. These are figures that do not lie for the purchasers will substantiate the above figures. I am now selling good makes of pianos for less than $200. The proof of the pudding is the eating, and the proof of prices on pianos can be found at the
