LATER ELECTION RETURNS.

Republican Majorities are Increased By Official Count.

RHODE ISLAND NOT SO BAD. PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 6.--A report in the City of Woonsocket has displaced three Democratic members of the General Assembly originally announced as elected, and substituted the Republican candidates. This gives the Republicans a plurality of four in the House, which now stands 38 Republicans and 34 Democrats. The Senate is Republican by 28 members out of 37.

RAH FOR NERLISKA. LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 6.--Up to 5 o'clock tonight complete returns from more than half the counties show that Mickey's Republican, plurality for Governor will not be less than 5,000. The Republican membership in the Legislature is the greatest for years. The combined vote of the Fusionists in the House and Senate will not exceed twenty-nine in a total membership of 133.

FREE SILVER COLORADO RECLAIMED. DENVER, Nov. 6.--Nearly complete returns show that the Republicans have elected their entire state ticket, with the possible exception of superintendent of schools, and two of the three Congressmen, and that the Democrats will have a majority of only 16 to 18 on joint ballot in the Legislature unless the Republicans obtain control of the Lower House and unseat the entire Arapahoe County delegation. The Republican leaders frankly announce that they will carry out that programme if it be in their power. In such an event the Senate, consisting of 25 Democrats and 10 Republicans, will probably refuse to organize the Legislature with the House and thus will block the election of a success to United States Senator Teller.

John Sparks, fusion candidate, has been elected Governor of Nevada. Mr. Sparks is a grand man. He is the owner of the fine Herford cattle which have been shown at the Oregon State Fair the past two seasons.

An exchange sizes up the span of life as follows: A child is born, the doctor attending gets a $10 fee; the doctor notes it and gets 0. It is christened and the minister gets $5 and the editor writes it up and gets 0. It marries and the minister gets another $10; the editor gets a piece of cake or 0. In the course of time it dies; the doctor gets from $5 to 100 and the minister gets perhaps another $5, the undertaker $25 to $50. The editor prints a notice of death and an obituary two columns long and a set of resolutions of some lodge or organization to which he belongs and receives 0.000, and then has the privilege of running a free card of thanks and a lot of poetry besides.

Irrigation Association Meeting.

The first general meeting of the Oregon Irrigation Association will take place in Portland, beginning November 18th. Permanent officers will be elected for the organization and arrangements made to take advantage of the Irrigation Act passed by the last Congress. The S. P. Company has arranged for a reduction of fare to one and one third for the round trip, on the certificate plan, to all who attend the meeting.

Geer is Still Sent.

PORTLAND, Nov. 7.--The impression obtained around town that Governor Geer will run down the Taxpayers' League request for a special session of the Legislature. Had the Governor been favorably disposed toward issuing the call, it is believed that he would see this have replied to the letters and petitions that have been filed with him in behalf of an extra meeting of the General Assembly, mainly for the purpose of lifting this large, bustling berg out of the Slough of Despond. At the meeting of the Multnomah County delegation tonight, it is understood that politics will not be discussed. The function is said to be largely social and for the purpose of getting acquainted. In a general way only will the subject of legislation be discussed.

Will Protect B-avers.

Receiving a report that a colony of beavers is making its home near the headwaters of the Deschutes River, and that hunters were killing them. Game Warden Quimby has sent word to his Deputy at Klamath Falls to enjoin them if possible, as the state law prohibits the killing of beaver. They are very scarce in the state.

Michigan lumber men have just completed the purchase of 22,000 acres of timber land in Lane county, the sum involved being about $300,000.

DOUGLAS COUNTY INDUSTRIES

The New Creamery at Roseburg--The Stock Raising Industry.

The Douglas County Creamery at Roseburg, Oregon, commenced operations in May of this year. It handles cream on the separator plan and has about thirty customers, and the number is steadily increasing. It is owned by Gaddis & Gardner, Mr. Gaddis being the business manager and Mr. Gardner the operator. They manufacture about 800 pounds of butter per week which finds a ready sale in the city. They collect milk for thirty miles in every direction.

Douglas County Creamery, Roseburg, Oregon.

Mr. F. L. Calkins has a private dairy out about four miles. Has a herd of twelve cows--Jerseys and grade Jerseys. He uses a U. S. cream separator, makes his own butter and delivers it to city customers. He feeds vetches and bran. Soon expects to build a silo. He is also a breeder of W. P. Rock chickens and is a believer in pure bred stock. He says there is some fine alfalfa grown along the river bottoms.

This is a good dairy section as alfalfa and clover do well and they have fine pasture from March 1st to August 1st. Mr. Miller and Thornton is engaged somewhat extensively in raising Angora goats. Has something like 2,000 now. Sold 500 wethers this year which were presumably for mutton. The goats are used principally for clearing land. This year some were let out on the shares. They have 800 acres of land and there is some government land adjoining, which the goats run on. The father, Mr. J. T. Hinkle, the grades of which he has 34 or more head. They raise stock for best only. They also have about 100 head of goats.

The principal dairy for supplying the citizens with milk is that belonging to Mr. C. E. Gaddis. He has about 70 cows and the surplus milk goes to the creamery. Up to the time the creamery was established butter was shipped into Roseburg but since its establishment practically none has been shipped in.

There are something like 10,000 goats in the vicinity of Roseburg. Mr. Thornton said that he had purchased about 6,000 within the last three years.

ROSEBURG AS A RAILROAD CENTER

Town Full of People and Real Estate Booming--Railroad Prospects.

(Portland Telegram Nov. 7.) A prominent resident of Roseburg, the county seat of Douglas County, seen at the Imperial Hotel today, gave it as his opinion that the city is destined in the near future to become one of the railroad centers of the state. Since the Great Central Railroad Company has definitely located the route between Marshfield and Salt Lake City through Roseburg, the city has taken a jump forward that is unparalleled in that section of the country. At the present time the railroad company has a great number of men preparing the ground for a large depot, and getting in readiness for the work next Spring. The company expects within the next 60 days to have 1000 men and 300 teams at work in the vicinity of Roseburg. Plans are being prepared for a three-story stone depot building, 100 feet square. Also, upon the 1000 acres of land the company has purchased adjoining the town, they expect to erect 300 houses. Over half of these houses are spoken for already, the demand for accommodations has become so great from the outside. The town is full of people, and rooms are at a premium. Property is changing hands rapidly, and values are rising on every hand. Six miles of the proposed road, between Bangor and Marshfield, are already under contract. From this point eastward, the distance to Roseburg is 75 miles. The completion of the road means that the many varied products of Umpqua and Roseburg Valleys will have direct connections with the East. The Italian prune is a native of that section, and besides the great stock raising industry, some of the finest timber on the Coast is found there, such as the white cedar, which grows nowhere else.

MURDER IN THE SECOND DEGREE.

Heaton Adjudged Guilty of Murder in the Second Degree. Eugene, Nov. 8.--As was expected, the jury in the Heaton murder trial brought in the verdict of second degree murder--guilty of killing Benton East in Junction City May 20th last.

The jury was sworn and left the courtroom at 11 o'clock yesterday morning and at 3:29 returned the verdict to the court, being in deliberation four hours and 29 minutes. The discussion in the juryroom was over the two degrees and not as to his guilt or innocence. The prisoner was given the benefit of the deliberation and a verdict of the second degree rendered. The jury stood six to six, dividing on the first or second degree. When the verdict was read the prisoner was elated and smiled at the lawyers as if he was very glad he occupied the gallows. He was in a buoyant mood when conducted to the jail by the sheriff and his deputies. The sentence was pronounced by Judge Hamilton today at 10 o'clock. The penalty being life sentence to the penitentiary.

THE SAME OLD STORY.

Multnomah Timber Locator Fleeces Thirty-six Prominent Portlanders

PORTLAND, Nov. 7.--Some 30, and more, well-to-do people of Portland are wondering whether they will ever see Oscar C. Stone again, and more especially any part of something like $116 which each of them paid for alleged locations upon timber lands in what is generally called the Alsea country, in Benton county. From evidences coming to light the past few days concerning an apparent timber fraud in that country, there must have been paid into the hands of Mr. Stone something over $4,000. This is at the regular timberman's rate of $100 for each quarter-section location. It is alleged by the victims, who are now getting "chilly feet," that Mr. Stone, in nearly every instance, collected from each of them the charges for advertising, which is about $16 to $18. If all paid, and it seems they did, the exact sum extracted from the comfortable purses of the Portlanders was $4,176.

Oscar C. Stone is at present absent from the city, and it is not known when he will return. He has been using the office of G. G. McNamara, 320 Falling Building, for the past few weeks. No one at the office knows much about the young man, excepting that he has had a lot of people with money on the string persuading them he could locate them on fine timber claims.

Stone was formerly at room 539 Worcester Building, where he conducted an alleged land-scrip agency.

Three weeks ago Mr. Stone, who seems to have met with unusual luck in inspiring people with belief in his timber land down in Benton county, organized the crowd which left all on the same day on the West Side road for Corvallis. While it is not positive that a single person really has a claim, Dr. Littlefield and others have since sent out a professional crew to look over the land to determine whether it is really there where they looked at it, and being there whether it is timberless land. Posted people of Corvallis are laughing at what is believed to be the duplicity of the locator in showing land to the Portlanders which could not be located upon.

As may well be imagined, great secrecy has prevailed in connection with Mr. Stone's operations--as in all timberland deals. All good things are not heralded along the highway from horseposts. The people who are believed to have been taken in are very much averse to having it known that they probably have been bilked. But they all feel that they have.

One of the parties who lost the $100 location fee, or thinks he has besides advertising expenses, which Mr. Stone also took charge of in order to relieve his patrons of trouble or worry, held in escrow $1200 of 12 other people, which Mr. Stone came near getting just before he went away to attend to pressing business in the southern part of the state.

HOW THE GAME WAS WORKED.

The crowd of 30 people, among whom there were numerous women were taken into the woods near Alsea, going on horseback and wagons from Corvallis. They profess to have viewed fine timber. There is fine timber in the Alsea country, cradling probably 4,000,000 to 5,000,000 or 6,000,000 feet per quarter section. But it is believed now that whether knowingly or otherwise, Mr. Stone showed his people one piece of land and gave them descriptions of timberlands 12 to 18 miles further on. Much wonder has been excited in and around Corvallis and Philomath by the presence of people seeking timberland locations, for the old residents have not known of any timber that was available for location for years in that region. The story told to the Portlanders was a familiar one to those who had experience with timberland frauds.

Judge W. C. Hale, of Grants Pass, has asked the city of Portland for $100 damages for injuries to a leg which he sustained while he was walking to the depot when he fell into an excavation with serious results.

It is the best tonic for nursing mothers, restoring strength and promoting an abundant flow of nutritive secretions. "I can cheerfully recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as one of the best medicines for women," writes Mrs. Mary Marlock, of the Woodland Ave., Toledo, Ohio. "I consider it the best medicine made. I know it has no equal. I am the mother of ten children and no equal. I am sure that the best of them could not be raised without it. She is one year old and he is as well and hearty as can be. She is a beauty. Of my other babies, one lived to be one year old, but she was always feeble. I tried different doctors, but none of them could tell me what my trouble was. She said I was well and strong. I was exhausted by sickness and they found nothing wrong, and they were puzzled to know why my trouble was. I did not know what to do, so I bought this time I would try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I look at the entire nine months and now have a fine baby girl, and I cannot praise your medicine enough for the good it did me."
