Traveling Medicine Fakers.

A member of a traveling medicine company had a falling out with the management and quit the show at The Dalles. He told a paper there the following details of their manner of conducting business:

"The herbs they get from Woodard & Clarkel at Portland, $7 per gross, and sell them to the people for $1 a package.

"These herbs are composed of bitter aloas and licorice root, some chopped hay and old leaves.

"The 'oil of life' they make themselve. When they get to town they buy a five-gallon can of gasoline and one gross of bottles, and add a little wood alcohol, some camphor, red pepper and turpentine to take away the gasoline smell, and a little root to color it. This they sell for 50 cents a bottle.

"The catarrh salts the comedian mixed himself under the direction of the doctor, and were composed of equal parts of R. S. V. P. salt, Arm & Hammer brand of soda and borax ground together, and run through a sievo. This they sold for 50 cents a package.

"Their specialty prepared soap wa nothing more than ordinary castile soap cut into small bars.

"Their salve was the ordinary carbolic salve that can be brought in any drug store.

"Those who came to their office for treatment the doctores put through a special course, and gave them a tonic of specially prepared herbs. This decoction was mixed by the comedian. The last batch was made last Monday, at which time he bought $1 worth of sugar from Brown's grocery store, half filled 29 16-ounce bottles with it, poured in some water and let it dissolve until it got clear, then added one-half drachm phos. acid, two drachms of hydrastus and one-half drachm of nux vomica. For the privilege of taking these special courses the people pay from $50 to $100.

"Their plan of taking tapeworms were the ordinary methods used by giving a dose of male fern and cascara. These methods generally remove most of the tapeworm, but leaves the head, so that the worm grows again. In order to make the heads they take a small piece of the 'G' string of a banjo, chew it up and brown it in a flame and drop it in a bottle, and it cannot be told from the real head."

Disastrous Wrecks,

Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from Throat and Lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, even the worst cases can be cured and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Lois Cragg of Dorchester, Mass. is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all Throat and Lung diseases by A. C. Marsters & Co. Druggist. Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Stepped Against a Hot Stove.

A child of Mrs. Geo. T. Benson, when getting his usual Saturday night bath, stepped back against a hot stove which burned him severely. The child was in great agony and his mother could do nothing to pacify him. Remembering that she had a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, she thought she would try it. In less than half an hour after applying it the child was quiet and asleep, and in less than two weeks was well. Mrs. Benson is a well known resident of Kellar, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment and especially valuable for burns, cuts, bruises and sprains. For sale by A. C. Marsters.
