THE CITY BRIDGE.

That the county bridge over the Umpqua river between Roseburg and West Roseburg needs improvement, there can be no doubt.

Pendleton lacked the enterprise to get out a pamphlet for the Harriman advertising arrangement, and now her people have to sit on the fence and see cars filled with new comers passing on to other points in the state.

The Grants Pass Observer gives considerable space in its last issue to an article headed "A Hot Air Railroad."

It looks as if Messrs. Fisher & Sheridan's paper, the Boise Democratic Capital News, might have had at least a small circulation in the states of Washington and Montana.

The Gold Hill News has changed hands. Geo. R. Hammeley & Sons being succeeded by the Charles Brothers, late of the East.

The Roseburg Plaindealer is putting up a brick building, and putting in a new fast press out of the proceeds of pages of timber land advertising.

Roseburg is all swelled up these days. Not satisfied with being western headquarters for the Great Central Railway,

It is rumored in Salem that R. D. Hume, of Curry county, joint-representative from Coos and Curry, aspires to the U. S. Senatorship.

LOGGING OPERATIONS IN LANE. New Railroad Keep Busy—Big Lot of Piling Loading on the S. P.

COTTAGE GROVE, Nov. 18.—The O. & S. E. R. R. is hauling logs from the James Linebaugh place on Mosby creek and taking out car loads of finished ties from Long & Bingham mill.

The Pacific Timber Co., has been making some substantial improvements on their millsite near Fathom, making a splendid location for a mill, only a few rods from the site of the old Fathom school house.

COTTAGE GROVE, Nov. 19.—The two young men who robbed the Imperial Hotel cash drawer of $7.30 and took a Winchester rifle from the office while the night clerk had gone to meet the midnight train about a week ago, have today been arrested in Ashland, 200 miles south of here, confessed their guilt and will be returned here under escort and turned over to the state authorities for trial.

Oil Co. Postpone Work. MYRTLE CREEK, Ore., Nov. 18.—The Umpqua Valley Oil Company has postponed drilling operations for an indefinite time. Nothing has been done since the cable to the sand pump parted some few weeks ago, although a new pump and cable have arrived.

A Pleasant Reception. A very pleasant reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Churchill at the M. E. church Tuesday evening by the members of that church.

Oldest Living Pioneer. The oldest living pioneer of Oregon is Wm. Abernethy, of "Dora, Coos" county. He is an Illinoisian. His family left Illinois in 1839, traveled by wagon and came to the Horn. There was no San Francisco then, so their ship headed for the mouth of the Columbia river, where they arrived in April, 1839.

Snow at Glendale. There was about an inch of snow at Glendale Wednesday morning. At Tan, nel 9, the ground was barely covered.

He is Known Here. The Bend Echo, published in a very second class, gets off the following: "A good illustration of the need of editors to secure the publication of timber land notices by being nearest the land."

Printing Press for Sale. The Hoe Stop Cylinder press upon which the Plaindealer is printed is for sale. It is suitable for a country office with a circulation up to 1,000 or 2,000 but it is not large enough for our use.

ROSEBURG AGAIN EXPANDS. Plat of Waite's New Addition to Roseburg Filed This Week.

The Aaron Ross property, located in the Southern Suburbs of Roseburg, and which was recently purchased by F. B. Waite, W. L. Cobb and Walter S. Hamilton for $15,000, has been formally dedicated as a new addition to Roseburg.

The following is the formal dedication as filed: Known all men by these presents, That we, F. B. Waite and Annie Waite, his wife, W. S. Hamilton and Q. B. Hamilton, his wife, S. Hamilton and S. J. Hamilton, his wife, the owners of the land shown within the exterior boundary lines of the annexed plat, do hereby dedicate to the public use forever, the streets and alleys thereon, reserving however to the grantors, their heirs and assigns the right to lay water mains and conduits for water in said streets from the operation of this dedication and also reserving the portions marked "reserved" on said plat, and all growing trees on said streets.

Drain Normal Notes. MYRTLE MOORE, Senior Class. LEO HACKETT, Junior Class. MARGIE BERNER, Sub-Freshman Class. J. F. BONERAKE, Freshman Class. Miss Sadie Hatfield, Violet Brown, Anna Johnson, Ethel Kelly, Miss Crawford and Miss Smith attended the convention of the Y. W. C. A. society held in Salem on Friday, Saturday and Sunday of last week.

Pithy and Pointed. An Eastern Oregon man says he can reclaim all the arid land of that region without water at all. It is going to use alcohol!

Senator Marsters, in an eloquent speech before the Irrigation Convention at Portland said: "Irrigation will help us all—even the milkman."

QUATEMALA'S AWFUL DISASTER. From 3000 to 4000 People Are Buried Under Ashes and Rocks

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—Five refugees from the volcano-ridden districts of Quetzaltenango, in Guatemala, arrived in this city this morning on the steamer City of Para. They boarded the vessel Champerico. They managed a coffee plantation about 30 miles southeast of the volcano at Santa Maria near La Argentina. They reached Champerico after suffering much hardship on the trip from their plantation.
