In Roseburg's Social Realm.

The beautiful home of Mrs. M. Josephson was the scene of a very brilliant social gathering Wednesday evening. The affair being enjoyed alike by the guests and the hostess. The decorations were profuse and most beautiful, being arranged in a very artistic manner, red and green predominating. Mrs. Josephson was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. T. R. Sheridan, and the principal part of the evening was the game of whist. After the prizes were distributed the guests enjoyed the usual pleasing luncheon which on this occasion was dainty and delicious. Mrs. W. S. Hamilton succeeded in capturing the first prize for ladies, and Mrs. I. Wollenberg received the token which tells of the lowest points. C. T. Curry, was awarded the gent's first prize, B. W. Strong carrying away the consolation gift.

With good cheer, sparkling wit and humor, the evening flitted by all too swiftly and Mrs. Josephson, as usual proved herself a most entertaining and charming hostess. The invited guests were:

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Flint, J. C. Aiken, F. W. Benson, W. H. Jamison, J. T. Bridges, J. C. Sheridan, T. R. Sheridan, J. H. Booth, A. M. Crawford, W. S. Hamilton, J. W. Hamilton, Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Houck, K. L. Miller, F. G. Oelme, F. W. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stanton, R. B. Houston, S. A. Sanford, J. F. Barker, G. W. Childs, W. W. Thackrah, I. Wollenberg, H. Wollenberg, E. M. Moore, B. W. Strong, W. R. Willis, J. A. Perry, Geo. Kollagen, F. T. Wright, A. Wollenberg.

Mrs. E. H. Hoffman and children left this morning for Portland, to visit Conductor Hoffman, who is working out of that place.

On the 28th inst. the tourist passenger fare between Portland and San Francisco will be increased $2.50, making the fare $16.50.

N. Selig, the Myrtle Creek merchant was in this city on business Tuesday. He reports business at Myrtle Creek brisk.

Mrs. W. F. Benjamin, of this city, will leave on Saturday morning's overland for San Francisco, where she will spend the winter with her granddaughter, Mrs. T. G. Crutcher.

Report says a man in the east was killed by the explosion of a beer keg. It is not stated whether death was caused by concussion, or by being so much beer soaked to waists.

Mrs. H. Snyder and daughter, Miss Dolly left on Tuesday's local for Sheeps, Linn county, to visit Mrs. Snyder's mother, later they will go to Portland where they expect to spend the winter.

The M. E. Church will conduct a sale on Dec. 3rd and 4th, in the new bank building. Kitchen and fancy aprons, sofa pillows, comforters, rugs and all kinds of fancy and useful articles for sale. A fine chance will be offered to select a Christmas gift for a relative or friend.

S. K. Sykes has just received a large shipment of Toys and Christmas goods which will soon be on display in his large store. We understand that Santa Claus is directly connected with Santa Claus and that well known gentleman will make his headquarters at S. K. Sykes store, this year.

Rev. G. H. Bennett, will preach Sunday morning at eleven o'clock, at the M. E. Church, on the subject, "Half heartedness." The subject of the evening sermon will be, "The Origin of Religion." This is the second discourse in the series of "God, His Existence and Character." All are invited.

A freight wreck occurred about 11:30 a. m. today at Tunnel 9, in which two cars were completely overturned and considerable track torn up. The wrecked train was an extra north bound freight, in charge of Conductor (Truex). The cause of the wreck is at present unknown, but it is thought that one or both of the cars jumped the track. A wrecking train left this city at noon, and it is thought that the track will soon be clear. No one was hurt.

The telegraphers, station agents and train dispatchers on the Pacific system of the Southern Pacific and the lines in Oregon are to receive an increase in pay of about 10 per cent. The wages of the two systems are regulated in accordance with the changing business situation at various points. The agreement was reached Saturday at a meeting held with General Manager Krottschmitt in San Francisco, through the International Order of Railroad Telegraphers.

Another newspaper publisher has gone the route of morphine poisoning. Will Russell of the firm of Russell Bros., publishers of the Farmer and Miner at Fort Jones, California, died Tuesday from an overdose of morphine. As yet it has not been decided whether or not the death was taken with suicidal intent. A few months ago the Russell Brothers founded their newspaper venture at Ft. Jones, and since have been getting on a good publication and from the appearance of the sheet have been doing well. Deceased had been quite ill for the past several days.

The Roseburg Opera House Nov. 22 will have for its attraction "You Yonson" which is such a departure from the usual dialect productions. It is a Swedish dialect comedy with a plot worth listening to, and Mr. Nelse Erickson assumes the part of a Swede just over. As the play progresses, "You Yonson" shows evidence of becoming Americanized gradually. It is said since the death of Heege no one has assumed the character so perfectly as Mr. Erickson, who originated the part in England. The play is promised to be staged with new scenic equipment, all of the scenery being appraised at an hour to the throne is a number of refined specialties will be introduced, including the Lumbermen's quartette. Among the other members of the company are Patti Rosa and Florence Gear.

Myrtle Point Enterprise: Engineer A. A. Lindsey, speaking of the Great Central survey over the Middle Fork route, says: "I was surprised to find the easy grade that route affords for a railroad, although the rocky points and hillsides will make the road a somewhat expensive one to build. The highest elevation (at Camas Valley) is but about 1,200 feet above sea level, while via the old Goshay wagon route the elevation approximates 2,900 feet. The engineers are now within three miles of Remoto and expect to have the line located in Camas Valley within thirty days. The engineering party now includes 14 men."

W. E. Lundy and wife, nee Miss Laura E. Jones, arrived in Roseburg Wednesday evening from San Francisco to enjoy a brief visit with Mrs. Lundy's sister, Mrs. W. C. Conner. Mr. Lundy has disposed of his business interests in San Francisco and contemplates engaging in business at some desirable point in Oregon and is looking over Roseburg with this object in view. He has been engaged for several years in the hardware, tinware and plumbing business. However, before locating permanently in this state Mr. and Mrs. Lundy will visit relatives at Cottage Grove and Myrtle Point. They were well pleased with California but are inclined to favor grand old Oregon in which to establish a permanent home. Their many friends are glad to welcome them back to wolfish land.

QUEEN HELENA—To the wife of the King of Italy, Nov. 19, 1902, a daughter.

The new princess will be named "Mafalda." The birth of another Princess instead of an heir to the throne is a great public disappointment. United States Ambassador Meyer was the first outsider to personally congratulate the king. This is the second daughter of the king and queen; the first, Princess Yolande Margherita, having been born at Rome on June 1, 1901.

MARRIED.

BULLEMER-SCHERER—At the office of the county judge at the court house in this city, Nov. 18, 1902, August Bullemmer, age 70 years, to Agnes Scherer age 50 years. His honor Judge M. D. Thompson officiating.

ADKINS-BROWN—At the office of the Justice of the Peace in this city Wednesday, Nov. 19, 1902, J. T. Adkins to Ella L. Brown, J. A. Buchanan Justice of the peace officiating.
