The steel-range fellows are abroad in the land again, and regardless of the fact that the same range or one equally as good can be purchased of the home dealer at from 25 to 50 per cent less than the agents price, many people will persist in signing up the agents' notes to secure the range, and then come and squint when collectors are forced a little later. Better patronize the business people who pay the taxes, support your schools, build your roads and bridges and liberally subscribe to your subscription papers.

Last week the entire office force of the PLAINDEALER received a Thanksgiving offering from Col. W. H. Taylor of Olathe, manager and proprietor of the Taylor Specific Co. Col. Taylor thinking that we needed a thorough cleansing sent us a beautiful supply of "San-Tax" pigments toilet soaps, shampoo cream, and "cuttlin'" the best cleanser of the skin known. We have tried all these articles and are now able to pronounce them the best in the market. San-Tax is a wonderful toilet soap and after a few applications will remove all chapping leaving the skin perfectly clear and soft. The Shampoo cream is a sure cure for all scalp diseases being a thorough cleanser of the hair and scalp. Cuttlin' is rather a favorite with the printers as it will immediately remove printer's ink from the hands. Thanks, Colonel, for your kind favor. We will take the hint and try and keep clean. ti.

Big Enterprise for Roseburg.

The entire block surrounded by Jackson, Cass, Oak and Rose streets with the exception of the Abraham and Marsters property has been bonded by a company to be known as the Grand Hotel and Delicacy Co., who expect to build a large six-story hotel to face on Cass and Jackson streets, the first story to consist of ten store rooms, the corner to be used as a banking room, the hotel to have 200 rooms, a grand theater to face on Cass and Rose streets, a large ice plant and cold storage to face on Rose street and a large brewery, cooperage and bottle works to face on Oak street, an individual electric plant to light the entire building.

This when complete will employ between 75 and 125 people, and will be one of the most beautiful structures in Southern Oregon, and will not only add to the welfare and beauty of our city but will add between 200 and 300 people to our present population. A. E. Moler, who recently purchased the Ragan ranch on Deer Creek, and several of our most enterprising business men are at the head of this company.

Last Saturday's Game.

Three hundred spectators today in a drizzling rain watched the Eugene high school team defeat the Roseburg students to the tune of 10 to 6. Owing to the slippery pickin' fumbles were frequent on both sides. Roseburg's score was made on a fumble. It was a clean game and no injuries was sustained. Touchdowns for the visitors were made by Gray and Dillary for Roseburg; Short. Eugene played good ball considering the handicap of mud and superior weight of her opponents.

We were very much surprised on reading the above in the Eugene Register of Dec. 4, to learn that Roseburg's score was made on a fumble, but poor old Eugene had to make some excuse for not winning the Roseburg team off the earth. They were greatly disappointed and more surprised to find that in Roseburg, was the most dangerous team they had played this season.

The fact of the whole matter is that Eugene did not think that they would have to play ball to beat our team and were taken by surprise, when on the second down Short was given the ball and with beautiful interference which mowed Eugene's right end down like corn stalks in the path of a blizzard, made his beautiful run of 65 yards for a touch down. Of course Knykendall can always say that had he not fallen he would have saved the day, but all saw Ramp tackle and bring him to the earth.

Again the Register keeps on the "superior weight" of the Roseburg team. Now take figures for that Eugene averages 143 pounds stripped and Roseburg the scales as 137 pounds with their clothes on. Had it not been that Eugene was the heavier team it is doubtful that they would have scored at all as their gains were all made on line backs. We hardly believe that Eugene can make an excuse for their poor goal kicking, although the ground was very wet, Ramp kicked a beautiful goal.

Don't cry Eugene, perhaps you will do better next time.

The Eugene boys were good gentlemen fellows, if they were larger than our boys.

Wedding Bells

A quiet and pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of W. P. Reed in this city Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, when Miss Alice A. Ross was united in marriage to Fred W. Varrelman. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. W. Edmondson in the presence of a few near friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The wedding march was played by Miss Anna Varrelman, a sister to the groom, and at 10 o'clock sharp the happy couple entered the room where the solemn words were said that made them man and wife.

The groom, who is employed as clerk at W. P. Reed's place, was raised here and numbers his friends only by his acquaintances, while the bride is a daughter of W. R. Ross of Drain, and is well known in the society of that section.—Gardiner Gazette.

ELKS' MEMORIAL SERVICE.

Address Delivered by Rev. G. H. Bennett, the Eulogy by Hon. P. H. D'Arcy.

The Annual Memorial Service of Roseburg Lodge No. 320, B. P. O. Elks, was held in the Opera House Sunday afternoon, commencing at 2 o'clock. The service was well attended despite the inclement weather, and the platform decorations were elaborate and beautiful. The members of the order congregated in the lodge room above and marched to the room below where the exercises were held, in a body. The opening ceremonies were conducted by Exalted Ruler W. H. Jamieson, and were very impressive. The vocal music by the choir and the vocal and instrumental solos were especially selected for the occasion and completed a program of unusual merit. These services are always beautiful and impressive but the order exceeded all former like efforts on this occasion. The address or sermon was delivered by Rev. Geo. H. Bennett, of the M. E. church, his subject being "Science and Immortality." The address was an eloquent, impressive and appropriate one, the speaker receiving the closest attention of his hearers and all spoke in very complimentary terms of the discourse.

The eulogy was delivered by Hon. P. H. D'Arcy, of Salem, who is always at his best on such occasions. Mr. D'Arcy is one of the state's most eloquent and able orators. His theme was beautiful and made a marked impression on his hearers.

Worthy of especial mention was the vocal solo by Mrs. G. W. Short, the vocal duet by Misses Perry and Jacobs, the songs by the choir and the instrumental solo by Mrs. I. Wollenberg. The Elks Memorial committee comprised Messrs S. K. Sykes, F. W. Benson, Chas. Curry, E. L. Parrott and V. C. London.

Christmas Supplement.

On Saturday, Dec. 19th the PLAINDEALER will issue in connection with the regular edition, a four page, eight column supplement consisting of illustrated Christmas and New Year stories. There will be room for two more, and two only, columns of advertisements. This will make an eight page, eight column paper for the Christmas Holidays and will be the most attractive illustrated reading matter that has ever been published in Roseburg for the young and elderly people. Now is the time to take up the two remaining columns.

A Church School Near Roseburg.

A few days ago our agent was out soliciting subscribers for our paper, and two miles west of Roseburg found an Adventist church school in operation. There are eleven pupils. All the common branches are taught and besides this each student recites a lesson from the Bible.

The Adventists believe that Christ is soon to appear the second time, but entirely discontinuance setting a definite time. They believe that Jesus kept the seventh day and that they therefore should do the same. They believe in justification by faith in Jesus Christ, in conditional immortality, and that this world will finally be made new and be the home of the saved. The reason they conduct a church school is because they wish their children to have daily lessons in Bible study. They are believers in, and supporters of the public school system and teach that the free school has been one of the great public safety-guards of our nation, and that in a free school the Bible should not be taught since there is such a diversity of opinions among the patrons of these schools; so they cheerfully pay their taxes to support the public school and at the same time conduct a school of their own where the Bible is taught as a regular study.

J. B. THOMPSON, County Judge.

Announcement

Riddle, Ore., Nov. 25, 1902.

For the past sixteen months we have conducted a general merchandise business at Riddle and have been accorded a large and liberal patronage and very courteous treatment on the part of the public. Our business relations with the people of this section of the county have been pleasant in the extreme, and now having disposed of our interest in the mercantile business to Mr. E. Underwood of New York, we take this means of thanking the public for the liberal patronage and many kind favors extended, and earnestly solicit the same generous patronage and kind treatment for our successor, whom we feel assured will fully merit the same.

Yours respectfully, A. R. M. TROOS & Co.

"As Others See Us."

A good joke is told on Brother Conner, of the PLAINDEALER. Recently he went to report a party at a home blessed with a new baby. He met the hostess at the door and after the usual salutations, asked after the baby's health. The lady, who was quite deaf, and suffering from the grip, thought he was asking about her child, and answered that although she usually had one every other winter, this one was the worst she had ever had; kept her awake nights and at first confined her to her bed. Then noticing that Brother Conner, who is a very modest man, was getting nervous, said she could tell by his looks that he was going to have one just like hers and invited him in to sit down.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.
