Rev. Geo. H. Bennett will speak at the M. E. church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock on "The Change of Season." The subject of the evening sermon will be "God's Purpose in the World." This is one of the series of evening sermons on "God, His Existence and Attributes." All are invited.
Howard Veland, the genial postmaster at Drew, this county, was transacting business in Roseburg Wednesday. He made this office a pleasant call and reports considerable mining activity in his neighborhood and also about Perdue. The stock-raising industry is becoming a very important industry in that section of the county.
Frank Lee, the genial editor of the Northwest Pacific Farmer, was a Roseburg visitor Tuesday, and favored this office with a pleasant call. He was on his return home to Portland from a visit to the Southern Oregon towns, where he has been securing write-ups for the special edition of his paper which is to be issued soon by the Portland Board of Trade, at which time 10,000 copies will be printed for Eastern distribution. The paper will contain a comprehensive write-up of the State and its resources. Editor Lee used the Roseburg Board of Trade to Lib a page write-up in his paper for Douglas county, but so much expense was incurred in issuing the Douglas county pamphlet that the Board did not see its way clear, financially, to take hold of the matter. It would have been $100 well spent.

Dance at Armory Saturday evening.
R. Conglar, the Canyonville barber, was in this city on business today. This office received a pleasant call.
"Pickings From Puck," which will appear here Monday evening, Dec. 15th, is a bright and cheerful and all-round entertainment.
Next Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 15th and 16th, you can consult Dr. Lowe, the well known oculio-optician, about your eyes, at the McClellan House. Won't be back for three months.
Arthur Louis Frazer, pianist of the U. of O. School of Music, will give a recital at the Roseburg Theater Thursday evening, Dec. 11. He is assisted by Miss Mollie Patten, so-piano, and Miss Rose Trumbull accompanist. A rare musical treat.
At the last regular meeting of Roseburg Lodge No. 10 A. O. U. W., the following officers were elected: M. W. F. M. Tozier, F. J. Kantz, O. W. W. Carrier, Fin. D. S. West; Receiver, W. T. Wright; Recorder, E. H. Lenox; Guide, B. S. Nichols; I. W. F. E. Hand; O. W., O. Davis; Trustee, H. J. Wilkins.

The Roseburg Theater was filled last Monday night with the performance of "The Irish Pawnbrokers," the interesting combination of farce and musical comedy—as advertised and satisfactory as expected. The work of the famed Sullivan and Mack and little Mazie Trumbull was fine. They form a star trio of comedians and could hold their own with any of them. The chorus, although cut down, by necessity, was good and the songs catchy. Judging from the amusement of the audience, every one was satisfied with the entertainment.
Look Here—Bazaar Opening.
On tomorrow (Friday), Dec. 12, at 9 o'clock a. m. in the Douglas County Bank building, a nice line of childrens and infants clothing, many useful and fancy articles suitable for Christmas presents. Bazaar to be held two days, Friday and Saturday. There will be on sale both days, salt rising bread, canned fruits and home-made candies, cakes, etc. A liberal patronage is solicited.

To Be Given Away.
Six pair of pure bred fowls have been presented by members of the Poultry Association to be given to patrons of the show. Each purchaser of a ticket will be given a coupon with duplicate numbers, one part to be retained by the purchaser and the other part to be torn off and deposited in a box designed for that purpose at the door. Each evening—Wednesday, Thursday and Friday—at 9 o'clock the drawing will take place, to be conducted by some disinterested party. The first number drawn will entitle the holder to first choice of a pair of birds and the second drawn to the second choice, two pair to be given each evening.

The Next Theatrical Attraction.
Group after group of merry chorus girls with their fantastic gestures, appear and join in the merry Ping Pong dance in the farcical musical offering, "Pickings From Puck," which will appear at Roseburg theatre, Monday evening, Dec. 15th. The characters are comic and the lines are amusing; in fact, a better vehicle for a display of the company's talent could not be applied anywhere. So much fun is created in the faces that it compels people to shriek with laughter. The musical numbers will be popular because they are easy to whistle. The scenery and costumes are most attractive to the eye. The show starts heroically with a primitive jingle and rises to "inspired nonsense."
Mr. Willard Simms, who is the star, was for three years principal comedian at the Casino Theatre in New York, and for one year at the Shaftesbury Theatre, London, England, as the principal comedian supporting Edna May, and is ably assisted by Miss Katharine Linyard, who possesses poise and convincing qualities. These stars are supported by a large and excellent company.

Musical Recital Tonight.
Arthur Louis Frazer, pianist, University of Oregon, and H. P. Pope, baritone soloist, will give a high class musical recital at the Roseburg theatre tonight. This entertainment will prove a rare treat to all music lovers, who should avail themselves of the opportunity to attend. Of the recital, the Eugene Daily Register says: "The fantastic conception of the scherzo, the gloom of the funeral march, and the dialogue of the rondo were faithfully portrayed; and whether it was the somber pessimism of the scherzo, the passionate rhythm of the waltz, the quaintness of some unusual melody, or the tremendous difficulties with which the octavi study bristled, the pleasure of the audience was unmistakable."
Scotts Valley Items.
Miles Pierce has returned to school again, after several days absence on account of sore throat.
Work has begun on a new road leading from Shoestring to Seville Valley.
Mr. Bennett returned Thursday from a visit to relatives at Conestock.

MARRIED
DAVIS—GOODMAN—At the office of the justice of the peace, in this city, Dec. 6, 1902, Edward Davis to Oma Goodman, of Looking Glass; J. A. Buchanan, J. P., officiating.

BORN.
SELJIG.—In Salem, Or., Dec. 5, 1902, to Mr. and Mrs. L. Selig, of Myrtle Creek, Or., a son.

DIED
MOORE.—In Roseburg, Dec. 10, 1902, John W. Moore, aged 44 years and 11 months, of typhoid pneumonia.
John W. Moore was born in Roseburg, January 10, 1858, where the greater portion of his life has been spent. He chose as a trade, harness and saddle making and was a skilled workman. For many years he has worked at this trade in Washington, Portland and Roseburg. He is well and favorably known throughout the county, being a member of one of the oldest and most highly esteemed pioneer families in this part of Oregon, his father, E. M. Moore, who still resides in Roseburg being one of the early settlers of this county. His last illness was of five weeks duration and despite the vigilance and skill of his physicians nothing could be done to stay the ravages of the disease which cut him down in the prime of life, he being but 44 years and 11 months old at the time of his death. He was a kind husband, an affectionate father and a good neighbor, and leaves to mourn their loss a father, stepmother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Moore, and their daughter, Lillian, also a wife and seven children—six daughters and one son, all of whom, with the exception of two daughters now in Texas, reside in Roseburg. The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock under the auspices of Oak Camp No. 125, Woodmen of the World, of which the deceased was a member and in which order he carried an insurance policy of $2,000. Services were held at the M. E. church and conducted by Rev. G. H. Bennett. Interment in the Masonic cemetery. The family and other relatives have the heartfelt sympathy of all in their great and sad bereavement.
