Don't fail to see Dr. Lowe this trip about your eyes. He went back again for 4 months. Dr. Lowe, Eugene's well known optician is at the McChallen. He goes home Tuesday night. For Sale—100 head of sheep (all ewes) and 30 head of Angora goats (all does). L. A. MARSTERS, Cleveland, Cr. Talk about steel ranges, the dealers in Roseburg can sell them cheaper than they can be peddled. Look over their stock before you buy. Do you know that Strong has the best selected stock of furniture ever seen in Douglas county and what is more appropriate than a nice rocker, sideboard or couch for a Xmas present. Grandma Churchill left here this week for Roseburg where she will live with her daughter, Mrs. Alley. The old folks have quit housekeeping owing to their extreme age and will henceforth live with their children—Cottage Grove Nugget.

While our line of Holiday Goods is very complete, it must diminish very rapidly as Christmas approaches. Our latest novelties and choicest bargains will be first to go, and while we shall use every effort to meet all demands for duplicates, we cannot expect to secure them in many instances during the holiday rush. The store displays a splendid array of suitable gift things, choice things that will be picked out early, and which will not be duplicated later on. A Veritable Fairyland.

How To Prevent Croup. It will be good news to the mothers of small children to learn that croup can be prevented. The first sign of croup is hoarseness. A day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse. This is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the rough cough appears, and it will dispel all symptoms of croup. In this way all danger and anxiety may be avoided. This remedy is used by many thousands of mothers and has never been known to fail. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by A. C. Marsters.

At Roseburg Theatre To-Night

Group after group of merry chorists girls with their fantastic costumes, appear and join in the merry Ping Pong dance in the farcical musical offering, "Pickings From Piek," which will appear at Roseburg theatre, Monday evening, Dec. 15th. The characters are comic and the lines are amusing; in fact, a better vehicle for a display of the company's talent could not be supplied anywhere. So much fun is created in the face that it compels people to shriek with laughter. The musical numbers will be popular because they are easy to whistle. The scenery and costumes are most attractive to the eye. The show starts heroically with a primitive jingle and rises to "inspired nonsense." Mr. Willard Simms, who is the star, was for three years principal comedian at the Casino Theatre in New York, and for one year at the Shaftesbury Theatre, London, England, as the principal comedian supporting Edna May, and is ably assisted by Miss Katharine Lynam, who possesses a polished and convincing quality. These stars are supported by a large and excellent company.
