MAJOR KINNEY NOT GUILTY.

Great Central Railroad Promoter Acquitted of Assult Charge

The case of the City of Roseburg vs. Major L. D. Kinney, charged with creating a disturbance by assaulting Dr. E. Du Gas in the office of the Hotel Mc-Ciallen last Saturday evening attracted considerable attention in Recorder West's court Monday. Five jurymen were selected and the case was in progress all day, going to the jury at 5 p. m. The jury deliberated upon the evidence three hours before reaching a decision. All were in favor of accquital except one, who attempted to hang the jury, but was at last induced to abide with the majority. The case was vigorously prosecuted by three attorneys. Hon. C. A. Sehlbrede, the attorney for the Great Central, appeared for the defense.
