Pensioning Old Employes.

Mr. E. H. Harriman, President of the Harriman Railway Lines, has inaugurated a plan for pensioning employes grown old in the service.

"Employes who have attained the age of seventy and been in the service twenty years or over are to receive pensions on the basis of one per cent per annum of the average salary received for ten years previous to pensioning for each year of service. For instance, an employe whose pay averages $1,000 per annum for ten years prior to retirement and has been in the service of the Company thirty years, would received a pension equal to thirty per cent of $1,000, or $300, per annum.

Between the ages of sixty-one and seventy, employes incapacitated for further work may be retired by a persion board selected from the department officers of the Company, provided they shall have been in the service twenty years or more.

The employes make no contributions to the fund, pensions being paid by the Company in full and without any condition, the employes being at liberty to engage in other business after being pensioned should they see fit."

An exchange remarks that the Oregon rain falls on the just and the unjust, just the same as if they were all just, if they just happen to be out without an umbrella.

We take this occasion to gratefully acknowledge the favors and liberal patronage accorded us during the closing year, and to wish you all a merry Christmas and a prosperous and happy new year.

Yours very truly,

Cannon's Book and Stationery Store.

A $20,000 MINING TRANSACTION

B. W. Stewart of Portland Purchases the Continental on South Myrtle Creek.

B. W. Stewart, of Portland, today purchased the fine quartz mine of G. W. Crews on South Myrtle Creek known as the Continental, consideration $20,000. This mine joins the Little Chieftian mine, from which a car load of ore was recently shipped to the San Francisco smelter and netted the owners of the mine over $100 to the ton. Considerable development work has been done on the Continental and it shows up fully as well as the Little Chieftian. Mr. Steward announces that he will proceed to developing and operating his mine on a rather extensive scale and he is satisfied, as is every one familiar with the new Myrtle Creek mining district, that he has secured very valuable property. Since capital is begining to take hold of property in this new camp we may expect it to forge ahead and develop rapidly into one of the richest and most important mining districts in the state.

Hon. A. F. Brown, of Oakland, made the PLAINDEALER a pleasant business call Saturday while visiting the county seat.

Irie Thompkins, the genial Grants Pass barber, is a Roseburg visitor today, the guest of his cousin Mrs. W. C. Conner.

Harry Brookes, son of H. H. Brookes of the PLAINDEALER, arrived Saturday morning from Amarillo, Texas, to make his home with his parents here.

Hon. L. T. Harris, ofEugene, Central and Southern Oregon's choice for speaker of the house at the coming session of the Legislature, spent Sunday in Roseburg.

The shotgun given away by L. E. Milledge at Dillard was drawn by number 580 which was held by W. W. Copley. A "fair shake" was given and entire satisfaction prevailed.

Rev. Geo. H. Bennett pastor of the M. E. Church is confined to his room with a severe attack of lagrippe, and as a result, was unable to conduct either morning or evening services at his church Sunday.

L. B. Whelden, formerly a compositor on the Drain Nonpariel, was in the city on business Saturday. Mr. Whelden is soon to enter the employ of the S. P. Co., as operator, a position that he has formerly held. This office received a pleasant business call.

A. S. Miller, of Wedderburn, and Thos. Lane, of Port Orford, arrived here Friday in charge of Sterling B. Gibbs, an insane person committed to the asylum from Curry Co., whom they took to Salem. This is Gibbs second committment, having been confined in the Washington state asylum, from which he was discharged about a month ago.

"The Princess Chic" which will be seen here Saturday evening, is a beautiful opera comique, the universal success of which must be somewhat accredited to the four clever commedians, Miron, Huff, Mahar and Bailey. These singers without any slap-stick or horse play, bring out in the most laughable fashion the fun which Kirke La Shelle has written in his libretto. Vera Michelena is the prima donna of the company, and the shapely and colorful chorus adds much to the attractiveness of the piece.

The Myrtle Point Enterprise says: The sad news was received here this week of the death of Rome Black, eldest son of Hon. A. H. Black, which occured at Pocatello, Idaho, Dec. 26, 1902. He had been suffering from typhoid fever for about a month and about two weeks ago pneumonia set in. However, he had about recovered from this last attack, and the attending physician was most sanguine of his recovery, when he was seized with heart failure which terminated his life. The deceased was formerly engaged in business at this place, and about a year ago went to Illinois and later located in Idaho. He was an industrious up right citizen and his death will cause universal grief wherever he is known. A loving wife and two small children, besides other relatives, are left to mourn their irreparable loss. The deceased was about 25 years of age.

On New Years night Senator Marsters and wife entertained in a most royal manner, Attorney General Crawford and wife, U. S. Land Register Bridges and wife, Editor Brookes and wife, Senator Bailey and County Clerk Shambrook. After a most elegant and sumptuous dinner, the evening was passed in conversation and crokinole and all the guests heartily wish Senator Marsters and his estimable wife many returns of New Year in the cycle of time.

Miss Edna Floyd who has won much praise for her work in the soubrette role of "Estelle" in "The Princess Chic" this season, is a Boston girl who has had but three years experience on the stage. After an apprenticeship with the Bostonians, she succeeded Adele Richie in the title role in the "Canet Girl." She received her vocal training under Clara Munger, who was the teacher of Emma Eames. Don.t fail to see this famous company composed of sixty artists at the Roseburg Theater Saturday evening.

James Hutchinson, of Oakland, Douglas county, who has been on the bay for a week or so visiting his daughter, Mrs. Bounds, of Marshfield came over to this place yesterday to attend the A. O. U. W. blow-out yesterday evening. We acknowledge a pleasant and entertaining call by this intelligent and enterprising pioneer of Douglas. He is exceedingly well pleased with his trip to Coos county, and is quick to see our numerous resources and advantages, and the great help the Great Central would be in the development of this section as well as being a remunerative railroad proposition.—Coquille Herald.

Chas. Cheney, of Upper Cow Creek, was a Roseburg visitor Saturday and made the PLAINDEALER a pleasant business call. He reports that the Johnson Bros. have completed their logging railroad survey nearly to his place and this survey when completed will traverse about 16 miles of the Upper Cow Creek country, starting at Glendale. Mr. Cheney has one of the largest body's of timber on the creek—about 800 acres. He says the Johnson Bros, will undoubtedly erect some large saw mill plants near Glendale in the spring and construct their proposed railroad up Cow Creek at the same time.

Resolutions of Condolence.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst our beloved brother, Charles T. Safley, and

WHEREAS, We are deeply grieved on account of our loss, and of the loss to the bereaved widow and parents of our brother. Therefore, be it

Obituary.

Thos. Shrum, who died at his home near Glide, Dec. 25, 1902, was a well-known citizen of Douglas county, and an early pioneer of Oregon. He was a native of Lincoln County, Missouri, and was born Dec. 8, 1827; residing on his fathers farm until the spring of 1846. In April of that year, accompanied by his father, mother, three sisters, and five brothers, started with ox-teams "across the plains" to the far west. After six months of traveling, and many hardships, they arrived in this state, and made their first stopping place five miles east of Salem, where they located on a farm. There Mr. Shrum remained until the gold discovery in California, when he with one brother hastened to the new El Dorado, and followed mining in different parts of the state, until 1852. He then returned home near Salem and resided there until 1854. Having concluded to locate a farm for himself he selected Douglas Co., for his future home, and at that time purchased 160 acres one mile north of the present home. In 1864, he purchased the present homestead of 600 acres on which he still resided at the time his death. He was married in Marion Co., Oct. 29, 1857 to Miss Cassandra Kerns, a native of Indiana. Seven children were born from this union, one of whom, Aurilla, and also his loving wife, preceded him to the better land. Those living are Mrs. Gurney, and Stephen Shrum, of Acme, Ore., Mrs. L. L. Mathews, of Deer Creek, Mrs. Will Ingram, of Wilderville, Or., Mrs. F. S. Blakely, and George Shrum, of Glide. He leaves also three brothers, A. J. Shrum, of Grade. Cook Co., Or., Nichols Shrum, who is now in the Willamette valley, and T. J. Shrum, of Southern Cal. Two sisters, Mrs. Samuel Miller, of Creswell, Or., and Mrs Euphamia Edmonson, of Eastern Oregon, also survive him.

Mr. Shrum was a veteran of the Cayuse Indian War of 1848, also of the Indian Wars of 1855-56.

Thus passes away another of Oregon's pioneers, one who will be sadly missed by all of his wide circle of friends.

"We bid adieu to our old time friend,
of yore,
Whose spirit has departed, from our earthly shore,
We'll keep thy memoy green until our lives are done,
Knowing a crown of glory thou above have surely won.
To thy lamenting kin, we true sympathy extend,
Hoping to God's will, they'll submissive bend,
Then all to meet with our esteemed friend above
In close communion, and everlasting love." A FRIEND.

Death of J. D. B. Lee.

J. D. B. Lee, the subject of this sketch was born Dec. 11, 1832, near Piketon, Pike county, Ohio, and died at his home near this city Dec. 24, 1902, at the age of 70 years and 13 days. He was married June 8, 1856, to Marilla Huntley and three children was the result of the union—Silva C, Alvia and M. R. Lee.

Mr. Lee was a pioneer of Oregon and assisted, materially in developing the country. He crossed the plains with ox team in 1852, and has since resided in Oregon continually. He first located in Looking Glass valley and from there moved to Wilbur, later to Myrtle Creek and to Coos county in 1873.

The deceased has been a sufferer from stomach trouble for some time and his death was not unexpected. Funeral service were conducted last Friday and the remains interred in the Myrtle Point cemetary.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

MARRIED.

ROBERTS—KAY.—At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Thos. Kay, in Salem, Wednesday evening, Dec. 31, 1902, Mr. C. T. Roberts, of Portland, and Miss Lenore Kay, of Salem, Rev. T. W. Cliffe, of the Baptist church officiating.

The wedding was a very brilliant one, the decorations being profuse and beautiful, and the ceremony was witnessed by a number of relatives and intimate friends. The bride is a general favorite with a charm of manner that endears her to all. She is a sister of Mrs. O. P. Coshow, of Roseburg, and is well and favorably known here. The groom is the manager of the Salem Woolen Mills Store at Portland and is a very exemplary young man.

Music Lovers

Music lovers will have a rare entertainment by simply calling at Barr's Popular Music House and inspecting our splendid array of musical instruments. Our display of pianos are simply magnificient. Here are found the world renowned Chickering, the wonderful toned Kimball, the many toned Crown Orchestrical and the beautiful toned colonial style Victor. We have others like the Singer, Kingsbury and Needham. Then here is our mammoth stock of small goods, such as S. S. Stewart and Washburn mandolins, guitars, banjos. Our immense line of violins range in price from $2.50 to $50. We are sole agent for the Columbia graphaphone and supplys. Remember we are running no concert hall with 50 cents admission, but our doors are al ways open to the public.

Dance Postponed.

On account of the death of Uncle Thomas Shrum, the dance that was to have been given at Glide New Year's eve has been postponed until Jan. 9th. All are invited. M. A. LIVINGSTON.
