Street Costume. Very chic costumes are being made for automobile wear. The most useful have skirts that clear the ground a couple of inches. With these suits a flannel waist is a necessity, and over turned to the "horseless age." Trolley this should be worn one of two long coats, a light one lined with silk or a heavier one lined with serviceable fur.

The prettiest hats for automobile wear are made of glace silk, for the dust can easily be wiped off without injury to this fabric. Some of the smartest models are made after the fashion of a yachting cap, with the ends tying under the chin.

A gauze or chiffon veil is a necessity, as dust or wind are ruin to the complexion. It is well to remember that one cannot be too warm on an automoblie, and the fun of rushing through air counts as nothing when one's teeth are chattering with cold. The cap should, if possible, match the long coat. The illustration shows a pretty brown tailor made. It is made with a double breasted Eton jacket and is worn over a full waist of lace. The skirt has a graduated flounce. The entire costume s trimmed with strappings of a lighter brown. The hat is light brown trimmed with dark brown velvet and cher-JUDIC CHOLLET.

Improving the Eyes.

A singular story is told about the shape of the eyes of Mme. Jane Hading, the French actress, which are very remarkable. They are of the clearest and purest brown, like that of mountain brooks or wave washed onyx, and veiled with a thick fringe of black and silky lashes. But this is not all. Her eyes are unusually and extraordinarily long, and this length is due to artificial means. It is a custom among the Turks to lengthen the eyes by cut.
