W. G. Smith, formerly of the round house of this city but now of the car shop of Portland, is in this city.

Mrs. J. C. Aiken was called to Salem by a telegram announcing the serious illness of Mrs. Jeany Aiken, of that city.

J. W. Hamilton, left Wednesday for Portland to attend the board of regents. He will hold the regular term of circuit court at Eugene before returning home.

The Rev. A. Kingsley Glover, General Missionary of Oregon, is expected to preach in St. Georges Episcopal Church on Sunday next, in the evening only.

F. W. Benson, attorney for Wood, Curtis & Co. of California, entered attachment proceedings against the grocery stock of William Carrier. The obligation being $114.15.

The trouble over the claims jumping on the unsurveyed land about 35 miles east of Roseburg was caused by a timber cruiser locating several persons on land upon which he had previously located other settlers.

Mrs. J. H. Booth left for Portland this morning to join her husband, who went down Tuesday night to receive treatment for his left eye, which had become much inflamed by a cinder that lodged there while Mr. Booth was traveling in the train.

Traffic on the Southern Pacific is very much delayed on the account of a cave-in of tunnel No. 9, just below Dunsmuir. The cave-in occurred last Tuesday, and since that time freight trains have been blocked and passengers had to be transferred over the mountain through which the tunnel was built.

Osteopathy has built upon the foundation of science deeply seated in the philosophy of truth, chemistry, anatomy and physiology, a new etiology of diseases, a new systematic method of treating diseases that have been accumulating since the act of healing. It cures all acute and chronic diseases permanently. Consultation free by Dr. A. L. Studley, Temporary office at Hotel McClallen.

Daniel Benedict died suddenly at the home of H. L. Engles, at Peed, last Monday while talking with some other timbermen. Mr. Benedict came here a little over two years ago, and is quite well known. Besides a wife in this city, he leaves a son in Mexico, a father, mother sister and daughter in Michigan, who were notified of his death, and his remains were shipped East for burial. He was a member of the I. O. O. F. lodge No. 224, of Newway, Michigan.

The Hon. Binger Hermann arrived in Roseburg yesterday evening on the local. Regarding Congressional affairs the gentleman has not committed himself and the Parliamentarian was unable to give any authentic report about what he intends to do. He was met at the depot by a large number of political friends and has been in close consultation nearly all day today, but there is no authentic news for the public, but no doubt before a week has passed his final determination on the Congressional question will be announced.

Albany Won.

The basket ball game at the Roseburg theatre last night was won by the Albany team, the score being 12 to 8. The game was most interesting from start to finish, but neither team showed that they were capable of good team work. The best and most effective plays were made by Ramp and Ferguson, of the home team, who were easily the stars of the evening. McCall, the center, also did good playing. Bittman did good basket throwing for fouls, but Ramp, who has always been considered the best fast line basket thrower in this city, completely fell down. For the visitors, Rupert and Coates did the most effective work and McDaniels showed his affection for Bittman by continuously bugging him. There was considerable rough playing in last night's game, but all took it good naturedly. Following was the line-up:

Albany	Roseburg
Rupert	McCall
Coates	Ramp
McDaniel	Bittman
Morrison	Ferguson
Stellmacher	Stewart

Tonight there will be two games, Albany vs. Roseburg Maroons and Albany vs. Roseburg High school. Price of admission 25 cents to both saloons.

The Roseburg boys are under a large expense in bringing the Albany boys to this city, so all should turn out and give them a good home.

New Board of Trade.

Many of the enterprising citizens met in the Roseburg Lumber Company's office last Monday night to permanently organize. Ten individuals and firms agreed to pay ten dollars per month. After discussing ways and means the meeting adjourned to meet on Tuesday night at which meeting the same officers were elected viz: Mr. Woolley, chairman, and Mr. Whitcomb, secretary. Major Waite of the committee on ways and means reported that eighteen active members at $10 per month had been secured and that it was the object of the committee to secure twenty-five in total at $10 and then secure all the honorary members that could be secured at $5 per month.

The following committee were appointed: Committee on room and furnishings, Mr. Alley, Mr. Coib, Mr. Booth; committee on Constitution and By-Laws, Mr. Alley, Mr. Stuart, Mr. Wimbly; committee on Right of Way for switch from S. P. Track, Mr. Jamieson, Mr. Stuart, Mr. Waite, Mr. Shahan and Mr. London requested to act with the committee; committee on securing permanent seat, Mrs. W. W. Hamilton, Mr. Waite, and Mr. Whitcomb.

The first movement taken up for the benefit of Roseburg is the switch location from the S. P. to the Kinney addition. Just as soon as the track question is settled, a large packing establishment will be erected in Roseburg. We have been requested to withhold particulars for a few days; but enough can be given out to assure our citizens that trackage is the only difficulty in the way and Mr. London of the S. P. said that he believed that he management of the road would meet the citizens of Roseburg in the enterprise just as soon as the right-of-way is secured.

Last evening a citizen of Roseburg put his shoulder to the wheel and then the city will boom with public enterprise and double the population within the next three years.

25th ANNIVERSARY SALE

This month completes our 25th year in the Dry Goods business in Roseburg. For a quarter of a century we have catered to the wants of thousands of our townsmen, from the little store established in '78 to the present mammoth establishment which we occupy. Major Kinney, of the Great Central railroad, is this week in Coos county, where he has been called to let another contract for grading. It is said that the deep sand cut between Marshfield and Empire is nearly completed and that with the advent of spring the work will be pushed.

The railroad company should be more careful in keeping the crossing leading to the county bridge, open. Many times pedestrians and teams have to wait as long as fifteen minutes for a crossing; and often it is the case that the footway is blocked and people have to get out in the middle of the street, where the mud is shoe-month deep, to get across this crossing.

Virginia Drew Trecoott presented Lord Stathmore in the Roseburg theater, Tuesday night, to a large and appreciative audience. The play was good and had some striking morals all the way through, and Roseburg theater goers were well pleased as all the parts were well handled, and the acting of Miss Trecoott was some of the best stage work which has been seen in Roseburg for some time.

On Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 6 Mrs. T. R. Sheridan, very charmingly entertained about 20 guests at a progressive hearts. The decorations throughout the parlors were entirely of ferns and realer hearts. The talley cards were small red hearts with white cord and tassel and the count was kept with tiny green adhesive hearts. At the close of the game Mrs. M. Josephson and Mrs. F. W. Benson cut for the first prize, a cut glass dish, which fortune threw to Mrs. Josephson. Mrs. J. C. Aiken won the consolation, a framed water color sketch. Lunch, after the game, consisted of chicken salad, bread and butter sandwiches, omelet, ice cream, assorted cake and coffee, while fruit punch was served during the afternoon. Those present were: Meses. Barker, Child, Houston Ziegler, Benson, Josephson, W. S. Hamilton, J. W. Hamilton, Willis, W. T. Wright, Dr. Jno. Wright, Alken, J. C. Sheridan, Sanford, Laid, Haynes, Miller, Hann, McClallen, Devenney, Wollenberg, Theobald; Miss Hay, Oakland, Miss Mosier, Portland.

Steiner-Perry Nuptials.

As the most prominent social event of the week we are pleased to chronicle the happy marriage of Miss Hazel K. Perry and Mr. A. T. Steiner, which was solemnized at the residence of the bride's mother, Feb. 24, 1903, Rev. S. A. Douglas officiating.

Promptly at 8:30 a. m., to the sweet strains of the wedding march rendered by Miss Elsie Benedict, the bridal party entered the room and stood under a bower of Mistletoe, where the solemn words were spoken that made them one. Miss Bessie Stimpson, aunt of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and A. H. Steiner, brother of the groom, as best man. The bride looked lovely in a gown of turquoise blue and carried a train and a bouquet of white carnations. The groom wore the conventional black. The bride was beautifully decorated with trailing vines of smilax, rich carnations, evergreens and potted plants and was a veritable bejeweler of beauty and artistic taste.

After congratulations and many earnest wishes for the health, happiness and long life of the happy couple, all sat down to a charming wedding breakfast consisting of all the delicacies and most choice viands known to the culinary art. Accompanied by their relatives the newly wedded couple left on the 11:45 train and will visit in Portland, Astoria and Salem before returning here, when they will housekeep in the residence formerly occupied by W. C. Conner.

The young couple are both well and favorably known here and the PEER-DEALER joins their many friends in wishing them happiness and prosperity. Those present were: Mrs. L. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. D. Steiner, Mrs. Lillie Bertram, Misses Bessie Stimpson, Stella Harmon, Flossie Shanbhog, Elsie Benedict, Messrs. A. H. Steiner, W. C. Gray, M. Thompson, L. H. Zigler, Benjie and Arnie Bertram.
