abuse of pretty nearly everything. He proceeded in his vituperation without ng molested until he called the United States flag a dirty rag and indulged in other unpatriotic sentiments. A Quarter-master standing near reported this guage to Captain Rogers, commending the Seminole, and the latter took prompt action. All hands were called 4, 1802. to general muster, and the Captain addressed them on the enormity of the offense committed by one of their number. Then he compelled the culprit to kiss the flag six times and to repeat after him an obligation never to speak disrespectfully of it, or allow any one else to do so in his presence. The name of the offender is not made known.
