APRIL 9, 1903.
TO PROTECT THE BIRDS.
The Oregon Legislature passed two good bills of great benefit to the State from a moral and true civilization standpoint. The first referred to the execution of murderers in the penitentiary to be performed as privately as possible and the other was for the protection of our birds. From the latter law just published we glean the following salient points:
Section 1. No person shall, within the state of Oregon, kill or catch, or have in his or her possession, living or dead, any wild bird, other than a game bird, or purchase, offer, or expose for sale, transport, or ship within or without the state, any such wild bird after it has been killed or caught except as permitted in this act. No part of the plumage, skin or body of any bird protected by this section shall be sold or had in possession for sale. For the purposes of this act the following only shall be considered game birds: The snail-eater, commonly known as swans, geese, brant, and river and sea ducks; the raihan, commonly known as rails, coots, mud hens and gallinules; the limicolae, commonly known as shore birds, plovers, snail birds, snipe, woodcock, sandpipers, tattlers and curlews; the gallinaceae, commonly known as wild turkeys, grouse, prairie chickens, pheasants, partridges and quails.

Section 2. No person shall, within the state of Oregon, take or needlessly destroy the nest or eggs of any wild bird, other than a game bird, or have such nest or eggs in his or her possession, except as permitted by this act.
Section 3 provides the penalty—a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $100, or imprisonment upon conviction.
Sections 4 and 5 provide for certification by the president of the State Agricultural College and president of the University of Oregon, allowing the killing of birds and gathering of eggs to scientific purposes.
The emergency clause is attached to the bill.
The PLAINDEALER hopes that the citizens of Oregon will do the utmost they can to enforce the law because of the great moral and humane effect it will have on future generations, in preventing the taking of life from any living creature needlessly or heedlessly.

THE STRIKE SITUATION.
Over the whole of the civilized countries of the globe are reports of strikes and threatened strikes. Queen Wilhelmina of Holland has ordered all the army and navy forces to be in readiness to crush out the strike if revolution is attempted, there being 16,000 idle strikers in Amsterdam and 25,000 in other cities of the little kingdom.
In Russia the troops fired on a band of strikers in St. Petersburg yesterday and 30 were killed and 100 wounded.
At Rome traffic is tied up and the city is full of Italian troops ready to prevent riot by the strikers.
At New York 9,000 members of the allied building trade unions have struck and all over the United States the strike situation is daily growing more serious.
On the Pacific slope, at Tacoma and Seattle the strikers virtually lost the contest. At Vancouver, B. C., everything is about a standstill. The charges against George Estes, president of the United Brotherhood of Railway Employees, charging him with detaining His Majesty's mail, having been dismissed at Victoria by Judge Hall. At Portland the Painters' Union strike threatens to tie up entire building operations and the end of the strike situation no man can tell.

THE CONTEST AT EUGENE.
Yesterday morning the Hon. Binger Hermann, accompanied by John Love, A. M. Crawford, F. W. Benson A. C. Marsters, Geo. Bacon, Gerry Young, A. F. Stearns, A. W. Lamb, Leonard Perkins, Fenton Haines, W. P. Reed, Ben Huntington, T. E. Cannon and B. M. Armistead, the regularly accredited delegates, and Dr. Miller, Jos. T. Bridges, J. H. Booth, D. S. K. Buick, Geo. Staley, S. C. Flint, C. B. Cannon and other prominent republicans from Douglas county and also by Schiller B. Hermann, of Myrtle Point, and J. C. Roberts, D. E. Helling, R. H. Hom and Orrville Dodge, of Coos county, who are delegates to the convention.
The whole delegation were confident that the Congressional plan will fall in Major Sherman's mouth on the first or second chance of the tree.
Institute at Canyonville.
The local institute at Canyonville on Saturday, April 4th, was called to order at 9 o'clock by Supt. Hamlin, and Prof. W. B. Dillard was appointed secretary. Fifteen minutes were devoted to singing from the Busy Bee, Mrs. Colvig at the piano.
Prof. D. W. Wright then took up the subject of Percentage, presenting his method of introducing the subject to the class. This was followed by a general discussion of the subject.
After a short recitation and several songs, the subject of Spelling was taken up, and briefly introduced by Miss Devore, and discussed at some length by Professors Orcutt, Hamlin, Dillard and others.
In the afternoon, after several songs by the institute, and the song, Oregon, by a number of young ladies from the Riddle public schools, Prof. J. B. Ford presented his method of teaching history. He used for this purpose an ingeniously constructed chart of his own design. A general discussion followed.
Prof. Dillard then presented a carefully prepared paper upon the subject of Ninth Grade Work in the Public Schools. The subject was further discussed by Prof. Wright, Hamlin, Orcutt, Ford and Rev. Zimmerman.
Geography—What to Teach and How to Teach It, was the last subject considered. This was introduced by Prof. Orcutt, who presented a very practical plan of handling the subject.
Nearly all teachers within reach attended and the advanced pupils from Canyonville and Riddle, with friends and patrons, filled the school house.
Reports from San Domingo are to the effect that the government troops have won a decisive victory over the revolutionists.

HERMANN WILL BE NOMINATED
Special to the PLAINDEALER:
EUGENE, Ore., April 9, 1903.—Eugene is full of Republican politicians and the friends of all the candidates are certain that their man will be elected.
Dr. T. W. Harris called the convention to order, as temporary chairman on credentials, and order of business and resolutions have been appointed.
At three o'clock no ballot had been taken, but it is confidently believed that the Hon. Binger Hermann will lead all the candidates by 30 votes.
The nominating speeches are now being made and between intervals the Fourth Regiment band furnishes music. The convention has assembled in the Armory Hall. It is expected that many ballots will be taken before the contest is decided.
Eugene, Ore., April 9, 3:45 p. m.—Brownell has been elected permanent chairman of the congressional convention by a vote of 93 to 80. He will nominate the Hon. Binger Hermann and George Brown will second the nomination.
So far everything goes to insure the nomination of Mr. Hermann as his friends has captured the convention and it now seems possible that he will be nominated on the first ballot.

Eugene, Ore., April 9, 4 p. m.—Everything now points to the nomination of the Hon. Binger Hermann on the first ballot, but no ballot has yet been taken.
EUGENE, Ore., April 9, 4:10 p. m.—Congressional convention was organized by the election, of Geo. C. Brownell, chairman. The complete organization is in the hands of Hermann's friends. It is apparent that Hermann will be nominated on the first ballot. The vote on chairman resulted in 80 votes for Huston and 93 for Brownell.
A Curious Dispatch.
The following appeared in yesterday's Portland Telegram:
MUST NAME HERMANN.
OTHERWISE DOUGLAS AND COOS WILL SUPPORT DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.
ROSEBURG, Ore., April 8.—A large delegation of Hermann supporters accompanied the Douglas County delegates to the Republican Congressional Convention at Eugene. They were joined here by the Coos and Curry County delegates, who arrived in the city by private conveyances. All delegates and citizens of Coos, Curry and Douglas are for Hermann, first, last and all the time, and several hundred large red buttons, bearing the motto, "Binger Hermann for Congress," have arrived and will adorn the button-holes of the entire party. The Hermann men are out to win, and declare that their candidate will undoubtedly be nominated.
Some prominent Republicans claim that Binger Hermann is not nominated it is probable that Coos and Douglas counties will give a majority to the Democratic candidate.
The above is a slander on Mr. Hermann's friends and supporters and the Telegram doubtless knew all about fixing up such a scheme. In fact the two of the Oregonian like that sheet wants to get all its news from Roseburg highly colored and of a political nature to suit. The correspondents of both of those sheets are rabid democrats and are kept in the position in order that they may be able to furnish republican news items.

Doing at the Board of Trade.
The influences of the Roseburg Board of Trade are beginning to be felt in the community. Strangers from nearly every state are registered at the Board, and they are all very anxious to get the most reliable information possible about Douglas county and its resources. Many are in quest of timber, but a great majority of the new comers are people who desire to do a class of men willing to undertake the development of the latent resources of the country. Such a class of citizens is very much desired. We have moved in the same line for so long a time that we have become oblivious and careless of important matters within easy reach. While some persons who have recently come to Roseburg are farmers in a special line, many others are substantial men who are ready and willing to undertake new ventures. The little marble display at the Board room is attracting great interest, and people who know that they are talking about, freely state that the class of men who are exhibiting there would be very eagerly sought after by Eastern people. The mineral display is still more closely examined by people from other states, and but one opinion expressed; which is to the effect that one day the people of Oregon will awake to the fact that not only has the valuable timber of this state been reaped by Eastern people, but the stone and mines as well have gone to people who both know and appreciated their worth. But perhaps it is just as well for, while the old proverb says: "It takes three generations to breed a gentleman," it may take four to breed a man who is wise to his surroundings.
The Board of Trade is doing valuable work which is daily appreciated by strangers with a resultant benefit to the business men.

Three Score Years and Ten.
On Wednesday afternoon the ladies of the Mental Culture Club gathered at the home of Mrs. Oehme at a surprise party in celebration of Mrs. Oehme's seventy-first birthday, the day being also the forty-sixth anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. Oehme's marriage. Mrs. Oehme is the mother of the Mental Culture Club, which organization attended to a member, and there are no people in Roseburg so universally beloved as Mrs. Oehme and the Doctor. The pleasant affair was directed by Mrs. Child, the club president, and Mrs. Theobald, the secretary, who were assisted by Miss Barker and Willis. Besides many more lasting remembrances presented, the floral pieces were numerous and beautiful beyond description, particularly so being the scarlet carnations ordered from Portland by Mrs. Josephine and white carnations sent by Mrs. Wright and white carnations sent by Miss Byrd and Miss Simmons. Besides those already mentioned those present were: Mesdames Aiken, Anderson, Bartram, Bellows, Brown, Brooks, Flint, Fullerton, Hadley, J. W. and W. S. Hamilton, Hanan Huntington, Haynes, Josephson, Marston, Reed, Roberts, Strang, Sherwood, I. and A. Wellgren, Wright, Zigler, Misses Kate Boick and Zelma Zigler.
Columbia University at the Front.
Columbia University Students have organized an Anti-Race Suicide Club the following being the purpose in a nutshell: "If you are single, you agree to marry as soon as your income will allow and your family not less than five; if you are married, you agree to stay married even unto the third or fourth wife, and the same family requirements prevail."
It is to be named the Anti-Suicide Club.
It is said that young Mr. Patena, son of Col. Patena, was one of the first members of the club. President Roosevelt will be elected as honorary vice-president of the club.
Fairbanks, Morse Jack-of-all-trades gasoline engines for farm work, Grinding Mills, Pump, Churns, Wood Saws, etc., for sale by S. K. Sykes. 417

Must Marry or Pay.
One of the states of Argentina has enacted a law that is being watched by the people there, and especially by those affected by it, provisions which, in substance, are to the effect that every marriageable man must take unto himself a wife or add materially to the finances of the state. Hereafter the unmarried man over twenty years of age who refuses to join the Benefits will suffer for it. Between that age and thirty every single man will have to pay $5 per month to the support of the state. From thirty to thirty-five the tax is increased to $10, and from thirty-five to fifty to $20 per month. As a warning to elderly men that it is not good for them to live lone, tax is increased to $20 per month between the ages of fifty and seventy-five. After that age and until eighty, presumably because of decreased earning capacity, the tax is reduced to $20 per month, and after eighty it is remitted altogether.
That the lawmakers do not look upon marriage as a failure is shown in the provisions effecting widowers. Three years are given them to mourn the departed, but after that time they must take another spouse or help their celibate brethren to swell the state's treasury. Some recognition is given to the fact that a man may be honestly desirous of taking a mate and yet fail for no fault of his own, in the provision that when such a one can prove that he has tried to comply with the law as many as three times he will be exempt from the payment of taxes. Thereafter he may live alone, or continue his search of a fair one to whom he may be acceptable.
How the law will work in practice remains to be seen, but if the people there are anything like ours there is pretty good reason to believe that it will not prove a failure. As to this suggestion is strong that if the men of that country can pay from $5 to $20 per month for the privilege of remaining single it must be a good country to live in. It would go hard with the average American bachelor of fifty to seventy-five years to dig for taxes, and it is safe to say they would not stand for it. At any rate there will be a great marrying time in Argentina or a revolution.—Ex.

No Reversal.
"L'Economiste Francais," a financial journal of Paris, says: "The period of great business activity in the United States has already lasted longer than any analogous period in history." "L'Economiste" finds signs in the United States that often precede a crash, but warns Europe that these signs do not mean necessarily that there will be a crash this year.
This conservative French journal, like other European journals, dates our period of prosperity from the panic of 1902, and, holding to the tradition that prosperity comes in cycles and cannot be prolonged beyond a limit fixed by European precedent, predicts that we must meet another panic in the near future. Our period of prosperity dates from 1897, not from 1902. It came with the settled conditions assured by the adoption of certain definite policies in 1896. It has continued because those policies have been maintained and strengthened. It will continue because there is little opposition to our sound-money policy and little disposition to reverse or change our economic policy.
The European financiers seem to believe that 1904 will be a year of financial disturbance in the United States because of the uncertainty incident to the Presidential election. This does not follow. There is likely to be an election in 1904, but there is about the election in 1902. The American people knew what brought the present period of unexampled prosperity and they are not likely to vote a reversal of prosperity policies in 1904. If they do not, prosperity will continue for the same reasons that it continued after the Presidential election of 1900.—Chicago "Inter-Ocean."

Three Adventists Jailed.
The session of the biennial general conference of the Seventh Day Adventists was held at Oakland, Calif., last Sunday, and it was an exciting one and as a result of it three delegates from New York—H. T. Nelson, Oscar Land and F. O. Hollander—were locked in the city jail charged with having disturbed a religious meeting. Nelson is also held for battery, for at the service Sunday morning he attempted forcibly to remove from the platform Miss E. G. White, the woman preacher, who was delivering an address. Land and Hollander created their disturbances at night by insisting upon speaking before the conference was called to order. The three men were arrested at the instance of Elder W. H. Jones, of Oakland.
The three men under arrest claim to be interested in a movement to change some of the doctrines of the church. They belong to what is known as the "Fourth Society," and though they were able to go to the conference as delegates they were not with the Adventists in spirit. Their performances made the first trouble so far experienced by the general conference at this meeting.
While Miss White was speaking Nelson suddenly interrupted her. "You are not preaching true doctrine," he shouted as he stepped on the platform. Miss White persisted in speaking, whereupon Nelson caught her by the arm and tried to lead her from the platform. Several of the delegates interfered and the police patrol wagon was summoned to take the man to jail.
The second trouble occurred at night shortly after the delegates assembled. Before the conference could be called to order Land and Hollander both arose and began to speak on their doctrines. When they refused to stop Elder Jones had both arrested.

Alabama Tornado.
Yesterday morning a cyclone passed over Hopewell settlement, one and a half miles north of Hancockville, at 2 o'clock, and as a result 11 persons are dead, four fatally injured and a dozen more or less seriously hurt, while the destruction to property is heavy.
The storm came from the southeast and its roar was so terrific that it woke many people, some of whom fled from their homes in time to escape death. Buildings were tossed about like paper boxes, and several structures were blown a hundred yards or more. The body of McCoy, who was a prominent farmer, was blown 200 yards and landed in a sand pit. Trees were uprooted in all directions, and many were blown across the Louisville & Nashville track, delaying trains for a time.
Under the pressure of popular demand and the urgent request of congress, President Castro has announced his intention to remain the chief executive of Venezuela. The president attended the meeting of congress this afternoon. He read a long address to a crowded audience. His decision to remain in power was greatly applauded. It is the belief that President Castro decided the vote of confidence which he received.
Ex-Lieutenant Governor Tillman, of South Carolina was indicted by the grand jury for the willful murder of Editor Gonzales. The defense asked for a continuance of the case to the July term of court and Tillman went back to jail, bail being refused.

The Greater Interest.
German financiers continue to agitate measures aimed at American Industrial supremacy, and in their debates they make no secret of their dread of American power. Wednesday this hostility took the form of a bill to increase the tariff upon American refined petroleum, which was voted in the face of wise counsel to the contrary. Yesterday it appeared in a proposition by Baron Heyl von Herrnsheim to have the Government denounce the "most favored nation" treaties, especially with America. Herr Bernstein, socialist, pointed out that such action would react to the injury of Germany, but an agrarian member declared the United States is more interested in maintaining trade relations than Germany. As a matter of fact, the United States buys comparatively little from Germany, and we believe can find markets elsewhere for all products that Germany is not compelled to buy from us, regardless of duties Germany is not a self-supporting nation. The United States has plenty for its own people and to spare and goes abroad only for luxuries.—Pittsburg "Gazette."

Divorced Because of Insanity.
That the United States government should take up the subject of framing laws governing marriage and divorce here can be no doubt. As the case now stands every state has a different law and different causes for divorce are allowed to be plead for the dissolution of the marriage relationship. New York this week has demonstrated that that state is ahead of all others in granting divorce for cause without the knowledge or consent of the divorced party or the divorced party having been guilty of any kind of offense against her marriage vows or society at large. A dispatch says:
"Divorced on the plea that she was 'incapacitated,' Mrs. Henry M. Flager, a former wife of the Standard Oil multimillionaire, has lately shown great improvement in her mental state and there are strong reasons to believe that she will recover her reason completely. She is at New Rochelle and has been taking long drives daily, accompanied by a single attendant. Apparently she is in the best of spirits."
"On August 14, 1901, Flager divorced his wife, who had been a society leader, on grounds of insanity. Ten days later Flager married Miss Mary Kennan, of Wilmington, Del. It is not yet known whether the first Mrs. Flager, who is recovering her reason, knows she has been divorced."
"The situation opens embarrassing possibilities for all concerned that have not before been thought of. The first concern is the attitude of the first Mrs. Flager toward her former husband and toward the woman who has become mistress of the home she once graced. Almost as interesting as this phase of the situation will be the action of Flager and his present wife. When Flager married again, nearly two years ago, he was convinced the wife he had divorced, would always be a lunatic. He had tried every resource of science in the best physicians in the land to help him, but was no hope. Now comes nature unfolding another of her mysterious folds and confounding the doctors and making as Flager's faith in them. Mrs. Flager is wealthy in her own right, having an income of $100,000 a year."

McKenney the Murderer.
A special from Kingman, Arizona, of last Saturday's date, says: "News has just reached Kingman of the horrible murder of Charles Blakey, known as the 'Cowboy Planiest,' and Roy Winchester, a young miner, on the trail forty miles south of this place by James McKenney. Nothing definite is known of the cause of the murder, but it is thought that McKenney, who is wanted for the killing of William G. Lynn at Porterville, Cal., last July, took the men for officers and laid in wait for them on the trail. Blakey was shot in the breast and Winchester in the back, with a buckshot."
After the shooting the murderer went to a ranch and compelled the rancher to shoe two horses for him, and then rode away. The rancher failed to report the killing until three days after the occurrence. A sheriff's posse is now in pursuit of the murderer. McKenney is easily recognizable, having two joints of the left forefinger and is wounded in the left thigh. He has light hair and wears a heavy light colored sash chain and a short, thick nose, square chin and large ears.
Governor Brodie has been asked to send out rangers in pursuit, as it is thought McKenney has gone south into the bad man's land of Yuma county, where it is almost impossible for a small posse to go with safety."
The editor of the PLAINDEALER writes Charles Blakey in New Mexico several years ago. He was a wonderful performer on the piano and he took to cowboy life because he loved open air exercise and the fear of tuberculosis, which he seemed to dread. Before McKenney went to Arizona he killed two men in California in cold blood.
