High Grade Pianos.

How would it look if I were to advertise that I had Steinway, Knabe, Fisher and Neidham Pianos and some cheaper makes like Chickering, Kimball and others? It is just as consistent to say that Needham is cheap, for there is no better upright piano made. It has always stood among the high grades; it has never been bought cheap and never was sold as such, for it has to compete against all the high grade pianos that are now on the market.
