office this morning. With a party of timber hunters, he had come to Oregon, but had to leave without finding any to locate on.
There will be a conference of the Free Methodist church in Roseburg next Wednesday and holding over to the following Sunday. There will be from 40 to 60 ministers and delegates in attendance.
Mr. and Mrs. Week, who have been spending the winter in Arizona and Southern California resorts, stopped off on their way home to Portland, to visit for a short time, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Churchill.
Mr. Stanley Kidder, who has been in Roseburg for a three months' visit to his parents and sister, will leave on Saturday morning for San Francisco, from which place he will sail for Manila, where he is in the U. S. postal service.
The Great Central surveyors have moved their camp to Rocky Point, where they have a force of men, and will survey up South slough and over to the Coquille. They think they can find a short and easy pass by that route. —Marshfield Mail.
The Baptist church at Glide, known as the Lone Rock Baptist church, will on June 7, that day being the first Sunday in the month, be dedicated to the service of the Lord, and we invite everybody to be with us that day.
W. E. THOMPSON, Pastor.

The W. C. T. U.'s held a very enjoyable parlor meeting at the beautiful home of Mrs. C. A. Fahlbrede. Mrs. Rounds gave a very pleasant talk. The delicious refreshments were daintily and prettily served by the young ladies. We thank them very much for the music and songs rendered during the evening.
There was a called meeting of the city council, on Tuesday night for the purpose of awarding a contract for the laying and opening up of a sewer in the block 78. The contract was awarded to Sykes & Carroll, they bid $174.75, with 70 cents each for every y put in. Churchill & Woolley made a mistake in their figures and their bid was $230.
The fourth annual ball to be given on May 1st, by the Native Daughters of Julia Abraham Cabin No. 5, of this city, will no doubt be one of the greatest social events of the season. The best of music has been secured. A short and interesting program will be rendered before dancing is begun. The prices of admission are: gentleman's ticket, admitting himself and lady, $1.00; spectators, twenty-five cents.
Ben Hendricks played "Ole Olsson" to a crowded house Tuesday night. The Swedish brogue he used in this production was so natural that one thought he was just from Sweden. The play was good all the way through. Special attention was attracted to the Swedish quartette, which beyond all doubt did some as fine singing as was ever heard in the Roseburg theatre. Ole and the sonnette did some good dancing and singing also.
A delivery team made things lively for a while on Tuesday afternoon. They started and ran down Jackson street at the rate that would make a city "Hoodlum" wagon team ashamed of themselves. They cut around the corner of Jackson and Douglas streets so fast that they barely missed throwing the big delivery wagon, at the very door of the McCallen House. They chased up Douglas street for a little way, when their terrific pace was arrested by Walter Dixon, who held on to them until they were finally stopped. There was no damage done to either team or wagon.
Come one, come all, to the box supper at the Mission Chapel, given for the benefit of the Edenborer Baseball Club, Saturday evening, April 25th. The ladies are requested to bring well filled boxes, and the gentlemen equally well filled purses. The boys of Edenborer have been striving to have a baseball team, without which no community is complete. They have been fortunate enough to organize a fairly good team, and all they need now is financial help, toward which we know the community will contribute largely. We know you will "be there."
MAKAGER.
Major Shipley having tendered his resignation to Governor Chamberlain will retire from the Oregon Soldiers Home as Commandant on May 1, when W. W. Elder will assume charge. Major Shipley was appointed four years ago by Governor Geer and has made a faithful and efficient officer. But a democratic Governor was elected and "to the victors belong the spoils" so for his health's sake he resigned. Major Shipley will leave next week for San Francisco where he will make his future home. The new Commandant, W. W. Elder, comes highly recommended socially but politically he is a regular sock-ribbed ruler of the fighting stripe.
The Central Oregon Silver Lake, has reached this office and it says: The nomination of Hon. Binger Hermann for the republican candidate to represent the First District of Oregon in the lower house of congress, will give entire satisfaction to the republicans of the Second District, as well as those of the First. Mr. Hermann has represented this State in congress with fairness and ability, and no man from this state has acquitted the halls of congress with a more successful record than has the redoubtable Binger. He stands with the republican leaders of the nation on all questions of importance, and he has many friends among the congressmen at the national capital who will welcome him as a colleague when he returns to represent the First District of Oregon in the Fifty-Eighth Congress.

Red Hill News Notes.

Miss Anna Cockeran visited Youcalla Wednesday.
A. McCarty, George Armstrong and others were transacting business on the Hill, Monday.
Ray Langdon visited his grandmother who is very ill in Shoestring, Sunday.
William Bainbridge, of Elk Head, purchased some very fine goats of H. Cockeran a few days ago.
Alva R. Manning was a guest of his cousin, of this place last Monday and Tuesday. Come again Mr. Alva.
Chas. Westenhiser had the misfortune to lose one of his fine milk cows last week.
D. J. Fritts has bought the Finney place in Elk Head, and will soon take possession of same.
Why is it that all the Fair Oaks girls like to have one of our "scrubs."
W. V. Cockeran attended the Kanipe Bainbridge, wedding in Oakland.
Miss Mary Turnip, of Oakland, and Miss Mattie, of the Swale, was visiting their parental home Saturday and Sunday.
Miss Birdie Langdon came home from Shoestring, Sunday.
The Misses Thompson's and Ralph Westenhiser are progressing nicely with their music lessons, under the management of Ray Langdon and Miss Cockeran as teachers. These two young people were glad to say, have become excellent music teachers.
Mr. R. R. High Stepper will leave for Fair Oaks, Sunday, and next week will work for H. Manning of that place.
Attractions at "The Cockeran Ranch" allured Clarence Smith from Rice Hill, Sunday. What next we wonder?
Youcalla seems to be the stopping place for one or two of our boys now. It's all right boys as long as you don't fall off the side walk and knock Jim's fences down.
Why is it that all the old maids seem to think they can boss the young fry?
Fred Dobson was a guest of Daisy Thompson, one day last week.
Alfred McCord has changed his route, but we think his attentions are as good as they ever was.
LeRoy A. Linner, is expected here soon from Pendleton, and will be a guest of Ward Cockeran, of this place.
We are sorry to say that John Watchenhiser is sick with lagrippe.
Roy Roland seems to make his regular trips to Youcalla. What's the attraction Roy?

School Notes.

Two more Eighth Grade Final Examinations will be held this year on May 20, 21, and 22, and the other June 17, 18, and 19.
The marking of the manuscripts of the April examination will be completed by day. Successful applicants will be announced in Monday's issue.
The April apportionment of twenty two thousand two hundred eighty dollars and sixty one cents which has just been made is the largest single apportionment of County funds in the history of the County. Under the new law next year each child of school age will draw six dollars of County funds, which with the State funds will amount to about seven dollars and a half per capita.
