Jackson, Inspector, General of the National Guard will also be present and inspect for the state.

Yesterday there was a very exciting base ball game between Roseburg and Edenbowser. The score stood 15 to 7 in favor of Edenbowser, and the features of the game were over-throw, errors and rotten playing all around, such as a fielder making a thirty yard run for a fly ball, and fell down just as he was about to catch it.

Wm. Gawler, one of the employes of roundhouse, was quite badly hurt last Friday evening while standing by the side of an engine while it was being wooded up. A stick of wood fell and struck him on the head, lacerating the scalp and making a bad gash over the eye, which necessitated a few stitches being taken by Dr. Honck. Mr. Gawler is getting along nicely.

Yesterday was the 84th anniversary of the L. O. O. F. and the Rebekahs. Both orders attended the Baptist church, in a body. Rev. Douglas preached a beautiful sermon, from the text, "Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father, is this: To visit the fatherless and the widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world." James 1:XXVII.

J. W. Ingle, the Socialist nominee for congressman, accompanied by N. W. Wilkins, National organizer of the Socialist party, addressed a fair-sized audience at the L. O. C. F. hall last night, Wilking making the speech of the evening. Not a hand clasp or other mark of applause greeted the speaker, though he was listened to with the strict attention that denoted interested auditors.—Drain Nonpareil.

This week Marion county takes her last off to Governor Chamberlain. He has selected one of her faithful democrats for a responsible position. He has named W. W. Elder, of Stayton, to be commandant of the Soldiers' Home at Roseburg. Mr. Elder is a good business man, a progressive citizen, and one of Marion county's very best residents. He is to be congratulated—so is the home, the state, the governor, and the old soldiers.—Salem Sentinel.

Township 15 s., of r 3, was thrown open to settlement on Friday morning. There was a nice rush for the land and about 29 claims were filed on. All of this township with the exception of sections 31 and 32 are claimed by the northern Pacific R. R. Company. Nearly all of those who filed claim that they had their cabins on the land before it was granted to this company some two years ago. Here is a good chance for con testing.

In response to a call made by Mrs. H. C. Stanton, who was appointed for that purpose, by Mrs. Galloway, state organizer for the Ladies' Lewis and Clark Exposition Club, there assembled at the Board of Trade quite a number of ladies, Mrs. Stanton in the chair. A temporary president and secretary were chosen. The organization was not fully completed owing to the fact that there was not present enough ladies to take a vote on the matter. There will be another meeting at the Board of Trade Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. It is earnestly requested that there be a large attendance, so that the organization may be completed and some work done along the line for which this club is being organized.

W. C. Congill, city editor of the Democrat, Baker City, was a caller this morning. He is working up signatures for the referendum to be used on the Eddy bill, Portage bill and the Tax Exemption bill. He says that each of these measures will be referred to the people. When asked why Eastern Oregon papers would not take the matter up and yet they expect the southwest to help them out in their fight. At the present time scores and hundreds of signatures are being secured to the Lewis and Clark bill. For the good of the state at this time it is best to let

A pleasant surprise party was given Mr. John Townsend, at the home of Miss Elsie Benedict, Saturday evening. All were very pleasantly entertained by their hostesses. Miss Elsie, while John recovered his self-possession. At a late hour a delicious lunch was served, which consisted of sandwiches, salad, assorted cakes and ices. Those present were: Misses Bessie Kidder, Della Moore, Bessie Coshaw, Ella Black, Lillith Moore, Anna Wharton, Hazel Jewett, Emma Sehlbrede, Vivian Jewett and Elsie Benedict. Messrs Ray Oley, Lester Bell, Volney Dixon, Dalley Bell, Floyd Ramp, Mar Hannan and John Townsend.—C. F. C.

The Crown Princess Louise of Saxony, who eloped with a music teaching lover in December, and was divorced in February is at last to become a mother, and the child will be a prospective heir to the Crown of Saxony. A special delegation has been sent from Munich, the Capital of Saxony, to attest to the birth of the "royal nibe" and to take it from the mother when it is three weeks old. The child will then be raised second hand. The moral rottenness of nine out of ten of those "noble and royal families" put in mind of the Pirates of Penzance, whose Captain, when asked if all the cut-throats were noble, replied to the English lord, "Yes, all are noble, and as he looked down the line and saw the veriest lot of secondhands that remained unshing, he quailed by adding softly: "nearly all."

The latest postal laws are that the publisher can arrest anyone for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under the law, the man who lets his subscription run along for some time unpaid and then leaves orders for its discontinuance leaves him liable to arrest and fine the same as theft. It will be seen that many disputed points are disposed of by that decision, which is certainly just. If a subscriber does not want to renew his subscription, let him notify the publisher. The second decision given here will be a surprise to some publishers who believe that they must stop a delinquent subscriber if ordered to. The delinquent must pay up if he wishes to be held responsible for it as long as the paper is being sent to him, whether he takes it from the post-office or not.—Eugene Guard.

At the Roseburg Land Office last Friday township 15 south, range 3 east, located in Linn county, was opened to settlement and about 40 persons were at the land office to file on their land. It seems that the railroad company wanted to file on some of the land and a young man named Patterson was in line to do so. He stood the third man in the door, ready to enter at 9 o'clock. Before that time Mr. Andrews, the Land Agent of the Southern Pacific company, handed him a lot of location papers and some money and then the fun began. Mr. Patterson was literally kicked out of line and forced to the bottom by the crowd of homestead seekers. It is claimed by some of our citizens, that when violence was used on Patterson, forcing him out of line, that the men's entries, who did so, if the land entered by them was the same land as Patterson had the papers for, can be successfully contested, because force was used
