Mr. Brown is accompanied by W. T. Muir, the company's attorney.

F. B. Waite, of this city, has just purchased a fine little Shteland roan and road wagon for his little daughter, Ethel. The wagon is a neat, well finished, up-to-date affair and will without doubt create a murmur of envy among the children of this city, as it will soon be seen on the streets of Roseburg, drawn by its Lilliputian horse driven by its miniature owner.

Sheriff Parrott left for Salem this morning with R. P. Ormstone, of Olalla, who was examined by Dr. Du Gas, and pronounced insane. Mr. Ormstone is laboring under the delusion that he has committed some crime, for which the law will punish him.

The opening of the Valley League baseball season has been postponed one week. The first game will be played on Saturday, May 9th. The League Board of Control will meet in Albany the latter part of this week, and the schedule will probably appear next Monday. There will be 24 games played by each team, 12 at home and 12 away. The season closes about July 18.

The Los Angeles Lulas, under the management of J. D. Marley, were aboard Tuesday's local, enroute to Portland, where they will play a game of base ball, on Wednesday. Joe Corbett will occupy the box. Los Angeles has the distinction of having the highest priced pitcher in the United States. It is estimated that the wages which he earns in this capacity, would amount to one dollar for every ball he throws over the plate.

BORN.

SINGLETON--In this city, April 29, 1903, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Singleton, a 11-pound boy.

MARRIED.

WRIGHT--MESSLER.--A very pretty home wedding occurred last night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Messler. Mr. Fred Wright was united in marriage to Miss Maude Messler. The ceremony was performed in the parlor at 8:10.

The bride was tastefully attired in a delicate blue crepe de chine with drop yoke of white chiffon. The bridesmaid, Miss Victoria Chadwick, was attired in a drab silk. The groom had on the regulation black. Mr. Mel Thompson served in the capacity of best man.

The bride and groom, accompanied by the maid and best man, marched into the parlor, which was decorated for the occasion. On one side of where they stood was a large palm, on the other was a large jar filled with beautiful ferns. On either side was a vase of white flowers, and in the center and on the wall in front of where the party stood, a large cluster of white flowers, all of which made the parlor look very pretty.

After Rev. Dawson had finished the Episcopal marriage ceremony, he congratulated the newly wedded couple, after which those present gave the bride and groom the glad tidings of a long life and prosperity. Refreshments were served consisting of ice cream and cake. After refreshments were finished there was a glass of milk to the bride and groom.

Those who had the pleasure of attending were: Miss Mabel Crabtree, Miss Leona Sloper, Mrs. Thomas Thomas, Miss Woodward, Elmer Wimberly and Harry Brooks.

The PLAINDEALER joins their many friends in wishing them peace and prosperity.
