In the Justice Court for Deer Creek District

"This work of expansion was by far the greatest work of our people during the years that intervened between the adoption of the constitution and the outbreak of the Civil War. There were other questions of real moment and im-portance, and there were many which at the time seemed such to those or-gaged in answering them; but the greatest feat of our forefathers of those generations was the deed of the men who, with pack train or wagon train, on horseback, on foot or by boat upon the waters, pushed the frontier ever west-ward across the continent." the greatest work of our people during The Columbia Tailoring Co ward across the continent."
