Sound Declaration by New York Republicans on Tariff and Trusts. The declarations of the New York state Republican convention of Sept. 24, 1902, on the subjects of tariff and trusts are as follows:

The greatest national issue is the maintenance of prosperity. The pledge given by William McKinley of abundant work Blaine intimately and of conferring with and good wages, based on the passage of him upon this matter. His idea was that we should arrange reciprocity treaties. The integrity of the protective principle. must be preserved.
