Base Ball.

The Eugene Register says: While the Valley League clubs have exchanged the complimentary salutations having secured a game, yet it will be impossible to get a line on the relative strength of the four teams until the Salem and Albany aggregation shall have crossed paths with those of Eugene and Roseburg.

Thus far, one thing has been demonstrated to the fans; that Roseburg has a track & pack aggregate of stick welder's prime requisite in which the locals are weak.

Sunday's game had many interesting features that kept enthusiasts on the qui vive. About six hundred patrons of the game saw the locals fall before the superior prowess of the visitors after having drubbed them on the previous day. Eugene's defeat was due partially to the strengthening of the visitors line up by the addition of three or four new players.

Bradley's work in the box was a feature of the game. He pitched superb ball and had Manager Griffin's punters agitating the vapors at all stages of the game.

Those who opine that Taliaferro has not the educated wing that will nip in the bud many beloved stunts, would better nourish a little more baseball knowledge. He had some professional masters at the end of the toasty bat who will make the trackmark from the suits of his pitchers. Then, again, it was his first game. Empire Vindictive was any friend of the game was not fallible in his decision, but he made the mistake several times of reverting those which should have been "outs" to "balls," then if it is wrong, what is the benefit of the other? When the benefit of a close decision? Following was the score by innings:

Roseburg 12 0 2 0 3 0 0 0
Eugene 0 0 3 0 0 1 0 1

The next series will be played as follows: At Salem Saturday and Sunday—Salem vs Eugene; At Roseburg—Roseburg vs Albany.

Fire and Brimstone.

At the Methodist preachers' meeting in New York City on Monday the Rev. Charles S. Morris, speaking on "The Black Man's Side of the Negro Problem," declared that the charges of criminal assault against negroes in the South were one phase of a preconcerted and determined assault being made, systematically abetted by Southern men in the North, in the pulpits, in the press, and in the public addresses, with the avowed purpose to so blacken the good name of the negroes as to get the North to turn the white problem over to the South, to solve as the South sees fit.

"Through length of residence, through steadfast service to the county in both peace and war; and through the wisdom he has shown in the use of his vote, the negro has a clear right to the ballot," declared Mr. Morris.

"If the United States does not protect the negro in his right to the ballot, the Nation deserves to be damned," cried a voice in the audience.

"If they do not they will be damned," the speaker replied. Irving G. Penn of Georgia, assistant secretary of the Colored Epworth League, declared it would not be safe to make such an address down South, nor would it be safe for one living in the South to make such an address if he expected to return to his home.

to be used is very much a matter of taste. It is important, though, that the frames set properly on the nose, and at the right distance from the eyes. That the lenses be perfectly centered, and how are you to know when some one is guessing.
