WHISPERING TOO LOUD!

I have heard it whispered in loud tones that I was going to quit the music business, but that is only another from the old source for the purpose of gaining a point. Even if I succeed in my new enterprise, it will be only another step towards holding my own against the trusts and combines. I am about the only piano dealer now on the coast that is going it alone and single handed. I am grateful to the many friends who are giving me their patronage, for each month is bringing in greater results. I have never been guilty of selling a cheap piano for a high price or of misrepresenting the goods I handle, or even my competitor except in a defensive manner. And the name NEEDHAM (as he has no connection with that house) must be dropped from his ad. or he will hear something drop in regard to the price of Victor pianos that will surprise him and the public, or better see clipping from an eastern paper in my window, where Victors are offered for nearly two thirds less than is asked for them on this coast. This trick of holding a piano and keeping it in bad order just to knock its good qualities, is getting to be an old gag and the public certainly sees it or we would not continue to sell so many high grade Needham pianos.

Do you remember not long ago, when a certain dealer got hold of a few Steinways and sold them for low prices just to burt its reputation? Did it hurt it? No and neither can they hurt NEEDHAM because it speaks for itself.

All our last sales are a choice between NEEDHAM and Chickering, NEEDHAM winning out every time. Watch next ad. for names of purchasers.
