Roseburg certainly has had luck in keeping her baseball pitchers. After this, when Roseburg gets a man who can play ball like Druhot, they should bind him by a contract to play out the season.

In 1855 he was married to Miss Lucretia Ridenour, and to them were born twelve children of whom seven are still living. They are as follows: D. R. Shambrook, Roseburg; B. F. Shambrook, Portland; Jesse L. and Miss Maud Shambrook, Umpqua Ferry; Mrs. Robt. Evans, Silverton; Mrs. Martha Stewart, Myrtle Creek and Mrs. Mary McKetchnie, of Astoria.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Geo. H. Bennet, at Coles Valley today. Interment in the cemetery at that place.

Mr. Shambrook was a highly esteemed citizen of Douglas County, and one of its earliest settlers. Thus another of the early pillars of civilization in the West, has passed away to the land where trials and troubles are o'er, and all is happiness and sunshine.

HODSON.—At the home of Rev. J. M. Reese, in West Roseburg, Sunday, July 12, 1903. Mrs. Amanda Hodson, aged 72 years, 10 months and 8 days. #### MORE GAMES LOST.

Morris, the Salem Twirler is too much for the Grays.

Loss of Second Game due to Costly Errors.

GAMES SATURDAY, July 11. At Roseburg.—Salem 9; Roseburg 0. At Albany (12 innings.) Albany 10; Eugene 9.

GAMES SUNDAY, July 12. At Roseburg.—Salem 5; Roseburg 3. At Albany.—Eugene 6; Albany 1.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.
	WON	LOSS
Salem	13	6
Eugene	10	9
Roseburg	9	9
Albany	6	14

Roseburg by losing the last series of games to Salem, has dropped from second to third place in the Willamette Valley League.

Her chances of winning the pennant are now very poor indeed and it is doubtful if she will ever get second place unless she plays better ball than she has the last two games.

SUNDAY'S GAME.

In the game Sunday Druhot was in the box for Roseburg. His brother occupied the second station and McNeil was in right garden, which gentlemen and the new second basemen are mainly responsible for the loss of the game. Lucas pitched for Salem until the seventh inning, when Morris was substituted. Morris is certainly a ball player and if he keeps on will in a few years play with the "big league". Druhot pitched an excellent game for Roseburg, and had he had support would have won the game.
