

The Penitentiary Yawns.

The Portland Telegram says: "A sensational statement, containing serious charges against Detective Frank Snow, and casting grave aspersion upon Detective John Kerrigan, was filed with General Charles F. Beebe, chairman of the Board of Police Commissioners, today:

The statement is signed by L. R. Fields, a real estate dealer, having offices in the Alisky building, and Councilman Sharkey, who is a part owner of the New Grand Central Hotel. In the hostelry named, Frank Kemper, a farmer near Hillsboro, Or., was robbed of $50 Friday night, and the direct charge named against Detective Snow by the signers of the statement is attempting to persuade the complaining witness to leave the city and to drop prosecution of the case, after he had notified the police of the robbery. No direct charge is made against Detective Kerrigan, but he is compared with "Bob" Patterson, who is said by the police to be notorious as the friend of thieves, and whose saloon became so noted for robberies that the City Council refused to renew his license.

After the robbery had been reported to the police, Chief Hunt detailed Detectives Kerrigan and Snow upon it. In the meantime Councilmen Sharkey, Bently and Foeller, together with L. R. Fields, took up the case, and learned enough to convince them that something was decidedly wrong, and that the detectives were not making proper efforts to catch the thief and prosecute the case. Subsequently they went to the Union Depot, where Kemper, the complaining witness, was found. He was about to board his train for Hillsboro. Mr. Fields placed him under arrest, and he was taken to the City Jail.

Annie Pollard was arrested Saturday by Detective Snow. She was charged with Kemper robbery, and in the Municipal Court this morning she waived examination and was held to the grand jury under $1500 bonds.

Both Detectives Kerrigan and Snow deny the charges against them.

Chief Hunt stated that there will be a thorough investigation of the case."

Is it any wonder that life and property are not safe in Portland? Is it any wonder that vigilance law is advocated and commended? Is it any wonder that Portland is a stench in the nostrils of Oregon.

Reduced Excursion Rate of the Seaside and Mountain Resorts for the Summer.

The Southern Pacific Company has placed on sale, at very low rates, around trip tickets to the various resorts along its lines, and also in connection with the Corvallis & Eastern Railroad, to Detroit and the seaside at Yaquina Bay, after tickets good for return until October 10th.

Three-day tickets to Yaquina Bay, good going Saturdays, returning Mondays, are on sale at greatly reduced rates, from all points Eugene and north on both East and West Side Lines, enabling people to spend Sunday at the seaside. Very low round trip rates are also made between Portland and same points on the Southern Pacific, good going Saturdays, returning Sunday or Monday, allowing Portland people to spend Sunday in the country and the out-of-town people to have the day in Portland.

Tickets from Portland to Yaquina Bay, good for return via Albany and East Side, or Corvallis and West Side, at option of passenger. Baggage checked through to Newport. A new feature at Newport, this year, will be an up-to-date kindergarten in charge of an experienced Chicago teacher.

A beautifully illustrated booklet describing the seaside resorts on Yaquina Bay has been published by the Southern Pacific and Corvallis & Eastern railroads, and can be secured from any of their agents, or by addressing W. E. Conant, G. P. A., S. P. Co., Portland, or Edwin Stone, Manager C. and E. R. R., Albany, Oregon.
