

POPULAR NORTH BEACH.

Roseburg People Will Find This an Ideal Recreation Resort.

Many Roseburg people have decided to spend their vacation at Popular North Beach, at the mouth of the Columbia. Leaving Portland (daily except Sunday and Monday) on the O. R. & N. Co.'s palatial Steamer T. J. Potter—queen of river boats—five hours are consumed in making the trip to Astoria, the scenery including all that is beautiful, and through the great salmon fishing waters of the Lower Columbia. After a short stop at Astoria, the steamer is off for Ilwaco, on Baker's Bay, where the passengers board the train waiting and are soon off for North Beach, the popular summer resort of the North Pacific coast. During the trip from Ilwaco the first good view of the Pacific is secured, the train running along the ridge of the beach within two hundred yards of the breakers. The beach is twenty-seven miles long, two hundred yards wide at low tide, and so hard that carriage wheels scarcely leave a mark. It is an ideal place for driving, riding, wheeling, or walking, and the surf bathing is unsurpassed. The excellent hotels and boarding places provide good accommodations at prices ranging from one dollar to three dollars per day.

The round trip rate from Portland to Astoria is $2.50; to Ocean Beach points $4.00, good until October 15th. On Saturdays, during July and August, round trip tickets are sold to beach points at $2.50, good for return leaving the beach the following Sunday evening.

To Stop Lynching, Stop Outrages.

No white woman in the negro belt dare traverse the public highway alone; while on the other hand, any negro woman can go from the Potomac to Texas alone, on foot, unmolested, in absolute safety, says Harpers Weekly. The white farmers' wife sits at home in fear and trembling, even through her husband may be working in a neighboring field. This insecurity has had a disastrous effect on agricultural prosperity; because of it thousands and thousands of farmers have left the rural districts for the towns and cities. The writer in the Sun declares that if Justice Brewer and his "popular uprising" will find a remedy to stop the assaults upon the white women, so that they can have the freedom of the highway, or enjoy peace and safety in their home, thousands of families will go back inlander to the old farms, and the waste places of the black belt will once more blossom as the rose. It is offering no remedy to say that, if the negro assailant of a white woman is caught, he can be punished by law.

As General Fitzhugh Lee pointed out the other day, it is asking too much of the poor victim to require her to go to a courthouse, and there, before a curious crowd, go into details of her sufferings and humiliation. To a modest woman suicide were preferable. In the judgment of white women of the South, the vital question is not how shall lynching be stopped, but how shall white women be protected? It is a question, moreover, which the North is bound to help the South in solving. As the North took the negroes from their white owners after the Civil War, and organized them into so-called "loyal leagues," and started them along lines adverse primarily to the Southern whites, and indirectly to the blacks themselves, destroying the influence of the former masters and teaching the negroes to look to the North for teaching and guidance it now behooves the North to undo its work, if it can, and to make the negroes understand that a white woman shall not be assaulted, and that, if negro teachers, and preachers, and negro colleges fail to stop the atrocious crime, the North will withdraw its countenance from them, or co-operate in a movement to coerce negroes into a repression of their brutal instincts.

Great Men and Great Pianos.

President Roosevelt has just bought a fine Knabe piano, and the late vice-president Hobart has at his residence a fine NEEDHAM, such as we are selling every day, right here at Roseburg, and since the good judgement of Roosevelt we have secured the agency for the Knabe and the J. & C. Fischer. These are all world-renowned pianos, of the highest standard. We have also in transit a lot of those medium pianos for which the people are paying all the way from $275.00 to $300.00 and even more.

We are going to offer the same grade for $150.00, $175.00 and $200.00. These figures will surprise those who have been buying those so-called high-grade pianos. Besides this lot we will have the genuine CABLE piano and not the Herbert M. Cable. It will pay you to see this line before buying a piano.
