Opera House Opening.

The theatrical season will open Thursday night with Mr. Frank Bacon the delightfully droll comedian, in the rural classic, "The Hills of California." Mr. Bacon is one of the best known Comedians on the Coast, having been the principal actor of the Alcazar, in San Francisco, for the past three years.

Mr. Wallace Hunt, a theatrical man of long experience, is to be congratulated on securing Mr. Bacon's signature to a three years contract. He will take his star and play East. From here the Company go direct to Portland, than East, where "The Hills of California" will be given a New York production. The play is written in and around the lives of those who live in this land by the Sundown Sea, where the Oak lives or a thousand years, and the poppy blooms but a day. A heart story of today. The characters we see and know. The California Quartette, who are with this company came most highly recommended, and it is said their singing alone is worth the price of admission, they will render some of the latest musical gems. Prices, lower floor 50 and 75 cts., gallery 25 and 35 cents.

Grand Ball.

At Olalla, re-union grounds, Sept. 2nd and 4th, good music and refreshments will be furnished. Come one come all and have a general good time 6-42t. McFARLAND and WELLS.
