

No Crowding and No Vermin. The illustration shows a novelty which will recommend itself to the poultry keeper for two reasons—first, because it will prevent the fowls from crowding each other on the roosts, and, second, because of the provision it makes for bringing a vermin destroyer within close proximity to the fowl while roosting without the latter touching it. These devices can be brought into use in connection with the roosting poles already in position in the henhouse, and consequently there is no expense for changing the roosts. The invention is a simple one, consisting of a single piece of wire which is formed into a loop near one end, with the shorter end formed into a screw to aid in inserting it in the wooden roost. The longer end is not bent to its final position until after the screw is inserted in the wood, when the loose end is twisted into the location shown below the roost. It is an easy matter to attach a small rag or a piece of sponge to the depending end with any liquid verminicide, and the vaporizing of this liquid will serve not only to keep the vermin from crawling over the roosts, but drive the lice from the bodies of the fowls, as the odor will permeate the feathers when the birds are on the roosts at night. The inventor of this device is John H. F. Everest of Walla-walla, Wash.

Oats, Corn and Green Bone. Give me hulled oats, cracked corn and green bone and I will, without any other means of feeding, build up a strain of birds with frames so large that they will more than reach the different weights required in the Standard and not be spoiled for breeding by an excess of fat, says Rev. C. E. Peterson in American Poultry Journal. Of course, we take for granted that summer chicks have all the green food they want. If not, it must be supplied. When green bone is not handy, bone meal mixed in the soft food is excellent. Wherever it is used there will be no complaint of leg weakness. I use it continuously, and if its valuable properties were fully understood it would form one of the staple articles in chicken diet, especially where the chicks must be kept in confinement.

Importance of a Good Market. To all those who contemplate raising poultry and eggs for market let us say that a good market is of first importance. You should know what market you are to supply and what that market demands before you spend a dollar or take the first step toward going into the business. What you will want to do is to get into a position to furnish exactly what your market demands, what it prizes most highly and will pay a premium on. Desirable goods always sell the easiest, and you will want to join with your marketmen in catering to this invariable rule.—Success With Poultry.

Piano Buyers.

You will notice that we do not have to be continually striking out for a new make of Pianos. The Needham has been our leader for 14 years and is today a leader among the high grade pianos of the world. Some cheap pianos are made high grade simply by getting a boost in the Oregonian or some other leading paper, through those big dealers who think they can, and do make the majority of people believe it simply because they say so. It doesn't take ink, boost or high commissions to make a good piano, but instead the very best mechanics, and the very best material such as are always used in Needham pianos. 29-1f
