On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. W. T. Wright and Mrs. Dr. John Wright charmingly entertained a party of ladies numbering about 35 guests at the ever popular game of "hearts." Nothing prettier could be imagined than the floral decoration as they were arranged throughout the house. In the hall, tall vases of American Beauty roses, red carnations and scarlet sage contrasted pleasingly with the green of ferns, and the banisters were wound with long vines of wisteria. In the front parlor, only white and green appeared, the flowers being white asters and handsome white roses set off by their own foliage, while the back parlor showed a lavish and effect use of pink La France roses and boules of lavender and white sweet peas. In the dining room were used purple and white sweet peas were used. The first prize went to Mrs. Sam Evans, of Umpqua Ferry, and the consolation to Mrs. Tom Sheridan. Mrs. Louis Belfie and little Miss Fannie Campbell assisted in receiving and serving the dainty lunch.
