Birth Rate in New York.

The birth rate figures of New York city, calculated by periods of time by Dr. Louis Haupt of the board of education, have been made public. The figures for the first quarter of this year give a general rate for the entire city of eleven babies born every hour.

This is apparently an enormous increase over the birth rate for the corresponding quarter of last year, but is not really a more than normal increase, and is accounted for by the natural increase in the adult population The figures are more comprehensive than ever before, and that makes the apparent difference.

Nevertheless, a birth rate of eleven children an hour is very great, and shows the rapid progress of the city toward being the greatest in the world. Dr. Haupt conjectures that the birth rate in the more thickly populated districts of the East Side is fifteen an hour, and in the most congested districts at least twenty an hour.

He admitted that he thought a conjectural rate of one baby a month in the ultr-afashionable districts, including Murray Hill, would be a fair estimate, but he said that he would not want to be responsible for that estimate.

On the West Side above Fourteenth street, Dr. Haupt believes the birth rate to be from eight to fifteen an hour.

The sections of the city built up with what are known as apartment houses have a birth rate of approximately five children an hour.

Fortunes in Goats.

A statement just presented by the department of commerce and labor, through its bureau of statistics, shows that importations of goat skins into the United States are now running at the rate of $25,000,000 per annum, and that a large share of these are brought from India, China, Arabia and southeastern Russia. The increasing popularity of certain classes of kid leather for footwear, as well as gloves, has increased very greatly the demand for goat skins in the United States within recent years. In 1885 the value of goat skins imported was about $4,000,000; by 1890 it had grown to $9,000,000, by 1898 it was $15,000,000, in 1900 it was $22,000,000 and in 1903, $25,000,000, in round numbers.

The farmers of the United States are apparently making no effort to reap any part of this golden harvest for themselves. The census of 1900 showed the total number of goats in the United States to be less than 2,000,000 in number, and when it is understood that the skins of probably 20,000,000 goats were required to make $25,000,000 worth imported last year, it would seem that the supply from the United States could have formed but a small share of the total consumption. Yet the fact that a large share of our supply of this important import comes from India, China, France and Mexico suggests that there are large areas in the United States which might produce goats successfully and in sufficiently large numbers to supply the entire home demand.

Hayhurst Notes.

Mrs. Davis, of Corning, Cal., mother of S. W. Davis, with her youngest son and grandson, was visiting here this week.

Hermann Miller and his cousin, Chester Miller, left for Jefferson, on Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Chas. Stanley and daughter, were quite sick last week, but are well once more.

Jack McKirdy is hauling lumber and building a new residence. Mrs. McKirdy returned home last Saturday from a visit to relatives near Yoncalla.

A number of relatives from here attended the funeral of "Uncle Charley" Putnam.

Mrs H. D. Yett and children and Mrs. Jas. A. Davis and children, of Yoncalla, were visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. J. T. Miller, last Sunday.

Between ten and fifteen men are working on the new Billy creek sawmill. Unless the work is pushed along rapidly and the machinery hauled before the roads get muddy, there will be no lumber sawed this winter. However, if good weather prevails, a great deal may be accomplished in a short time. PRO BONO PUBLICO.

Distress in England.

A London news dispatch of Tuesday's date says: While Brown and Sulley. his fellow gambler, are enjoying the millions wrung from the cotton corner, the cotton manufacturing districts of Lancashire and adjacent countries have reached an acute stage in the period of depression precipitatid by the American manipulators of the cotton market. In dozens of towns in the cotton districts of England thousands of men loiter work less in the streets, while women and children suffer hunger. In Blackburn, Glossop, Mottram and a dozen other towns smokeless chimneys and the silent walls of closed mills overshadow thousands of homes of men thrown out of work because the price of cotton prohibits its use by English manufacturers.

The distress is widespread. Soup kitchens have been opened in all the mill towns in Lancashire. The spinners' unions relief funds are nearly exhausted Thousands of men, women and children are on the verge of starvation. Additional mills are closing daily, adding hundreds to the army of unemployed. Churches and charitable institutions are unable to cope with the distress, which is acute and increasing daily. The federation of master cotton spinners met in Manchester and decided that the mills still open must run on short time until October 20, when it is hoped that the corner will be broken. The prospect of relief, howeven, is dismal.

Lancashire and adjacent counties receive normally 600,000 bales of cotton weekly. Last week not a single bale arrived. The Liverpool master spinners declare that if they paid Brown's price for cotton they would make a weekly loss of $3000. Meanwhile the mills are idle, waiting for a break in prices, and tens of thousands of woman and children face hunger and want. In Bury alone 2000 persons are reduced to living wholly on charity funds. Six months ago all wore earning living wages in the mills. The relief officers found many families of spinners too proud to accept charity living on kitchen refuse and potato peelings.

The amalgamated association of cotton spinners that met to consider the results of the American gambling in cotton reports: "We have the spectacle of the cotton trade of the world dislocated by the immoral trading of American gamblors. It is impossible to foresee the end. We believe the time has arrived for drastic action to prevent a recurrence of the present situation. If it is beyond the wit of the legitimate trading community to devise means of prevention of gambling in food and raw materials, all civilized governments ought to be sought to make the offense a criminal one."

With winter close at hand, bringing cold and wet weather, the people of Salem are beginning to wonder where they are going to get their supply of winter wood. The wood problem has been worrying a good many for several years, but in the meantime it has not been growing any better. As the city grows in population and industry, the demand for wood is rapidly increasing and in a corresponding ratio the supply diminishing. There is at present very little wood left in that vicinity, within a reasonable distance, and those who are compelled to haul from a distance are demanding prices which will pay them a good profit. All summer long grub oak sold for $5 per cord from the farmer's wagon, and now the man is fortunate who can secure a cord of grub oak for less than $5.50 per cord or $6 sawed. But the scarcity of old fir is felt even more than oak. Old fir wood is selling for $5 per cord and is very scarce at that figure. Second growth fir sells for $4.50 per cord, with a few dealers selling for $4.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. In 1902 the Southern Pacific Company published a pamphlet entitled "California Industries". It contained principally the personal testimonies of experienced cultivators, says the Pacific Homestead. A short description of the different sections was given and following this the testimonies of fruit growers, dairymen, etc., etc., showing the number of acres cultivated to oranges, grapes, olives, alfalfa, etc., the cost to cultivate the yield per acre and price the products were sold for. This was one of the most practical pieces of literature that could be put out. Mr. W. E. Coman, G. P. A., of the Southern Pacific Company, has written the agents of that company in Oregon that it is the intention to get up a similar publication for Oregon and asks that all who are able to give the results from their farms, dairies, fruit orchards, berry patches, etc., in Oregon write the results for publication in the pamphlet. He says he wants only the actual results under favorable conditions—the same as can be accomplished by any intelligent grower under normal conditions; that is, he wants only honest representations. Any of our readers in Oregon who will take the time to give their experiences will be doing the company a courtesy and the state justice You may send your statement to Mr Doman, or to the PLAINDEALER and it will forwarded to him

Facts.

Mr. Man, you want facts. We are going to give you facts. As you read them over you will know they are facts And we can prove they are facts.

It is a fact that McCormick Binders, Mowers and Rakes are the standard by which all others are guaged.

It is a fact, Racine Buggies, Hacks and Road Wagons are far outstripping our competitors' lines.

It is a fact that the Bain Wagon is the most successful, durable and economical wagon on the market.

It is a fact that the above are all included in the Big 3. You can find them at S. K. Sykes', Roseburg, Ore.

Piano Buyers.

You will notice that we do not have to be continually striking out for a new make of Pianos. The Needham has been our leader for 14 years and is today a leader among the high grade pianos of the world. Some cheap pianos are made high grade simply by getting a boost in the Oregonian or some other leading paper, through those big dealers who think they can, and do make the majority of people believe it simply because they say so. It doesn't take ink, boost or high commissions to make a good piano, but instead the very best material such as are always used in Needham pianos. 29-tf
