DIED.

ROSS—In Roseburg, at the Soldiers home hospital Sunday, Oct. 25, 1903. W. P. Ross of drusey, after a lingering illness.

Captain Ross was born in Little Falls, Hurkier County, New York, on September 5, 1836. His early life was spent mostly in that place and Illinois. He was a member of the 61st Illinois Volunteers in the Civil War.

In 1885, he and his family moved to Florida, and in 1897 came to Oregon and has made Roseburg his home until his death. He leaves a wife and three sons, Wilbur K. aged 21 years, Clair E. aged 14 years, Glenn H. aged 12 and one daughter, aged 8 years. Services will be held from the home of his son, Wilbur Ross at the First Baptist Church, Tuesday, Oct. 27, at 10 a. m., interment in the Masonic Cemetery. The local A. F. and A. M. will have charge of the services. Thus another aged defender of the republic is laid to his final rest.

The funeral was held from the family home this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Oregon Society Sons of the American Revolution.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 1, 1903.

The Oregon Society of Sons of the American Revolution has several times in the past offered prizes to the school children of the state for essays on subjects connected with Revolutionary History. The result in the past have encouraged the Society to renew the offer at this time. Prizes of $25, $15 and $10, respectively, will therefore be awarded for the three best essays in the order of merit, written by students in the public schools of Oregon, on any of the following subjects:

1. The Arousing of Public Opinion; the Work of Samuel Adams, Thomas Paine, John Dickinson and Patrick Henry.
2. Lexington and Concord.
3. The Battle of King's Mountain.
4. Virginia's Part in the American Revolution.

Essays are limited in length to 3,000 words; must be written on one side of the paper in the student's own hand writing and must be accompanied by the certificate of the principal of the school attended by the author, to the effect that the author is a bona fide student in the school and has been in attendance therein not less than four weeks during the school year of 1903-4. Essays must be forwarded to the chairman of the committee in charge, Wallace McCamant, 34 Concord, Building Portland, Ore., so as to reach him not later than February 1st, 1904. In awarding the prizes the committee will be governed by these three considerations:

1. Historical accuracy.
2. Manner of treatment.
3. Orthography, grammar, syntax and punctuation.

Any additional information which may be desired will be cheerfully furnished by any member of the committee. The essay which is awarded the first prize will be published in full, with the name of the author, in the public press.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take other after having once used it.
