"Are you a Mason?" which will be seen in this city at the Opera House, Monday, Jan. 11, is meeting with great success wherever it has been presented. It is now in its fourth year as a dramatic offering, and up to the present there has been no diminution in the patronage. Many theatre parties have been given by Masons in neighboring towns, and the ludicrous situation in which a quasi candidate for fraternal orders have been put seems to appeal strongly to them.
The lively farce, "Are you a Mason?" will be seen here for the first presentation at the Opera House, on Monday, January 11. The action of the piece revolves about one Amos Bloodgood, of Beakfield, Ill., who, without any knowledge of the workings and ritual of Masonry, tries to make his wife believe that, in accordance with her wishes, he has joined an order, when in reality he has not. He is obliged to resort to all manner of subterfuge, and he becomes involved in endless difficulties in his endeavors to explain his conduct. He is finally unmasked by a bonafide Mason, and in the end satisfies his wife by accepting her wish.MARRIED.

County Court in Session

The regular January session of the County Court convened yesterday morning with County Judge, M. D. Thompson, and the commissioners A. E. Nichols, of Azalea and J. C. Young, of Oakland, present.

This session is a very important one to the taxpayers of the county. The tax levy is to be made, road supervisors report to be considered and the general list of names from which juries are to be drawn for service in the Circuit Court during the ensuing year, will be drafted.

Stockmen who wish to graze stock within the Southern division of the Cascade Range Forest Reserve during the season of 1904, are requested to make application for this privilege at once to the Forest Supervisor at Roseburg, Oregon, as all applications for this privilege must be on file in his office not later than February 10, 1904.

Notice.
S. C. BARTCHEM, Forest Supervisor.

Be Quick.

Not a minute should be lost when a child shows symptoms of croup. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. It never fails, and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co.

Attention of the general land office frauds in Beaver county, Okla., and an investigation has been ordered by Mr. Richards, the land commissioner. Inspector Axline has been notified to make the inquiry. It is alleged that a Chicago real estate firm has been sending agents into Beaver county to file lands for clients, who are supposed to pay a certain fee for the trouble that the firm saves them of a trip to the territory, and the prospective settler need not go to the territory until he is ready to settle on his land. So far as can be ascertained, the complaint is against the Chicago firm and its agents alone.

Congratulations.
Mr. John H. Colburn, Editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a letter of congratulations to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as follows: "Sixteen years ago when my first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began by using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our babies really like it. Another is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk from giving an overdose. I congratulate you upon the success of your remedy." For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co.

The Seri Indians, who occupy Tiquilib island, in the gulf of California, have gone on the warpath, and, according to information received by the military authorities here, the savages are ravaging the ranches and committing depredations on the mainland. The Seris are said to be cannibals and are known to be the fleetest runners in the world.

A Business Proposition.
If you are going east a careful selection of your route is essential, to the enjoyment of your trip. If it is a business trip time is the main consideration; if a pleasure trip, scenery and the conveniences and comforts of a modern railroad. Why not combine all by using the ILLINOIS CENTRAL, the Up-to-Date Road, running two trains daily from St. Paul and Minneapolis, and from Omaha to Chicago. Free Reclining Chair Cars, the famous Buffet-Library-Smoking Cars, all trains vestibuled. In short thoroughly modern throughout. All tickets reading via the Illinois Central will be honored on these trains and no extra fare charged. Our rates are the same as those of inferior roads--why not get your money's worth? Write for full particulars.
