Richards & Pringle's Minstrels entertained a crowded house at the Roseburg theatre last Saturday night with a splendid performance. Their company is first-class in all the details. Their musicians are artists, their comedians the limit of fun makers, while the hoop controller and other features make it one of the best shows of its kind on the coast, but above all is the fact that it is an absolutely clean show. There is plenty to laugh at but not the slightest innuendo. It is indeed the cleanest show on the road.

A. J. Gross, aged about fifty years, was met on the second trestle north of Roseburg Thursday afternoon at about three o'clock by a light engine coming in to Roseburg and in climbing out on the trestles to get out of the way fell off and was knocked unconscious. The engineer, James Wagonblast, saw him and stopped the engine within about twelve feet of him, but Mr. Gross under the excitement lost his balance and fell. The engine men went down and got him and brought him to town after which he regained consciousness and discovered that he was not seriously hurt. Mr. Gross is a resident of Dode Canyon, beyond Oakland. He went to that city on last Friday's local.

The issue of the California Fruit-grower of February 20th prints the following in regard to the prune market: It is very difficult at this time to be exact in giving prune quotations as prices for the different sizes vary according to both buyer and seller, and the ideas of almost everyone seem to be a little different just at this time. The most desired sizes are 80s-90s and 90-100s. The inquiry at this time is extremely small and there are very few good moving. Dealers generally are unable to get more than 2 1/2 cents basis. Occasional sales are reported above this figure for special sizes or brands. The Willamette Valley Association has closed out its holdings of Oregon Italian on 1 1/2 cent basis with the exception of a few 40-50s. The East report the prune market as gaining somewhat in strength and most of the large centers well cleaned up of stock.

The Woman's Home Companion for March contains 56 pages of good things. Best of all is Mrs. Will H. Low's article on "French Home Cooking for American Households." This is a series invaluable to American cooks. Other features are "True Stories of Heroic School-Teachers," "Colonial Dames of America," "Wireless Century," "The Coming War." There are short stories by Albert Bigelow Paine, Joe Lincoln, Robert C. V. Meyers and Lulu Linton. Of exceptional timeliness is the article on "Flying-Machines," telling of the great contest at the St. Louis Exposition. The fashion pages anticipating the spring modes. "Owlis" is the fascinating subject of Mr. Baynes' Nature Study articles. Published by The Crowell Publishing Company, Springfield, Ohio; one dollar a year; ten cents a copy.

Another big land slide came in at Roberts Hill Saturday morning at about 7 o'clock blocking the track for the passage of trains. A stub train was made up in Roseburg and backed to the slide, where the passengers and mail and a portion of the baggage was transferred. The steam shovel was sent out of Ashland and reached the scene at about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. As fast as the rails were cleared the earth kept crawling down and has continued to delay trains until today. The road has been clear since morning.

Stag Party.
A stag party was given at the home of Wilbur King Ross Thursday, Feb. 15, complimentary to Messrs. Ainslie Q. Johnson and Nelson Osmundson. At 8:30 p. m. the guests began to arrive and in a very short time the parlors were filled to overflowing with pleasure-seeking young men. The games of Flowers, Ping-pong, and Finch were indulged in until a late hour, when the young men were invited to the dining room, where sandwiches, salad, oysters, caviar, oranges and ice cream were served. After supper, music prevailed until midnight, when a stage dance and Virginia reel were danced until the wee, small hours of morning, when the young guests departed, each surprised to think they could have such a jolly time without the girls.

Senator Hansbrough of North Dakota has introduced a bill authorizing the Secretary of the Interior to buy for cash patented lands in forest reserves on terms to be arranged in individual cases between the Secretary and the land owner, or authorizing the exchange of such lands for public lands outside of the reserves, the fee lands to be of the same character as the lands surrendered. The bill provides that hereafter no forest reserve shall be created on lands included within any railroad land grant.

Those present were: Nels Osmundson, Ainslie Johnson, Milo Atterbury, George Norman, Elmer Wimbler, Wm King, Dan C. Robbins, Lloyd Miller, John Ryan, Russell Harms, Dell Stevens, Harry E. Miller, Robert Forbes, Roy Sloper, Charles Mosier, George Culver, Thomas Townsend, Lester Bell, John Townsend, Dally Bell, John Robertson, Guy Hammitte, Maurice Madden, Dale Schmidt, Clayton Negley, George Robinson, Wm Soren, Earl Fickler, Mar Hagan, Wilbur Ross, W. Miners and prospectors are very much excited over the reported discovery of a vein of gold and copper twenty-five feet wide at Bowerman. Gunnison county, Col., and people from all parts of the State are moving to the new camp. Much of the vein matter, it is said, carries 30 to 40 per cent copper, and samples from it that have been assayed showed over $500 gold to the ton. Bowerman is easily accessible, being within fifteen miles of both the Denver and Rio Grande and the Colorado and Southern railroads.
