Political Driftwood.

Ex-President Cleveland has introduced a little life into the present dull passage of the political play by outlining, in the Saturday Evening Post, his idea of Democracy's chance in the coming campaign and his idea of the platform on which his party should make the fight. The gist of ex-President Cleveland's views and opinions expressed have been approved by the conservative element of the Democrats, but to the wing of the party headed by Mr. Bryan, Mr. Cleveland's words have been like salt in an open wound.

It is truly edifying to observe the cordiality that does not exist between the ex-President and the commoner of Nebraska. The character of Bryan's regard is very clearly shown by his comments on Cleveland, called out by the publication of the latter's article. Cleveland would not "vote for a candidate running on the Ten Commandments if the candidate had not secretly mortgaged himself to Wall Street," Bryan declares, and then submits further: "There is a wider gap between his professions and practices than there has ever been in recent years between the professions and practices of any other public man. His career has shown how completely the conscience can be separated from the mind in the performance of official duty." To this Cleveland made the following answer, which shows the character of his regard for the Western leader: "I don't care any more about what Bryan says than the wind that blows. Let him talk."

This tribute to the Nebraska orator can be counted upon to cement the kind feeling existing between the two men. "Editor William R. Hearst, campaign manager of Congressman William R. Hearst," as one of the dailies has it, continues to give conscientious attention to the interests of his chosen candidate. Hearst headquarters for the Eastern States have been opened in New York, and for the Western States in Chicago. It is stated that Mr. Bryan is tacitly supporting the candidature of Editor Hearst's nominee. The fact that Mr. Bryan was recently the chief speaker at a Hearst rally in Florida is the strongest sort of evidence of the truth of this assertion. If there is to be an alliance between these two men, it is difficult to foresee what concessions will be made by each in behalf of a common working basis. Mr. Bryan is fast on record as against any but a free-silver man. Manager Hearst, for his part, will not imperil the chances of his candidate by having anything about free silver in his platform. The compromise will certainly have to be delicately drawn.

Touching a "Tender Spot."

"You touched a tender spot, old man."

So runs a phrase in the last note of Hanna to Roosevelt, as it is now published. It is the word of man to man, written at that line where distinctions perish—where Senator and President and all titles and precedences merge into the one great fact of a common humanity.

What Mr. Roosevelt had done was a very ordinary thing. He had gone to call where one lay ill. It was the very simplest office of friendship. But "it touched a tender spot" because it met a human yearning. None of us fail to look for sympathy and attention in an hour of suffering or bereavement. None of us fail of a peculiar appreciation of the outstretched hand of fellowship in such an hour. The offering and the reception both are good.

Among friendship's many opportunities, that of touching "the tender spot" is perhaps least to be neglected.

An action was brought in Justice White's court Tuesday by Reed & Hirsch, boot and shoe manufacturers, of Portland, in the form of an attachment on a stock of shoes sold P. T. McGee last year. The Court gave plaintiff judgment in the sum of $154.65.

On a complaint filed by B. M. Armitage, A. T. Thompson was bound over on a bond of $500 to keep the peace, in Justice White's court, Monday.

James Bullock has been placed under $200 bonds to keep the peace, by the justice court, B. M. Armitage being the complaining witness.

A. T. Thompson was brought to time before the Justice Court on a charge of allowing gambling on Sunday. The case was thrown out of court on the grounds that the justice court had no jurisdiction in the case.

A. T. Thompson has been fined $20 by Recorder Armitage for keeping his saloon open on Sunday.

The World's Fair Route.

Those anticipating an Eastern trip, or a visit to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis, cannot afford to overlook the advantages offered by the MISSOURI PACIFIC RAILWAY, which, on account of its various routes and gateways, has been appropriately named "The World's Fair Route."

Passengers from the Northwest take the Missouri Pacific trains from Denver or Pueblo, with the choice of either going direct through Kansas City, or via Wichita, Fort Scott and Pleasant Hill. Two trains daily from Denver and Pueblo to St. Louis without change, carrying all classes of modern equipment, including electric lighted observation parlor cafe dining cars. Ten daily trains between Kansas City and St. Louis.

Write, or call on W. G. McBride, General Agent, 124 Third Street, Portland, for detailed information and illustrated literature. 15-11

A new invoice of premiums has arrived and will be on exhibition Saturday morning, Feb. 20 at 10 o'clock.

FRANCE WANTS MEDIATION

RUSSIA IS VIRTUALLY WHIPPED BY THE JAPANESE

AN EFFORT WILL NOW BE MADE TO ROB THE JAPANESE OF THE FRUITS OF THEIR VICTORY.

PARIS, March 2.—Former Minister of Foreign Affairs Honotaux has started an agitation in favor of intervention by the powers to put a stop to the Russo-Japanese war. High officials of the French government are deeply interested in the movement and count much upon its success. Grave fears are entertained that if the war continues much longer all of Europe may become involved in it, and the Japanese victories leave little ground for the hope that the war will come to an early conclusion if the combatants are left to fight it out without interference.

Since the movement for an intervention by the powers originates in France, it is believed that Russia will be the more inclined to give it favorable consideration. Japan may be less inclined to do so, but could scarcely resist the combined recommendations of the neutral powers.

LONDON, March 2.—The rumors of proposed mediation between Russia and Japan have aroused profound interest, but it is learned from the highest diplomatic authority that as yet no overtures have been made to either of the belligerent governments, with a view to ending the war.

If such overtures should be made, it is understood that Japan will give them careful attention and may possibly consent to mediation if assured that her vital interests will be sufficiently protected.

LONDON, March 2.—Again there is an absolute dearth of news from Port Arthur or the vicinity of the Yalu river. Some significance is attached to this as possibly indicating that a fight is in progress at Port Arthur, and that the use of the wires by correspondents has consequently been interrupted.

Rumors are current that the Japanese have sustained reverses, but there is no confirmation of these reports.

The feeling is growing that China will become involved in the war, as she persists in taking initiative action against Russia in the matter of massing troops and allowing Chinese brigands to harass the Russian flanks. The Yang Tse squadron has been placed on a war footing.

RUSSIAN FLEET CANNOT PASS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 2.—The Turkish government is resolved to forcibly prevent the Russian Black Sea fleet from passing through the Dardanelles. The defenses to the straits have been strengthened, due to England's threat to make a demonstration in case the Russian fleet attempts to pass through.

PORT ARTHUR REPORTED TAKEN.

LONDON, March 2.—The rumor was circulated in the house of commons lobby today that Port Arthur had fallen. No authentic information is obtainable, and communication with the seat of war is practically suspended today.

To Admit New Mexico and Arizona.

A special from Las Vegas, N. M., says: A telegram from New Mexico's territorial delegate, giving the information that the President has just declared to him that he was in favor of joint statehood for New Mexico and Arizona, and would use his influence to secure the passage of a joint bill in the present Congress, has just been received in this city.

Governor Otero, Territorial Secretary Reynolds and Chief Justice Mills happened to be here when the telegram was received. All have been opponents of joint statehood, but upon seeing the message they abandoned the fight for separate statehood and are willing to accept a liberal measure admitting New Mexico and Arizona jointly.

$300 Reward!

American Workmen Behold.

"Do you mean to say that the Scotch, the Irish or the English laborers in the ship-yards at Glasgow can do 60 per cent more work with the same tools and in the same time than can be done by the American ship-yard workers?" demanded James O'Connell, President of the International Association of Mechanics, of Wallace Downey, a New York shipbuilder, at a hearing last Saturday on the eight-hour bill before the House Committee on Education and Labor.

"I do," answered Mr. Downey. "It has cost me $500,000 in the last five years, in addition to gray hairs, to find it out. I spent $90,000 in purchasing the best tools and in acquiring knowledge of methods at Glasgow, and tried for three years to induce American workmen that by doing piece work they could accomplish more. They would not see it.

"An arbitrary eight-hour day which would prohibit over-time of any kind would place a handicap on the American shipbuilder that would lose for him all opportunity of participating in foreign trade."

More Tar and Feathers.

Reports from the little town of Dillon, Mont., state that excitement growing out of the "tar-and-feather" party given in honor of C. W. Bridwell, evangelist of the "Holiness people," has not abated in the least. When seen Tuesday afternoon Mr. Bridwell seemed little the worse for his unpleasant experience of Sunday night, and stated that he had reconsidered his promise of leaving town by 6 o'clock last evening, as it had been made under compulsion, and stating that he had received offers of protection from some of the best people of the town. However, a few minutes before 6 he was seen leaving the city in a closed carriage, his destination unknown.

A certain wealthy woman of the town, a prominent member of the "Holy Rollers," and a relative of the preacher, had warrants issued for the arrest of six well known young men of the place, and states that she will spend $10,000, if necessary, to convict them, and fully expects to fill the state penitentiary with ex-Dillon people.

Public sentiment seems to be unanimously in favor of the "whiteappers," and it is hoped that the town has seen the last of the apostle, as more violence and even bloodshed might follow his return.

Opposing Trust by Trust.

At Omaha, Nebraska, on Tuesday twenty states were represented by 250 delegates to the National Co-operative Graingrowers' and Stockraisers' Association. H. N. Gaines, of Topeka, was made chairman, and Robert Lindbloom, of Chicago, secretary. The executive committee presented the proposed new constitution. It provided that the name of the association shall be changed to the Farmers' National Exchange Company. Its object shall be to "buy, sell and deal in grain, livestock and all kinds of produce on commission and otherwise, and for that purpose build and equip elevators, warehouses, cold-storage plants, stockyards and whatever shall be necessary for the carrying on the business of the company." The capital stock is placed at $50,000,000, with 5,000,000 shares of $10 each. The company shall be governed by nine directors who shall have power to absorb other similar associations.

State and local exchanges are provided for.

Jameson Prime Minister.

A brief dispatch from Cape Town states that Dr. Jameson, the leader of the famous raid, has become Prime Minister of Cape Colony. Here is an announcement to make us marvel. Time, chance, and ability—and whatever else makes for man's elevation and his downfall—have wrought few more remarkable changes than the one here recorded. We all remember when Jameson was perched on the scaffold as a result of that wild ride to Johannesburg, which provoked an endless amount of illfeeling between the Boers and the English. We remember how he was denounced, almost spat upon. And now he is being bowed to as Prime Minister of Cape Colony.

Perhaps this dare-devil may prove himself an able administrator. No one will deny that he is a man of ability. If he can hold tight rein upon his wild fancies he will certainly show himself an improvement upon Sir John Sprigg, his predecessor, who has been a trimmer, setting his sails to catch every political breeze that blew across the colony.

$500 REWARD for WOMEN WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the disease and weakness peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States for any case of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb, which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

"I was a great sufferer for six years and doctored all the time with a number of physicians but did not receive any benefit," writes Mrs. George Rogers, of 642 Bond Street, Saginaw (North) Michigan. "I had given up all hope of ever getting better. Thought I would write to you when I received your letter telling me what to do I commenced to take your Favorite Prescription and follow your advice. I have taken ten bottles in all. Also five visits of the 'Pleasant Pellets.' Am now regular, after having missed two years and suffered with pain in the head and back. I was so nervous, could not eat or sleep. Now I can thank you for my recovery."

Don't hesitate to write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., if you want good medical advice from a fully qualified physician as to your personal good health. Such letters are always answered free of charge and confidentially. A medicine which has outlived all others for women in the past third of a century and being recommended by all those who have used it, is a good remedy to tie to. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is purely vegetable and does not contain a particle of alcohol. It destroys the blood corpuscles and weakens the system. Do not permit the dealer to insult your intelligence by suggesting some other compound which he recommends as "just as good," because he makes it himself.
