MARCH 5, 1904.

FOR DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE TO CONGRESS.

The many democratic friends of O. P. Coshov are urging him to allow them to announce that he is a candidate for Congressman from this district.

The PLAINDEALER saw Mr. Coshov and asked him the point blank question if he would be a candidate for the democratic nomination? but failed to receive a positive answer in the affirmative to the question for the gentleman seemed to be dealing in evasion and equivocation, telling that the nominee would only be a sacrifice upon the altar of democracy and so forth. Well, if the democrats have to offer up a sacrifice they have not a better subject nor a worthier man in their ranks than O. P. Coshov and the PLAINDEALER cannot imagine a cleaner man nor a cleaner record nor a democrat more entrenched in the affections of the better element of democracy than he is. As a man and a citizen he is all right but as a democrat he is all wrong because his political training, education and principles are a mixture of the political doctrines of Grover Cleveland and Billy Bryan. Mr. Coshov has made a hodge podge mess of the hides of those gladiators and seasoned the concoction with the ghost of Jeffersonianism. Our democratic brother is the ruling elder and a bright and shining light in the Baptist church of Roseburg, Past Master of the Masonic lodge and now High Priest U. D. of the Chapter and, well—we will do the utmost we can to defeat him if he is the nominee for we don't want such a model of good citizenship dragged in the mud of political perfidy, for no man can be elected on the democratic ticket who does not stand in the saloons, gambling halls and their ilk. There would be no affinity between O. P. Coshov and the thirsty brotherhood and without that vote he could not be elected, because a large percentage of the democratic voters are built that way.

THE DRAKE MYSTERY.

Since our last issue our attention has been called to the fact that the report published was incorrect in this particular.

Drake's neighbor was not the man who killed the deer. The man who was supposed to have killed the deer and hung it on the tree was a Southern Pacific trackwalker and he is interested with the man who looks after or owns the goats. It was the trackwalker who told Mr. Drake and the neighbor that he had killed a deer and hung it up on a tree and the first man to get to the deer the next morning could have it. Drake started for the deer the next morning and that was the last ever seen of him. Then follows the story as told by the PLAINDEALER in the last issue with this amplification. When the neighbors met to search for Drake the man who had a grievance against Drake because of the taking up and fencing the claim, urged the neighbors not to go in a certain direction to hunt for Drake, and told them that he had searched that part of the woods. After the neighbors had gone in a different direction he started out with his friend the trackwalker in the goat business and took a stretcher with him and the two men were seen by three different parties carrying the stretcher in the direction where the deer was supposed to have been suspended and where Drake must have been killed by some means or made away with himself, the whole matter is now ten times more mysterious and no hope is expressed that Drake's body will ever be found. The columns of the PLAINDEALER are opened to the neighbor and his friend, the trackwalker, to show up their side of this lamentable business as the PLAINDEALER has no desire to do any man injury but it states frankly, it looks like a black cloud had settled in the neck of the woods around Glendale and that murder most foul has been committed and that the body of the murdered man has been made away with.

BRIDGES AND BOOTH CONFIRMED.

The PLAINDEALER is in receipt of a telegraph message from Washington stating that on Wednesday the Senate confirmed Bridges as Register and Booth as Receiver of the Public Land office at Roseburg.

GETTING READY FOR THE FUNERAL.

The Democrats of Oregon have commenced to organize hearse clubs.

The government land office has been turned over to the Booth-Kelly Lumber company to manipulate and the citizens are asked to turn over the Congressional office to the Booth-Kelly Lumber company; and Senator Booth wants to steal from every settler his right to the streams of water; and the timber speculators made Senator Booth their champion to foist upon the people a burden of exorbitant taxation to protect the timber on their lands, too often stolen from the government and more often from the honest, hardworking settlers; and some of the voters are asking this question; shall the whole of Western Oregon be turned over to the Booth-Kelly Lumber company?

State Senator Booth is an enemy to individual effort in building up the resources of Oregon for his action in the Senate one year ago was entirely in favor of robbing settlers of their rights to the water courses and to burden them with taxation to protect timber sharks land and the effort of the Booth-Kelly Lumber company has been to rob many settlers in Oregon out of their just claim to public land. That LaGrande stealing of the homesteaders' land was a disgrace to the State of Oregon. This man Booth must be repudiated and defeated at the primaries, county conventions and at the joint senatorial convention. Such men are politically a disgrace to the republican party and the entire State of Oregon.

A lot of hobos stealing a ride on the railroad, were arrested, fined and sent to jail. The total cost to Douglas county for court expenses and keep of the men will not be less than one hundred dollars. Nobody will be made happy except the hobos who were looking for three square meals a day the same as Sheriff Parrott gives and they have found what they wanted and the taxpayers are footing reports are all confusing and perhaps are false, but one thing is sure, and that is, Drake is missing and it is believed by many persons that he was murdered and the body made away with. By going over all the reports, boiling them down as it were and obtaining the truth we hope that it will be found and proven to the satisfaction of everybody that Drake came to his death in a natural manner or that he has wandered out of the country and that the men who were caught carrying the stretcher did so from pure humanitarian feelings and for no other object.

HE NEEDS SOLOMON'S SOOTHING SYRUP.

The PLAINDEALER learns that a father in Roseburg who has a son fifteen years old, has decided as a last resort to have the boy committed to the reform school. The boy is, it seems, thoroughly tough. He recently secured a revolver and not only threatened to kill other boys and went to one of their homes, it is said, with that intention, but he threatened to murder his own mother with the revolver and waited at her door to do so, and that the father saw the boy and disarmed him. The boy was supposed to have been in school today, but he was in an old cabin near the railroad track, with other boys, also supposed to be in school. They smoke cigarettes and read yellow backed novels and are preparing to be cut-throats or something equally as bad. If the whole lot of these boys could be caught and stripped and have a willow rod well laid on in an artistic manner, from the napes of their necks to the soles of their feet, it would beat the reform school instruction, to make them good—for they would be good after the first effective dose.

NOT DODGING THE QUESTION.

We have read Republican's screed in the Review and in answer the PLAINDEALER states: The man who would buy or sell his proxy in a Republican convention is a fit subject for the pen, but he is a gentleman beside the man who signs himself "Republican" and seeks to disrupt the republican party by advocating his personal claims for office in a democratic sheet. The men who bought or sold proxies were open in the transaction if it was a fact, while "Republican" in the Review is a cringing coward afraid to let his name be known, and as we have said before, he is a character assassin who stabs his victim in the dark and in the back. From all the light before us furnished by "Republican" himself, we are fully convinced that the man is a candidate for a state office to succeed the man he is attacking but has not the moral courage to announce his candidacy.

Cleveland a Nigger Lover.

During the consideration of the District of Columbia appropriation bill in the House Monday, Scott, of Kansas, made the declaration that a negro had died at the White House with President Cleveland during the latter's administration. The statement was prompted by references by Gilbert, of Washington to the dining of Booker T. Washington at the White House. When the name was demanded Scott said it was C. H. J. Taylor, who was appointed by President Cleveland as recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia.

Gilbert observed that he and others had never heard of the incident, but the Democrats were not "particularly claiming" Cleveland and Cockran, of Missouri (Dem.) said it was but cumulative evidence that "there is no better Republican in the country than Grover Cleveland."

The discussion of the question of reciprocity by Dabell, of Pennsylvania (Rep.), and Williams, the minority leader, consumed the greater portion of the day. Another feature of the day was a declaration by Lovering, Massachusetts, that while the Republican party was talking about "standing pat," thousands of dollars were being lost to manufacturers and "that our boasted prosperity is fast coming to an end," because of the failure of the party to enlarge the drawback system and give new markets which he declared were now demanded.

The coming season of sports promises to be the most successful one locally for baseball games that the city has ever known. Forty-one games will be played on the home grounds. The local club, according to the requirements of the League of which it is a member, will soon file articles of incorporation, and a meeting was held yesterday with that end in view.

Manager W. E. Morrow, of the Roseburg Baseball Club announces that he has signed the following players for the coming season:

Pitchers—R. R. Reed, Portland; Fred Gregory, Whatcom, Washington; R. H. Hunter, Roseburg; George Talifero, Nitro.

Infielders—E. Bradley, Roseburg; A. C. Naylor and H. Newell, Bandon; G. W. Millington, Roseburg; Jack Miller, Portland and W. Robinson, Roseburg.

The schedule of games for the league was arranged at the meeting in Salem last Saturday. The circuit comprises Roseburg, Eugene, Salem and Vancouver, Wash.

It was decided to open the playing season on May 1, and continue until September 15, each team to play four games a week, which will give each city in the circuit forty games during the season. All games will be played strictly in accordance with the National Association rules, and the league will apply to the National Association Baseball League for protection. If the league is admitted to membership in the association, the different clubs will have exclusive control over their players, whose services cannot be secured by other clubs without paying such price as may be fixed by the club holding contracts with the players, except that at the close of a playing season the price to be paid for a release is fixed by the amount of money to be paid to the player. The league will be called in case of first class material is developed, the club holding the contract of such player will be in position to demand its own price for his release. Each team will be limited to eleven players after June 1, and after that date no changes can be made in the personnel of any team with-

LONDON.—A dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from Yinkow, dated February 29, says: Fifteen Japanese warships furiously bombarded Port Arthur from 10 until 12 o'clock this morning.

The Russian cruisers Novik, Askold and Bayan, accompanied by four torpedo boats, steamed out to meet the attack. They were, however, forced to retire. The Askold was in a sinking condition. The Novik was badly damaged and a torpedo boat was again damaged. The Japanese withdrew in good order.

No news is published here today of the operations or movements other than at Port Arthur. According to a report from St. Petersburg a body of Cossacks from South Ussuri province with quick firing guns is advancing along the east coast of Korea to prevent a landing of the main Japanese army and comment

A Later "Apropos."

(With apologies only to Mr. R. W. Fenn.) When the big boy goes to holler and go hunting for his maw,

All the uncles, aunts and cousins in the town. Came running to the rescue (of the marbles from his craw),

Which they meant to take from little boy so brown. Said "uncle," "Let me hold them, I will give them back to you

When you've learned to handle marbles quick and well; Or, listen just a minute, while I tell what I'll do:

I will give you twenty million if you'll sell."

When the big boy and his mammy and the servants, great and small, Came 'round the corner in a howling mob,

They saw the "uncle" standing, like a statue straight and tall, But they didn't know about the little job.

They shouted for the marbles and rushed at little brown, They vowed they'd maim or murder

Uncle Sam; But he reached his long arms out till they swept around the town, And he piled the frisky fighters in a jam.

Call for Congressional Convention.

A convention of the republican party of the first congressional district of the state of Oregon is hereby called to meet in Salem, Ore., Wednesday, April 13, at 11 a. m. for the purpose of nominating one representative for congress and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention.

The convention will consist of 177 delegates, apportioned among the several counties of the district as follows: to-wit: Benton, 7; Clackamas, 18; Coos, 9; Curry, 3; Douglas, 14; Jackson, 12; Josephine, 7; Klamath, 4; Lake, 4; Lane, 19; Lincoln, 5; Linn, 14; Marion, 23; Polk, 9; Tillamook, 5; Washington, 13; Yamhill, 11; total, 177.

The same being one delegate-at-large for each county, one for every 150 votes cast for Judge Bean on the last general election, and one for every fraction of 150 larger than 100.

That the work of the convention may be expedited as much as possible, the committee suggests that the chairman and secretary of the several county conventions certify to the list of delegates elected by their county conventions to this congressional convention and mail them at once to Curtis B. Winn, secretary congressional committee, Albany, Ore.

Delegates or others in attendance at the convention may secure a rate of one and one-third fares for the round trip on the Southern Pacific and the Corvallis & Eastern railways by paying full fare to Salem, taking a receipt for fare paid from the ticket agent and having same properly certified by the secretary of the convention T. W. HARRIS Chairman Congressional Committee. CURTIS B. WINN, Secretary.

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.

Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and that by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. This remedy is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results." Sold by A. C. Marsters & Co.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

William Shaffer, a brakeman of Dennison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says. "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clam." An attempt was made according to dispatches from Alexandria, Va., to steal the will of George Washington from the clerk's office of the Fairfax county court house. The outer doors of the vault were shattered by the explosive used, but the document, which reposes in a glass case with other valuable papers, was unharmed. The will is in Washington's writing and was made in the year of his death. It covers 29 closely written pages, each of which bears the signature of the first President.

DRAIN PAYS 102 MILLS.

Today's Nonpareil will publish the following: Probably no community in the state of Oregon will have as high taxes this year as the town of Drain. There is a city tax of 5 mills, the county tax is 27 mills and there is a special school tax of 70 mills. This special school tax is for the purpose of paying off the entire indebtedness on the school building that was donated to the state for the Normal School. Few towns the size of Drain would have undertaken to raise such an amount of money at one assessment, and while the high taxes will no doubt be a hardship to some, there is the consoling fact that it will not occur again. The people of Drain deserve great credit for the pluck displayed in disposing of this debt and show that they are doing their share toward building up the Central State Normal. Its up to the state now to meet them half way and make some more needed improvements.

Thurston Pettijohn, Dave Martin and A. Allen who were charged with disturbing a religious meeting on Bear Creek and making a rough house generally, were disposed of yesterday. Pettijohn and Martin were fined $20 each and Allen $10.

The Case of the State of Oregon vs. Robt. Anlauf for obstructing a public highway was up before Justice Krewson Saturday. The result was a verdict in favor of the defendant, it appearing that the road obstructed was not a public highway.

C. E. Hazard, clerk of the Drain school district has just completed the school census. The new census shows that there are 214 persons of school age taken, which shows that Drain is growing.

The Drain and Coast Telephone Co., have their line now completed to a point about half way between Elkton and Scottsburg.

During the month of February 17.02 inches of rain fell at Drain. Last February the rain fall was 2.11.

N. L. Whipple and wife returned Monday from a trip to Portland.

Jas. Sterling has been laid up with rheumatism the past week.

Thank the Good Lord we are up on the rainfall at last and have an excess of about three inches since Sept. 1, 1903.

We are long on mist and short on sunshine.

The Booth-Kelly Lumber Company's newspaper at Eugene is full of the praise of the Infant Wonder that has been fed on sawdust and Boom food until the kid is as large as all out of doors.

If the Republican voters of Lane Douglas and Josephine counties want more homesteads to be stolen from settlers, every stream in Oregon turned over to logging graft combines and every farmer burdened with taxation to protect timber land speculators, all they have to do is to fix up the conventions so that Senator Booth will be re-elected.
