Mrs. Jamieson Entertains.

This afternoon from two to six o'clock Mrs. W. H. Jamieson in hostess at a charmingly arranged party at which something near sixty ladies are guests.

The reception rooms are beautiful indeed with their wealth of rare flowers, each room showing a different color scheme. The first parlor where "hearts" is played is in pink and red, red hearts threaded on red ribbons being carried diagonally across from frieze to frieze intersecting at the chandelier. Many vases of pale pink carnations, scarlet carnations and pink La France roses are used, but probably the prettiest thing in the room is a growing aspidistra, literally aflame with its countless deep pink blossoms. The back parlor is in pale green and white, twisted bands of the two being caught to the ceiling at the center of the room and draped to each corner. The flowers here are bowls of lilies of the valley, white tulips and white narcissus with their own foliage. In the dining room, where the fitch devotes will play, the colors are royal purple and lemon yellow, bands of the two being arranged as are the white and green in the adjoining room. Many bowls of purple California violets appear on the side board and china cabinet, and are only less pretty than the rarely beautiful roses, daffodils and tulips all in tones of yellow. The reward for the winner of each game will be a Haviland china plate. Mrs. Jamieson is assisted by Meses. J. D. Hamilton and S. A. Sanford. The bidden guests are Meses. Flint, Barker, Churchill, Brookes, Coehow, Strong, Alken, Stroud, Gibson, L. Kohlhaagen, G. Kohlhaagen, Willis, W. J. Wright, John Wright, Booth, Walter Hamilton, Honck, J. D. Hamilton, Roberts, Strang, Bridges, Benson, Josephson, Huntington, Alex. Anderson, Frank Anderson, Peckler, Gray, Joe Shea, W. H. Fisher, H. T. McClallen, Bolter, Sanford, Fitzhugh, Schreiber, Bettins, Miller, J. C. Fullerton, Buick, Grown, Bellows, A. Wollenberg, I. Wollenberg, J. W. Hamilton, Marsters, Rast, Hadley, Graves, Rice, S. The young ladies of the city who participate in dancing are arranging to give a leap year dance in the Armory on St. Patrick's night, two weeks hence. The affair will be championed by the mothers of the young ladies attending. In honor of the patron saint of Erin the decorations and whatever else may be so, consistently, will be of an emerald hue, and the affair promises to be both novel and delightful.

Testimony in the injunction suit brought by Willis Kramer against the William P. Johnson Lumber Company, of Myrtle Creek, for diverting the water of Myrtle Creek, blowing up a dam and other offenses, a civil case, will be taken in Roseburg on the 10th of March, before court stenographer, Ira B. Riddle.

The "Office" saloon, the property of C. F. Cathart and Charles Thom, the latter the owner of the Taylor & Wilson Block, in which the business has been conducted, was closed by mutual consent last Monday evening. L. Kabat, the cigarmaker, has brought suit against the saloon men to collect a $20 cigar bill, and the case will have a hearing in the Justice Court on March 8th.

Lewis G. Grant, of Riddle, was in Roseburg on business Tuesday. He has purchased some real estate at Riddle and has begun the erection of a new dwelling house. For the past several years Mr. Grant has spent the summers in the Alaska mines and expects to again go North, in the spring, where he is employed by the Wild Goose Company as engineer on their gasoline power plant.

Coquille Bulletin: W. Paxon left here Sunday morning for Roseburg. He went horseback over the Coos Bay wagon road and expects to spend some time looking over the country with the idea of locating there if suited. Miss Mand Blundell came up from Bandon Thursday on her way to Southern Oregon, where she will reside for a time. She has been visiting with the family of Capt. Panter, at Bandon.

Edgar Hafer, manager of the Iowa Lumber Company, the new Medford lumbering institution, was in Roseburg Wednesday looking after business. While here he took orders from C. E. Gaylor for 50,000 frame boxes for the coming season. Mr. Hafer says that their mills will be started next Monday, and that they will have a large capacity for boxes. Besides the planing mills and machines in Medford the company has three sawmills in the woods back of Jacksonville which furnish them with the raw lumber. The company moved their plant from Jacksonville to Medford on a bonus given an agreement to establish a $40,000 yearly payroll.

The party of searchers, for the floating body reported in the South Umpqua River, composed of Frank Reed, Thorton Hughes, Thomas Strader and Charles Mosier have returned home from Umpqua Ferry, where they ended their investigation of the river banks on each side. In their search they discovered three cows, a calf and a sheep that had been thrown up on the shore, but no man. The distance they covered by the river route is about thirty-five miles, and it is not thought that any body would pass that point without having been seen. If there really was a corpse it is believed to have sunk and to be where discovery is impossible at the present time.

The next attraction billed for the Roseburg theater by Manager B. W. Strong is the "Down by the Sea" company, which during the past week has been acting at Corvallis in Portland, and is now filling the week's engagement at Seattle. The Evening Telegram has the following about the piece: "The company appearing at Corvallis this week in 'Down by the Sea' is without doubt one of the most talented that has come to the Coast this season in comedy-drama. Miss Curtis, the leading lady, has been here in former seasons with some of the most prominent attractions on tour. The company includes three very clever specialty people, and the scenic effects are so massive that the regular local scenery had to be removed to make room for it." March 14th is the date on which the company will probably be in Roseburg.

S. H. Munson, of Edenhower, was on yesterday adjudged insane, and was committed to the asylum by an order from Judge M. D. Thompson. The testimony given in the examination by members of his family was to the effect that for the past sixteen months he has had spells of temporary insanity and has threatened to do his wife and children bodily injury. The burden of keeping so close a watch over him as is thought to be necessary for the safety of the family had recently become so great that he was brought up for examination on Tuesday but was released. However, more witnesses having been brought in the decision was reversed on Wednesday, with the result of a commitment following. The order was issued by the judge on the opinion of Dr. R. DuGas, county physician, and Dr. O. V. Fisher, who has attended Mr. Munson during his illness. There will doubtless be some surprise on the part of acquaintances of the unfortunate man, with whom he has associated daily for the past several months without any suspicion of his affliction, although it is shown by the evidence that at home he was a different man from that when he was among other people than the members of his own family.

If troubled with weak digestion, belching or sour stomach, use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will get quick relief. For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co.

Mental Culture Club Musicals.

No more delightful musicals have ever been given by the ladies of the Mental Culture Club than that of Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. R. Willis, and no more pleasing or more perfectly rendered program has ever been participated in by the musical members of the organization. Mrs. Willis' handsome parlors, ferns and other foliage plants, for the culture of which this popular hostess has such an enviable reputation, were shown to advantage throughout the double parlors, and the social decorations were entirely of jonquils used in lavish numbers, their soft yellows contrasting prettily with the deep green of the pot plants. In serving lunch Mrs. Willis was assisted by her daughter, Miss Lulu Willis, Miss Jeannie Buick and Miss Rose Josephson. The program rendered was as follows:

- 1—Instrumental duet, "Polonaise," by Yadsason, Mrs. S. C. Flint
- 2—Vocal Solo, "When Love is Done," Mrs. George M. Brown
- 3—Instrumental solo, (A) "Beside the Meadow Brook" and (B) "From Uncle Remus" by McDowell.
- Mrs. Nathan Fullerton
- 3—Vocal solo, "Message of the Violet," from "Prince of Pileas," Mrs. J. C. Fullerton
- 5—Trio, "Wanderers Greeting," by Abt, Mrs. J. C. Fullerton
- 6—Instrumental solo, "Il Mazurka," by Goddard, Mrs. I. Wollenberg
- 7—Vocal solo, "Farewell," by Max Speiker, Mrs. Steiner
- 8—Vocal solo, "The Maiden's Lament," by Schubert, Mrs. Flint
- 9—Trio, "Thou Heaven Blue and Bright," by Franz Abt, Mrs. J. C. Fullerton, Mrs. Flint, Mrs. Steiner.

We regret to chronicle that W. T. Wright, who has been confined to his room from throat trouble ever since his return from California, is still unable to be out.

Dr. Barber Goes to Gardiner. Dr. R. Barber and family of Yoncalla with his family have removed to Gardiner where they will make their future home.

The people of Yoncalla are very sorry to lose Dr. and Mrs. Barber but our loss is Gardiner's gain. Dr. Barber is a highly educated physician with a successful and extensive experience in the practice of medicine and surgery. He is unusually well supplied with instruments necessary to the practice of his profession, and Mrs. Barber's knowledge of medicine makes her truly a help-mate.

The confidence of the people in the Doctor's skill is so great that it gave them a feeling of security to know he was within reach. Their son, Eric, has many warm friends here, especially among the school children who are sorry that he has left them, and hope he may be happy in his new home.

Gardiner is to be congratulated on securing this family and we bespeak for them the highest esteem and deep regard of their new friends, "while loving thoughts and best wishes are given by their friends at Yoncalla. "X" Yoncalla, Or. Mar. 2, 1904.
