INSURRECTION IN ALBINIA.

Turkey's position is complicated by an insurrection now in progress in Albinia. The Albanians have risen in revolt in consequence of oppressive tax measures sec 11 in tp 25 s, r 2 west. and the Macedonian reform scheme, 5 and 6 in blk 81 in Second Southern Twenty thousand of the rebels besieged Shemsi Pacha, with 2,500 troops, at Babajhasi. An anomalous feature of this uprising (Reported by Title Guarnt, & Loan Co.) is that the Sultan's sympathy seems to be with the rebels. ### Our Naval Needs.

The announcement that the British programme of naval construction for 1905 has been cut down, presumably because of the Russian sea reverses, adds the comment of fact and the emphasis of example to Congressman Burton's protest against the rapid increase of our naval expenditure.

It is Great Britain's policy to maintain a sea-power equivalent to the combined fleets of "Russia, France and one other." In total tonnage, though probably not in modern effectivenese, she now has that vast preponderance. The smashing of the Russian shipe gives her breathing-space; instead of beginning three great battle ships before April 1 of next year she will lay down two. Even at this she will expend the enormous sum of $134,000,000, upon a comprehen sive list which is especially strong in torpedo-boats and submarines.

JUST ONE PER CENT.

The Proportion of American Goods Sold Cheaper Abroad Than at Home. In the New York Times of Sept. 25 appears a communication from Mr. A. B. Jennings in reply to the contention that the American people are the victims of "brazen highway robbery because possibly I per cent of the total output of our domestic output of manufactures is sold abroad cheaper than the remaining 90 per cent is sold at home. Says Mr. Jennings: "'A,' be he individual or trust, hires a body of men to manufacture. In every business there are the seasons of rapid and slow sales. The body of men have families to support and must be employed through busy and dull season, and a force large enough to keep up with the busy season demand produces a surplus for the dull season.

"The goods sold at lower price than European production, his brazen high way robbery,' must be this surplus, for if it were not a surplus of production it would be sold here at the better prices of home market, and the 'brazen highway robbery' has given work to thousands in our beloved land and contributed to the prosperity to which the Times and Mr. Kenny would make an end if people who vote are persuaded to follow their leading.

"But I believe the lesson of the Wilson bill is deep in the hearts of people and fully abroad in the land and will not be forgotten at the election two years hence. If I did not believe this. would turn into cash all the real estate I hold before the crash comes of another attack of free traders upon bome industries." To this proposition that it is better to dispose of surplus production in foreign markets at a reduced price than to stop production when the limit of home consumption has been reached there is but one answer-that is, but one free trade answer. It is this: "We care nothing about home production, home labor, home wages. What we "My gratitude to you and your 'Golden Medical Discovery' is so great," writes Mr. Ross Martin, of Arlee, Mason Co., West Virginia, "that I am at a loss to find words to express my true feeling. I had suffered for a number of years with lung and throat troubles, and doctored with specialists, but got no better. Then I decided to try Dr. Pierce's Colden Medical Discovery, and after using it I was greatly relieved. I have all faith that it has saved my life.

To that end we have assailed protection ever since the first American congress passed and George Washington signed the first protective tariff law. We care nothing about wages, about the interests of labor, about the American standard of living. What we want and always have wanted is cheaper prices. Therefore, we say, repeal the Dingley law, with its protection to labor and wages, and let foreign competition come in." That is the free trader's answer of yesterday, today and forever. It is also the answer of certain Republican "progressives," who think prices are too high and would revise the tariff downward in order to lower prices. The Republican proposition is: Let the tariff alone, let prosperity alone, and the
