A party of young people, chaperoned by Miss Rose Parrott of the High School, drove out to Winston Saturday night to witness the drama "Rio Grande." The drama was well presented and each participant did creditable work for the play. The Japanese cake walk following was also a very interesting feature, and everyone voted that the presentation of the play surpassed their expectations. Those comprising the party who drove out from here were: Misses Rose Parrott, Hazel Jewett, Ella and Arrie Back, Cora and Paula Campbell and Lucile Ringdale. Messrs Wm. King, Leslie Ringdale, Mar Hannan, Wilbur Franklin, Claude Bartrum and Forrest Fraley, the last mentioned taking part in the play as Judge Bugby, a very dignified appearing judge. Despite bad roads and rain the young people report a very merry evening.

After considerable negotiations and only upon consenting to the most liberal terms, Manager Strong has succeeded in securing for a limited engagement of one night at the Opera House on Monday Mar. 14, the magnificent romantic comedy-drama, "Down by the Sea", which has met with immense success in all the large cities of the East. The play occupies the same position among American comedy-dramas as "Way Down East" and "Shore Acres." No play of its kind before the public today has been more deserving of success. Its chief charm is in the purity of its story and the natural manner in which it is told. As a dramatic work it is unique in which the strongest effects are produced by the quietest methods. Interpreted by the magnificent scenic effects, the attraction is one of the most sane factory on tour. One of the big scenic features is an electrical storm at sea and a ship-wreck. Included in the company which is comprised of fourteen prominent actors, is a baby actress whose ability and intelligence is remarkable.

The Power of a Cartoon.

FRANKET HOBBS.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26, 1904.
Dear Sir: Mr. Homer Davenport, the famous cartoonist, is to talk in your city on Wednesday, April 6th, taking for his subject, "The Power of a Cartoon." To describe it as a lecture, would be an injustice to the typical lecture, and also to Mr. Davenport. It is a succession of sparkling, witty anecdotes, each point being emphasized with a rapid drawing, keeping his audience in a continual bubble of merriment. Homer Davenport is a Westerner, and hails from the little town of Silverton, Ore., and his fame as a cartoonist—which bids fair to be eclipsed by his wonderful ability and charm as a storyteller—is world-wide. I enclose copies of two or three letters regarding him, which might interest your readers. Anything you may do to assist in making this entertainment known, will be greatly appreciated by Mr. Davenport. Yours sincerely,
J. B. Pond, Lycium Bureau.

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.

Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and that by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the threatened attack of pneumonia may be ward off. This remedy is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results." Sold by A. C. Marsters & Co.
